☆ Terms of Service for Commissions ☆

Read over this carefully before ordering a commission.

I will draw

1. almost any animal
2. anthros & humans
3. NSFW upon proof of age

I will not draw

1. complex machinery or armor
2. Muscles
3. art from descriptions, art from traditional references, or art from photographs. The reference must be digital. Art from the description and traditional references are subject to price increase depending on the quality of the image sent. Unless it is a pet portrait.

Payment.

- IF PAYING WITH PAYPAL: I will ask you for your Paypal email. I will send you an invoice. I will not start the work until the invoice is paid.
- I will not start your order until half of the price has been paid for. If your commission is 20$ or less, I expect payment upfront.
- Once I complete your commission I'll tell you and ask for the rest of payment. You will not receive your file until payment is finished.

Edits

- You may make changes to your order if I haven't started on it yet.
- I will gladly fix any mistakes I may have made. Don't hesitate to ask me to change something.
- I will not completely recolor or redraw a commission unless it is for reasons that are my fault.

- YOU MAY NOT edit your commission yourself. I don't mind you editing things like text on references and such, but DO NOT draw over my art or remove anything from my art. Never remove my signature.

Refunds

- I will give you a refund if you wish to change the type of commission if you are changing to a lower-priced commission. I will only do this if I haven't started on your commission already.
- I will always give you a full refund if I, for some reason, suddenly cannot finish your commission.
- By commissioning or buying adopts from me, you are agreeing to have read my Terms of Service. No refunds will be made if you break a rule. Last date edited is made public at the top of my ToS.

Process

- In most cases, I will send you WIP shots of your commission, including sketch, and lineart. These will not be full-resolution. If you are ordering a simple sketch I will only send you the final piece.
- Sometimes I will send you multiple sketches to choose from, any sketches you don't choose for the final image still belong to me. This includes any rejected designs.
- When I send you the WIP sketch shot, you are free to request any and all changes. This will be the only time I will edit the lineart, as I will not be editing anything once I have it all lined.
- When I send you the WIP design/coloring, you are free to request any changes. I will completely redo designs if you don't like it. [I will be keeping the design you didn't want to use and will probably resell it later on a different lineart]
- When I present you with the finished piece, you still may request small changes, like things I may have missed or forgotten about. -
- If for any reason you must cancel your commission, you must pay for the work that has been done which can be up to 75% of the price.

☆ Designs Rules ☆

When trading/selling/gifting a design, link these rules back to the person you're selling the design to.

- - - - -

- LET ME KNOW when you sell/trade/gift a design to someone.
It's important that I keep track of where my designs are.
- YOU MAY edit the design as long as it is recognizable.
I don't mind if you change the hue of a design, add/remove items, add/remove markings here and there, etc.
- YOU MAY sell/trade/gift a design.
Just don't sell it for more than you purchased.

- YOU MAY re-upload a design to your account.
Remember to credit me, please!

- DO NOT put your own rules on my designs.
i.e., do not demand that people not sell/trade/gift the character you sold to them, my rules are the only rules any of my designs will ever have.

- DO NOT sell a design for more than you purchased. Do not resell a design if it was given to you as a gift or you got it in a trade.
Only if the design comes with art you paid for, you may sell it for a higher price. however, 3 pieces of art you bought for $10 does not mean you can resell it for $100.
If you don't like a custom you got from me from the very start, you are 100% free to sell it for what you paid. I won't force you to keep a design, so if you truly don't click with it from the start, I don't mind if you resell it for what you paid.

- DO NOT make siblings, parents, twins, or anything that shares the same hex codes/designs as one of mine.
Ask me if you want to "breed" a design. This only applies to creating things to sell later. Your character is yours to have.
