

When did you first get into reading?

When do you read more books, during holidays or term time?

When do you stay up late to finish a book?

When do you give up on a book?

When do you get excited about reading?

When did a book make you emotional?

Where do you enjoy reading?

Where do you get books from?

Where do you keep your books?

Where is the most unusual place you have read a book?

Where do you find out about books?

Where does your family read?

Where would you go to find out more about books and reading?

Where could you find out more about an author you enjoy?

Who else reads in your family?

Who is your favourite author? Why?

Who is your favourite character in a book?

Who do you talk to about the books you read?

Who do you recommend books to?

Who helps you decide which books to read?

Who would you trust to recommend a book to you?

Why do you like reading?

Why is it important for children to be able to see themselves in a book?

Why is it important to be able to read?

Why do you enjoy some books more than others?

Why do some people not enjoy reading?

Why would you stop reading a book?

Why do you read?

Why is it enjoyable to have people read with you?

What type of books do you like to read?

What do you like about poetry?

What do you enjoy about non-fiction?

What is your first memory of reading?

What makes a bad book?

What makes a good book?

What do you enjoy about graphic novels?

What do you enjoy about poetry?

What might you say to someone who didn't enjoy reading?

What book changed how you think?

What book would you like to read again?

What would you do to help other children enjoy reading?

Do you ever read the end of a book before the beginning?

Do you skip boring parts of a book?

Have you ever not enjoyed a book that a friend recommended?

Which book character would you like to meet?

Which setting from a story would you like to travel to?

How long do you stick with a book you are not enjoying?

How are your books arranged at home?

Have you ever been wrong about a book?

Have you ever bought a book? What was it called?

Do you have a favourite series?