Boss Battle Appearance

You are fighting Audrey. It seems that unlike other venus pitchers Audrey prefers to actively hunt for her meal. As the voluptuous pitcher sways her wide breeding hips her G cup breasts jiggle enticingly. Audrey's hair is cut short and colored a beautiful shade of ivory, it looks soft to the touch a emits a pleasant fragrance. A multitude of leafy tendrils emerge from deep within her bulb, each ending in a phallic stamen. The outer edges of Audrey's bulb possess two giant leafs surrounded by celia that close around her when she retreats into her bulb. In her right hand she wields a small crossbow no larger than an average handgun.
