Title: "Conditionally specified bivariate models: old and new"

Author: Barry C. Arnold, University of California, Riverside, USA

Abstract:

A sample of old and new examples of conditionally specified bivariate models will be discussed. Cases with conditionals in exponential families are well-known. Some related parallel constructions are possible in non-exponential family settings. In all cases the Stephanos-Suto-Levi-Civita functional equation plays a key role.

 (Joint work with Ashis SenGupta)