

Portrait of a Graduate: 2 year outlook
Grade 12

	11th	12th
Adaptive Perseverance	Students will understand that the journey matters more than the destination through deep and thoughtful reflection.	Continue an effort through task completion despite challenges. Understand there are more often multiple ways to achieve an outcome. Respond productively to feedback and setbacks.
Responsibility	Students will be able to act with integrity and identify ways to positively impact society.	Honor obligations and the outcomes to the same. Act with integrity and yield personal interests in the context of the greater good.
Critical Thinking	Students will be able to independently research topics with multiple perspectives to make informed judgements.	View problems, looking for both "bigger picture" connections and more detailed distinctions, to gain insights that will inform solutions. Regularly pursue additional information and evidence to refine understandings.
Global Citizenship	Students will be able to connect personal interests and strengths, career opportunities, and future learning to set a monitor long-term personal goals.	Demonstrate positive attitudes and beliefs about life-long quest for knowledge and skills. Seek novel experiences and an openness to change. Regularly set goals to monitor and direct for self-improvement.
Learner's Mindset	Students take ownership and initiate groups that will be able work productively and respectfully with peers while being able to identify the strengths of themselves and others in pursuit of academic goals and extra curricular activities.	Understand that broader and ultimately personal interests are often better served by addressing challenges as a team. In pursuit of solutions, leverage the strength and perspectives of others.

Collaboration	Articulate and understand grade-level appropriate thoughts and ideas effectively by oral, written, and nonverbal means. Convey thoughts and ideas for a variety of purpose.	Articulate and understand grade-level appropriate thoughts and ideas effectively by oral, written, and nonverbal means. Convey thoughts and ideas for a variety of purpose.
Communication	Students will be able to understand how local decisions can impact others outside of the community and recognize that compromise may be needed in order to benefit all.	Embrace personal, civic, local, and global responsibilities for making the world a better place. Understand that addressing societal challenges often requires comprehending complex issues, varying perspectives, and compromise.