Imma write this here cause IDK if I can put it all in one post

So I'm not gonna be taking a hiatus from Twitter for IDK how long.(Also sorry I'm not gonna start the bleach liveread)

You may be asking why, the reason is that mainly, I need to work on myself. At the beginning of the year, I promised myself, I'm gonna get better at drawing, I'm gonna start learning editing, I wanna get into animation, etc. Yet we're at November, I've accomplished none of those. And when I realized that, I just sat down and cried. I've wasted years of my life, still stuck in the same position, deluding myself into thinking I'm moving forward when I still haven't moved at all. I'm just disgusted in myself at this point.

And anytime I'm at that point, I get reminded of most of my mutuals who get into art, even if some may not be good as others, they still have the drive to learn and get better, and that drive is what I long for. But I'm just stuck staring at my phone all day, doom scrolling continuously.

If I had that drive in my life earlier, I wonder where I would've been by now. I'm still afraid to walk around without a shirt in my own household in fear of another lecture for my parents. I just want them to at least smile back at me and cheer me on for once, but I've dug this hole and I need to crawl out. But in order to do all those things, I need to grow and strive, and I can't do that by doing what I've always done.

So I'm staying away from Twitter for a bit and some other apps too. Also, this doesn't mean I'm gonna stop posting daily designs on my alt, that's one of, if not, the only thing creatively that I've got some drive in, plus some other projects I'm working on too, I ain't quitting those.

I'm sorry if this sounded a bit cringe, I just didn't want to leave y'all randomly. I hope one day I can come back here with a doodle or two. Don't forget me while I'm gone

Ciao
