Story ideas

Dragon Slaying

Summary: P'oiu the dragon goes on an adventure and gets his nuts busted by various friends and enemies. Along the way he endures a lot of blue-balling, blows a few loads, meets his future mate, and discovers that his testicles are basically indestructable.

- ABCs: the Alphabet of Ballbusting and Cockteasing
 - A series of 26 shorts, one for each letter of the alphabet. "A" and "B" are already complete; "C" is in-progress.
 - See full details here
- Main story, final chapter: alternate endings
 - Opal's ending: P'oiu picks Opal. Kayla and Lia each take a turn whaling on P'oiu's sac in anger, then leave him alone with Opal. Opal explains Poiu's indestructability, then brings the dragon to very achy, very powerful climax.
 - Kayla's ending: P'oiu picks Kayla, hoping that she won't be able to burst his balls and that thus he'll escape intact.

- Kayla's ending #1: Opal tells everyone the secret of P'oiu's indestructability. The girls drain his balls, and then pop both of his nuts.
 - Kayla's ending #2: Opal keeps the secret of P'oiu's indestructability. The girls whale on his sac for a while (hours? days?) but eventually give up. Kayla and Lia leave. Opal sticks around, tells P'oiu he owes his nuts to her, and milks him/busts him as she pleases for years to come.
- One-off ideas
 - P'oiu and Lia's married life. Basically just an excuse for P'oiu to get his sac bashed black and blue, then bust a nut on/in/all over Lia.
 - Lia teases P'oiu by suggesting that he actually enjoys getting his nuts kicked in. P'oiu is flustered and protests, but Lia then tests her hypothesis by (successfully) busting the spunk out of him.
- Sequel ideas
 - P'oiu and Lia's kids? I'm mainly imagining a girl here, going off and having her own nut-crushing adventures – like mother, like daughter?
- Prequel ideas
 - Lia's early ballbusting experiences – the first guy she busted, the first time she burst a testicle, etc.
- Miscellaneous ideas
 - The northern dragon mating ceremony (i.e. some poor red dragon losing a nut)
 - Something with Opal? A story about what she does with all P'oiu's spunk?
 - Another dragon ballbusting poem, maybe about how the northern dragon mating ceremony was started/the first dragon who gave up a nut to be with the dragoness he loved

Pain, Personified

Summary: Backstory of Kayla, the orca from Dragon Slaying. Follows her development as a young ballbuster.

- Chapter 3
 - Kayla and Will go on a date; more flirting and busting ensues. Kayla talks with her mother about Will. Her mother talks about her own experiences with ballbusting/Kayla's father.
- Chapter 4
 - Kayla tells one of her friends (a dolphin chick) about Will's willingness to be busted. Dolphin girl is curious, so Kayla invites her over for a BB threesome. They end up in a ballbusting contest to see who can cause the most hurt, and the two girls suck and squeeze Will to an agonizing, explosive orgasm.
- Chapter 5 onwards

Battle Training (Pokemon)

Summary: Leon the Charmeleon is a student at a battling school who keeps finding himself in harm's way, particularly in his Weak Spots class. When he's not getting his nuts squeezed in an in-class demonstration or stomped flat in an after-class study session, Leon tries to find romance with his crush, Kara the Kadabra.

- Chapter 4
 - Pokemon sex/BB orgy -- Leon is pretty damn achy from the actions of the previous chapter, but the four girls work together to give him a good time, with the occasional "accidental" nutshot thrown in for good measure. (I've been trying to make myself write this for years, but for some reason the motivation's not there...I doubt it'll ever actually come out, even if I start churning out stories again.)
- Chapter 5
 - Kara uses her psychic powers to tease poor Leon out of his mind in the middle of a lecture class. (Teleport and Psychic are wonderful moves for a cocktease.) Leon manages to survive the class (barely), finds Kara hiding in the janitor's closet nearby, and proceeds to screw her silly.
- Chapter 6 onwards/one-off stories
 - Kara busts the crap out of that Scyther perv who was spying on her (maybe pops a nut?)
 - Leon evolves into a Charizard, and gets a bigger set of balls accordingly. The girls immediately want to test out his newly-expanded pair and see if a Mega Kick hurts as much as it used to.
 - Mrs. Payne (the Nidoqueen teacher) teaches extra-credit to a Lucario who is failing class -- advanced offense and defense, focused on testicular trauma. Much nutpain ensues.
 - Kara does a research project on nutpain (with the aim of developing better defense techniques for males). She and the girls end up running various painful experiments on Leon and other "volunteers".
 - Two sisters, a Hitmonchan and a Hitmonlee, get into an argument over whether fists or feet are better for busting. Their two boyfriends, an Aggron and a Weavile, get caught in the crossfire.

The Underground League (Pokemon)

Summary: The Underground League is a popular no-holds-barred fighting league for anthropomorphic Pokemon, where the primary strategy is to go for the balls. Told as a series of one-off stories.

- Learning the Ropes (DONE): Laura the Luxray's first day in the Underground League. The whole story takes place in the locker room, where Laura talks to other females about their battle experiences and prepares for her own first match. (A lot of casual talk about popping testicles and making male 'mon blow their loads in the process.)
- Trauma Ward: a look at the Pokemon Center where combatants are treated after a battle, with lots of balls in various states of bruising/rupture. A female nurse gets insulted on her way to work by a male combatant who is passing by. She then sees him wheeled into the hospital several hours later, unconscious and with his spuds in critical condition. Rather than patch him up, she finishes the job.

My Little Pony ideas

- Applebucking: something with Applejack and Big Mac -- possibly about their younger years, when AJ was more rebellious and willing to slam her brother in the stones. (Seems to me like AJ is made for nut-cracking, with all that apple-bucking practice.)
 - This idea seems maybe too weak to stand on its own, but it'd make a good backstory for AJ in part of a larger fic
- Bucking Day: traditionally, new recruits to the Royal Guard were neutered before entering the service, so as not to be a threat to the two princesses. Nowadays, that brutal practice has been retired -- instead, the new guards just get ceremonially ballbusted by Celestia and her two assistants, Hoof Stomp and Plum Pudding.
 - Not really sure how to end this one. Maybe the new recruit gets a few hard busts from Stomp and Pudding, followed by a real smackdown from Celestia, then passes out and wakes up later? (Or is that transition too similar to Reindeer Games/the multiple times I used it in Dragon Slaying?)
- Untitled: when Princess Luna first became Nightmare Moon, she went on a rampage that included neutering half the stallions in Equestria (resulting in an uneven gender distribution that continues to the present day).
 - The draft I have of this is a discussion between Celestia and Luna in the present day, rather than a flashback to the actual events -- it's more backstory than a story of its own. Maybe this should be an intro to Bucking Day? (i.e. Luna whining about being left out and Celestia reminding her why she's not allowed to bust the recruits any more)
- Untitled: One of the mane six tells Twilight about how sensitive testicles are (Twi has never seen a stallion nailed in the groin before). Incredulous, she decides to run some experiments on Ponyville's local stallions to determine if the effect is real, or just an urban legend/exaggeration.
 - This could be a good plot to involve all the mane six -- Twi could run around town talking to each, providing lots of opportunities for various stallions to get it from various mares
- Untitled: When Rainbow Dash and Applejack discover that Big Mac is sleeping around -- and not using protection -- they corner him and decide to teach him a lesson by enforcing birth control via blunt trauma.
 - Note to self: make some "applesauce" jokes. Also, Big Mac's cutie mark is a big juicy 'apple' that's been split down the middle to expose all the seeds. Just sayin'.

Other ideas/drafts

- An anthromorphized scorpion catches her lover, a spider, cheating on her. She gets him tangled up in his own web and proceeds to bust him to the edge of bursting before finishing him off with her tail.

- Pokemon idea with Zangoose/Seviper: a feral Zangoose gets chomped in the sac by a Seviper (a poisonous bite) and proceeds to panic. His female trainer promises to take him to a Pokemon Center to get healed up, but various hijinks delay them along the way, each stop resulting in some kind of trauma to the poor 'mon's marbles.
- Not sure how to actually use this in a story, but a new version of the Pokemon video games: Pokemon BustedBerries/CrunchedNuts (similar to "Pokemon Red/Blue" or "Pokemon White/Black").
- Pokemon Snap ballbusting spin-off. A human photographer chroncling Pokemon in the wild – maybe doing research of some kind – discovers to his/her surprise and disbelief that ballbusting is incredibly common amongst certain species. He/she takes lots of pictures for research and brings them back to civilization – maybe this leads to the discovery of new ballbusting-based attacks?

That's all I've got!

Suggestions from other people:

- A witch captures a young stallion of a man (any species would do for either of them, really) and decides to keep him on the edge of orgasm so she can capture his sexual energy to fuel her magics. The process involves teasing to the edge, and then ballbusting (sans the popping) to make sure he doesn't go over, as well as to make him more sensitive. The pain is doubly felt when his organs are so sensitive and close to the edge, and the testicular trauma, in turn, makes the soft touches feel that much better and that much more effective.
- MLP: A stallion brags about how he can beat Applejack in a hoofrace, to the point of making an insane wager: if she wins, she gets to bust him for five minutes per yard, divided over as many days as she wants. Unfortunately, angering Rainbow Dash before the race leads to some pre-contest pain, and he can't even get past the starting line.

- Underground League: A female Alakazam accepts a special grudge match against a dark type, one where the match continues until one party faints. No giving up. The male is out seeking revenge for her popping of his friends, but she turns the tables and shows him that she doesn't need to use Psychic to crush balls at a distance. Her feet, as well as telekinetically-lifted objects like her spoons, are more than enough to make him wish he'd never thrown the challenge, while she makes sure to keep the pain to a level that won't make him pass out, in order to keep the match going.
