Let's make this game a little more interesting, shall we my lord? :v

I think it's about time for someone in this town to die... don't you?

Well well... what do we have here? It appears you have found my Notebook. Shall we begin?

All you have to do is write a real name of the the player's character in the notebook. If you are not sure about their name, you can ask me and we shall do a trade... With Shinigami eyes, you can write anyone's name without knowing their character name. But as you can see, many of those unaware humans already revealed their name, and now are a subject of being "written off". Heh! Humans are so foolish. But also interesting...

Hehehe... perhaps that means they want to die but just don't know it yet. I'm curious. Anyone you'd like to see die first?

It is completely up to you. I am just a mere observer. Death Note can help you deal with obstacles that would be otherwise impossible to remove in the first place. You can check your choice with me and I can tell you if it is possible, hehehe.

I'll leave it a surprise for you my lord. I hope you'll find it.... Satisfying!

Uh haha, don't call me lord! It's Ryuku! And you are... Alice I presume? Hehehe nice to meet you.

Just do me a favor kid, if you need to pass the notebook, pass it to either Jeod or Orange (depending who you're sparing hehehe), I think they'll appreciate this gift as much as you do.

I also wanted to ask... Do you have any spare apples by any chance? I'm craving for apples! It's driving me mad!!!
(more than usual mad hehehehe)
