COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This is a course that addresses many aspects of a teen's well-being, including those that have a potential impact on his/her mental, physical, emotional, or social well-being. It is comprised of two equal but distinct portions of the class, one portion is physical education and takes place either in the gymnasium or outdoors, while the other portion of the course addresses health issues and takes place either in room 1108 or 1276. You will receive a separate letter grade on the report card for each portion of the course.

ACADEMIC AND BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS:

- All students will use technology in the classroom and in the gymnasium both appropriately and effectively.
- All students will work independently on some assignments and cooperatively on other assignments both in the classroom and in the gymnasium.
- Appropriate behavior is essential in the classroom environment and especially in the gymnasium for safety purposes.

ASSESSMENT METHODOLOGY AND GRADING POLICY:

Students will receive a separate letter grade based on meeting criteria specific to each portion of the class:

HEALTH

- Using grading rubrics for each assignment, the grades will be based on the following:
- Tests/quizzes each cycle
- Home assignment/project each term
- Internet health information assignments
- Daily participation grade
 - Participation grade is based on preparedness for class, class discussions, group work, behavior/language, listening and following directions.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Students will receive a letter grade in P.E. based on the following:

- Students “build” their grade throughout the quarter by accumulating points on a 10-point grading rubric
- Points are gathered during daily classes
- Excused absences are eligible for make-up points
- Failing grade results from missing more than 4 PE classes per term or from an average of <60% on daily performance rubric

The 10-point grading rubric is as follows:

PE DAILY PERFORMANCE RUBRIC
