Our challenges look different from other schools, but they are still challenges to us. Diversification of our staff and students. Asking for more, this level of intervention shows this. We would love a math interventionist that other schools have. We have coaches, but not coaching cycles because they go to other schools. The conversation is about accountability. The data points: what we do best, the SEPAC and other families I interact with. The fine motor skills fitness club. We have discussed ways that our kids are taking this home to practice at home. Tier 2 intervention champion to help families engage.
