

Privacy Policy for ReMaster

2716 Labs, LLC ("we" or "us") respects the privacy of our users ("you") and is committed to protecting your information. This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use, and disclose information about you when you use our mobile application, ReMaster (the "App").

Information We Collect

When you sign-in with Apple, we collect your email address and name, which is provided to us by Apple. The app requests access to your photo roll to allow you to select and submit photos to a third-party API for enhancement. The API processes your selected photos, and the enhanced photos are returned to the app for your use.

How We Use Your Information

We do not retain your photos or personal information. We only use your photo data to facilitate transmission to a third-party API for enhancement. We do not sell or rent your information to third parties for their marketing purposes.

Disclosure of Your Information

We do not disclose your information to third parties except as required by law or to protect our rights.

Data Retention and Deletion

We do not retain your photos or personal information. When you select photos for enhancement, they are transmitted to the third-party API, and the enhanced photos are returned to the app for your use. We do not store your original photos or any personal information about you in our system.

User Rights

You have certain rights with respect to your personal information. Even though we do not retain your photos or personal information, you still have the right to request access to or deletion of any personal information that we may have collected, such as your name and email address that were provided to us by Apple when you signed in. If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact us at info@2716.co. We will respond to your request within a reasonable timeframe and in accordance with applicable laws. Please note that we may need to retain certain information for recordkeeping purposes or to complete transactions that you initiated prior to requesting a change or deletion.

Security

We take reasonable measures to protect your information from unauthorized access, use, and disclosure.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may change this Privacy Policy from time to time. If we make changes, we will notify you by revising the date at the top of the policy and, in some cases, we may provide you with additional notice (such as adding a statement to our website or sending you a notification).
