

Earth Vignette: Rough Draft Peer Evaluation

Directions:

This is your evaluation sheet. Write your name in the "Your name," space on this handout. As you share your work with your classmates, give them your evaluation sheet. Partners should write their names beside, "Your partner's name." Review your classmates' comments before you revise your vignette.

Date:

Your name:

Your partner's name:

Vignette Number 1`

1. Without consulting your partner, read your partner's vignette and identify its theme, List the theme in the box below.

2. Is the theme clear? What does your partner do to create clarity? OR is the theme unclear? What prevents clarity in the vignette?

3. Around what single event is the vignette centered? If your partner fails to focus on a single event, identify the different events and tell him or her which one he or she should develop. Your partner should delete the other events from his or her vignette.

4. Does your partner use dialogue and literary devices? What do you like about the dialogue and the literary devices? OR if your partner doesn't have dialogue or literary devices, where should he or she place them? Why?

5. Is the vignette realistic? Why or why not?

Date:

Your partner's name:

Your name:

Vignette Number 2

6. Without consulting your partner, read your partner's vignette and identify its theme, List the theme in the box below.

7. Is the theme clear? What does your partner do to create clarity? OR is the theme unclear? What prevents clarity in the vignette?

8. Around what single event is the vignette centered? If your partner fails to focus on a single event, identify the different events and tell him or her which one he or she should develop. Your partner should delete the other events from his or her vignette.

9. Does your partner use dialogue and literary devices? What do you like about the dialogue and the literary devices? OR if your partner doesn't have dialogue or literary devices, where should he or she place them? Why?

10. Is the vignette realistic? Why or why not?

Date:

Your partner's name:

Your name:

Vignette Number 3

11. Without consulting your partner, read your partner's vignette and identify its theme, List the theme in the box below.

12. Is the theme clear? What does your partner do to create clarity? OR is the theme unclear? What prevents clarity in the vignette?

13. Around what single event is the vignette centered? If your partner fails to focus on a single event, identify the different events and tell him or her which one he or she should develop. Your partner should delete the other events from his or her vignette.

14. Does your partner use dialogue and literary devices? What do you like about the dialogue and the literary devices? OR if your partner doesn't have dialogue or literary devices, where should he or she place them? Why?

15. Is the vignette realistic? Why or why not?