

MODEL UN

Model U.N. challenges students to look at the world from the perspectives of many countries. Students work with each other and with high school students from around the region to solve the world's crises. WHS Model U.N. typically attends one conference per month November through April and we meet after school prior to each conference to help prepare. It is an excellent way to learn about history, politics and diplomacy.