

Ambassador Service Study (AmbaSS), a student-centered, credit-earning framework for independent, integrated, collaborative, serve & learn experiences living abroad

Live info inks are in this document online: <http://bit.ly/3Uwhkgf> Start with highlighted info

Please contact me if you want to review or collaborate on AmbaSS' student-centered serve & learn abroad template curriculum. I'll sign you into the Canvas course.

Bernie Weigand

541-621-7467

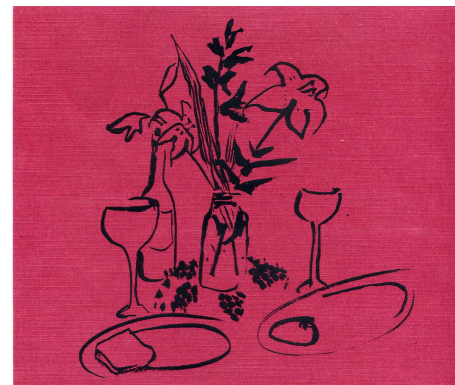

servsyn1@gmail.com

Shifting Our Schools Podcast

#231 for an interview about

AmbaSS's template curriculum

bit.ly/3WRYDoJ

This encapsulates an overview of the complete course

AmbaSS \$500 Scholarship

The application is actually the first two units of the AmbaSS curriculum: building a team and building a blog. These scholarship units can also earn academic credit stand-alone.

Template letter for student to propose academic credit from his school for his serve & learn project abroad. The AmbaSS curriculum facilitates the student's creation and communication of their independent service study learning.

<https://ambassss.com/the-team/>

4 short video stories from those who lived abroad as a youth

Why live abroad? Share your own experience in this Interview questions ~ survey

See survey results here Please add your contact info to it if you'd like to connect on the AmbaSS project

What sets AmbaSS apart?

<https://tinyurl.com/AmbaSS-set-apart>

AmbaSS model blog-in-process:

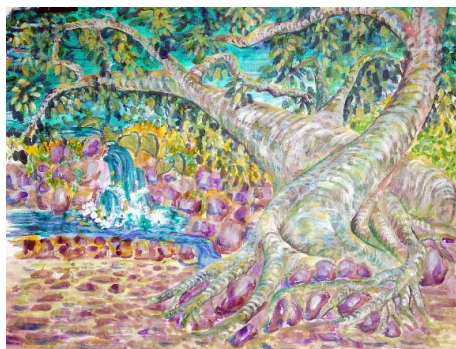

www.AmbassSS.com

The student will be creating a multimedia blog as the main learning product and communications hub for his/her team. It can serve as credit-by-portfolio at the college level.

Jump In! professional development opportunity

This is ongoing in Tepic, Nayarit, Mexico, and tailored to the needs of participants. Learn some Spanish and/or build a service-learning project of your own.

After AmbaSS has launched the first Student Ambassadors, a cohort should apply for a Fulbright Hays Group Study Abroad Grant (with paid stipend) to facilitate collaborators' own study abroad projects for students.

overview

<https://www2.ed.gov/programs/iegp/psgpa/applicant.html>

www.ServiceSynergy.org

*Creating Global Citizens,
One Friendship at a Time*