

She asked, "How can we find peace?"

by Skipperdoodle Productions

"I do know the answer to that," I thought.

The first step is the death of ego: life improves exponentially when it stops being about you.

Serve others.

If it comes from God, it is good.

Even the challenges are lovingly sent by your Creator, to correct, to instruct, to bless.

Because, you see, God wants for you what You would want for you,

If you knew what God knows.
