FAQs

Here is a quick list of some common questions you may be wondering about. If you have a question that is not on this list, feel free to ask!

❖ How do I commission you?

My commissions are open through my Twitter or Instagram (and sometimes by discord). To request a commission, you must look out for these posts and fill out an attached Google form. If you are selected to make it into the current queue, I will contact you with a quote and go over details.

❖ What does the commission process look like?

Once you have sent me a form, I will reply with your price quote and send you the price with my PayPal link. After you confirm your wish to proceed, As soon as I receive payment, work on your commission will start!

I will send you at least one WIP sketch to approve before finalization, and potentially more WIPs depending on the type of commission. If you would like to see more WIPs, please let me know ahead of time, this may slow down the process of completing your commission.

Once I have finished your commission, I will send it to you for review. If I have made any mistakes or you would like any minor edits, I will gladly fix it for you. Please do not ask for massive overhaul changes (ie. pose changes) after finalization. Large changes will be charged an additional fee unless there has been an error on my part or for missing something.

❖ Can somebody else pay for my commission for me?

Of course! Just keep me informed so I can send the link to the right person. But I am not liable for any third party trading between you and another party.

❖ Can you finish my commission on a rush order?

Yes, but please discuss this with me in advance! Rush orders may be subject to additional, sometimes large fees. If you spring a rush order on me suddenly, I will do my best, but I may be unable to make the deadline. Please plan accordingly.

I have an idea for a commission that isn't on the pricing list, can you still do it?

Depends, feel free to ask!

❖ Do I have to pay in full?

Orders over $300 USD may be eligible for a payment plan, but must be discussed with the artist in advance. A payment plan would work by the commissioner sending a down at least 50% or more, later would be 25% + 25% or 50% of the payment and then being shown a WIP. Process will continue after another agreed increment is met. Finalization will not be completed until the whole payment is received.
