

COVER LETTER

Dear Authors,

As part of our commitment to maintaining high standards of research integrity and scholarly communication, we require detailed author information for the publication process. Providing comprehensive data about your identity and affiliations not only enhances the credibility and traceability of your research but also adheres to ethical guidelines for publication.

Accurate author information is crucial for:

1. Ensuring proper attribution and recognition of your work.
2. Facilitating communication and collaboration within the academic community.
3. Complying with ethical standards in research and publication.

Please fill in the following details to complete the publication process:
