

ACT ONE

Opening/False Belief

- We meet the roommates as they are prepping for the zombie apocalypse

Dilemma

- Our roommates believe that their training and preparations would allow them to survive should such an event occur

Inciting Incident

- Caleb goes nuts at the grocery store

Opposing Argument

- The remaining three roommates discuss their approach to the situation, both tactically and psychologically

Hero Makes a Decision

- When they finally leave their apartment, the roommates are faced with an infected neighbor who effectively tests their resolve.

ACT TWO

Hero Enters the New World

- Ramon has problems with killing the nombies, Jae and Ewing encourage but mostly admonish

Hero Experiences False Hope

- The roommates are able to escape two encounters with the nombies

Midpoint: Hero Experiences Temptation

- The roommates discover Paige and Larry, must decide whether to take them with them, leave them, or kill them

Our Hero's New Relationship to the Antagonist

- Some pros and some cons to having the two new additions

Hero Suffers

- The roommates start to have a rift between them as Ramon chooses to care for Paige over his buddies after they are attacked. Nothing spoken yet, but they're consciously thinking about it

Hero Surrenders

- The gang makes it to the armory, and Jae shows some of the first maturity we've seen from him

ACT THREE

Hero Accepts the Reality of His Situation

- The roommates' disagreements come to a head and Ramon and Ewing are truly on two different pages

The Hero Takes Action

- Our roommates split up (within the same building), each pursuing his own approach to success

The Battle Scene

- Nombies take out several characters, Jae has to fight his way to the surviving Paige

Our Hero Returns Home

- Paige and Jae make a break for it
