Personality

- This calm but intelligent cat always knows exactly what to say at any given time, and always works hard. Sassafras is extremely good at planning and mapping out the road ahead, but if ANYTHING messes up xyr plans she absolutely FLIPS— turning into a completely different cat; sassy, bossy, irritable and sometimes completely irrational. You definitely want to stay on the good side of this cat... as she's very opinionated and won't hesitate to tell others the truth, as harsh as it may be. Sassafras is power-hungry and at times manipulative, but it isn't obvious at first; just seeming like kindness and determination from the average cat's perspective— she's hard to read like that.

History

Early Life

- Sassafras was born to their parents with a single sibling. They lived in an abandoned building, using the shelter to their advantage. They never did have any issues with prey, the only issues arising from a slightly dysfunctional family—their parents occasionally breaking out into short arguments over the smallest of things.
- It definitely affected both kittens, who started arguing too. Sassafras started picking up odd habits and needed everything to be perfect at all times or they threw a temper-tantrum.
- Eventually the parents would realize how their actions were affecting everyone around them, and so decided to split, letting the now young cats choose who to go with.
- The split was peaceful, one youngster going with each parent. Sassafras went with their favorite of the two fathers, Bear. They got along quite well, his tendency to plan ahead rubbing off on Sassafras.
- They traveled for a long time, months and then years passed before both cat's eyes. In this time Sassafras came out as trans, Bear being very supportive of his daughter in her choice of pronouns.
- One morning, the now-adult Sassafras found herself to be the only one alive in the small temporary den.... Bear had lost his fight to old age at last. Xe buried their dad and planted flowers in his memorial. She would force herself to move on, and look for a permanent home. After traveling alone, xe seemed to become a bit more manipulative to get what she wanted.

Colony Life

- After ages and ages of looking for a home, the cat stumbled across a cat talking about a safe space... a colony... she could use this. Eventually she would find this colony, Cloud Colony. She would slyly ask to join and was accepted a lot faster than xe thought. She would offer to be a Disciple, and proved to be good in this position. After having a glimpse at any sort of power, xe want more... xyr eyes gleam at the very thought of growing in rank, even if it does seem against the morals of others, she simply doesn't care.... seems like she's settled in well... she aims to at least become a Head Disciple before becoming Delegate (unlikely but a cat can dream).
