

You and your English exchange partner are planning to spend a part of summer holidays together. You are discussing the following possibilities for a holiday to go to:

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a luxurious seaside hotel in Spain 	enjoy relaxing and the feeling of luxury/ The thing I love most about going on holiday is having someone else cook, clean and look after things while I relax and unwind. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - can see new places and meet new people -to gain a better understanding of other cultures, to admire beautiful landscapes -You can go swimming in the pool during the day and enjoy the nightlife once the sun goes down 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - We are on a tight budget, I think a hotel would be too expensive.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a youth campsite in Leningradskaya oblast 	-camping holidays are becoming more and more popular for many reasons. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Firstly, it's because they are so economical. Once you have bought all the equipment it is very cheap to rent a space on a campsite. -Secondly, camping gives you a sense of freedom. You can do what you want, when you want. -Thirdly, it is a great way to get away from it all and explore unspoilt countryside. You can walk or drive to places where very few people go/ to relax in the peace and quiet of the surrounding countryside and enjoy the scenery and attractions of this wonderful area. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The weather may be rainy almost every day and it may be terribly cold. - Backpacking is just not my cup of tea. I just can't do without my comforts. - You mean to say you'll be in a tent, without a proper bed, cooking your own food, a thousand tiny insects crawling all over you? And worst of all – no shops!

	-You are also very close to nature when you're camping. You're out in the woods and you get an experience that you can't get anywhere else. - Lastly, camping lets you develop skills that you may have never known that you had. You can learn to cook outdoors, fish, set up a tent, build a fire and so on.
● stay in the city of St. Petersburg and have a city break	- I prefer to stay in modern cities. I like going shopping in trendy shops and seeing beautiful architecture. Going to museums, cultural events and festivals gives us a useful insight into the history of our country. - I love visiting amazing art galleries and experiencing the urban lifestyle. It's so educational. There are over two hundred museums in St Petersburg. There was no way I could even visit ten of them. I just didn't have enough time.	-Another city break? I wouldn't bother. The whole idea of taking a holiday is getting away from it all.

Remember to speculate on all the options and choose one of them. Be active and polite, take turns. You are to speak for 3-4 minutes.
