

- Music that is created with certain holy serenity for the Divine Worship
- Religious music when integrated with Liturgical service becomes Sacred Music – SC 112
- SM is Noble, Unique & Irreplaceable and it possess Goodness, Virtue, Peace... therefore, its Holy and Divine – Pope JP II
- SM had always been, and will it always be, as an essential part of the liturgy – Pope JP II
- The wedding of Spirit with Senses is the SM...
- SM moves our hearts and souls – Pope Benedict XVI

If a Music moves the body it the is Secular Music

If a Music moves the soul it is the Sacred Music

- SM possess Holiness and Beauty along with these two qualities the third one spontaneously arises... that is Universality – Pope St Pius X
- Not common, ordinary & Secular. Gregorian chant is the paradigm of sacred music - William Mahrt
- Celebrating liturgy involves the whole person with all his / her faculties...
 - Intellect and will,
 - Emotions and senses,
 - Imagination, memory,
 - Aesthetic sensibilities,
 - Physical gestures,
 - Powers of expression.
- All these are triggered by the feeling and SM provides this