

Jessica Gruber

Jessica, her husband Richard, their two daughters Samantha & Emma, and their dog Mr. Belvedere reside in Summit. From 2005 to 2015, Jessica worked at SAGE Eldercare, primarily serving her tenure as Executive Director. SAGE is a nonprofit organization that provides over 12 community-based long-term care services to thousands of seniors and caregivers in a four-county region with the help of 100 employees and 500 volunteers. Prior to SAGE, Jessica worked as a certified assisted living administrator and business development director at several for-profit long-term care facilities in NY and NJ. Jessica has a BA from Tufts University and a Master's in Public Health from Boston University. Currently, Jessica enjoys volunteering in the community, especially with Temple Sinai's ECEP (of which her children are graduates) and Washington Elementary School.
