

ePortfolio Support | High Impact Partnerships
odu.edu/ails/eportfolio

Changing Website Layout

You can change your page layout by moving the different sections on that page. Each section only moves on the page you are editing, so to rearrange sections on other pages, you need to open and edit those pages separately.

To move a section in Google Sites, hover over it and use the 8-dot handle on the left side of the highlighted section to drag it to a new position.

