

Week 9: Preparing for Showcase

A Note to Families

In week nine, scholars will finish their World of Hearts art project. They will reflect on how they can be community helpers in their communities. On Friday, scholars will have a workshop lesson with their teacher exploring the questions:

- How can we share our learning at Showcase?

Monday

- ☐ Complete your World of Hearts art project
- ☐ If your family says it's OK, hang it up in your window!
- ☐ Take a picture of your World of Hearts art project and send it to your teacher

Tuesday

- ☐ Complete the I Am a Community Helper reflection on page 42

Wednesday

- ☐ Complete the I Am a Community Helper reflection on page 43

Thursday

- ☐ Complete the I Am a Community Helper reflection on page 44

Friday

- ☐ Workshop lesson with your teacher: Preparing for Showcase!

Below is the previous week's work:

Week 8: Sharing Gratitude

A Note to Families

In week eight, scholars will finish creating their gratitude letter to a community helper. They may need support this week as they finish their final draft - thank you for your partnership at home! On Friday, scholars will have a workshop lesson with their teacher exploring the questions:

- How can we share gratitude with community helpers through artwork?

Monday

- ☐ Finish the words of your final draft of your letter at the end of this packet
- ☐ Read it to a family member at home!

Tuesday

- ☐ Draw a colorful, detailed drawing of why you are grateful for your community helper on the final draft of your letter at the end of this packet.
- ☐ Take a picture of your completed letter and send it to your teacher

Wednesday

- ☐ Practice reading your letter aloud with your puppets.
- ☐ Practice sharing gratitude with community helpers by acting it out with your puppets!

Thursday

- ☐ Look at World of Hearts artwork examples
- ☐ Complete the World of Hearts artwork reflection on page 39

Friday

- ☐ Workshop lesson with your teacher: Sharing Gratitude through Artwork