

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Blake, who worked under my leadership in the marketing department at ServiceMaster Restore. Throughout our time working together, Blake consistently demonstrated a strong work ethic, a keen attention to detail, and an eagerness to learn that made him an invaluable member of our team.

From the start, Blake quickly adapted to our marketing strategies, showing an impressive ability to absorb new information and apply it effectively. His dedication to professional growth was particularly commendable—he pursued certifications I recommended, read industry-relevant material, and proactively sought out educational resources to improve his skills. His willingness to go above and beyond in expanding his knowledge reflects his commitment to excellence in marketing.

Beyond his technical abilities, Blake's reliability and professionalism stood out to me. He is punctual, responsible, and has an exceptional memory, allowing him to manage tasks efficiently while maintaining high-quality work. Moreover, he was always willing to assist with any project, making him a strong team player who contributed to our department's overall success.

I have no doubt that Blake would be a valuable addition to any marketing team. His strong work ethic, dedication to learning, and positive attitude make him a great candidate. I highly recommend him for any opportunity he pursues, and I am confident that he will make meaningful contributions wherever he goes.

Please feel free to contact me if you would like any additional information.

Sincerely,

Kaitlyn West
