Exeter JCR: Whole Committee Meeting

Agenda:

1. Apologies
2. What each rep is doing / plans to do

Misha:

Successful 5th week – affordable, £60 welfare tea, £300 pottery
Pub quiz next week

Emma:

Karaoke night tomorrow 18th, Bar 8pm. Live music night 7th Week, 3rd March.

Rayvell:

Facebook group, with other college international reps. Hard to organise, hard to plan. SU event could open some doors. Large budget. 7th week to begin storage.

Ruby:

Instagram popping off. TikTok to be set up. Rhi suggests google form for ideas to be put in the weekly bulletin/post announcing who to message.

Kathleen:

Anonymous concerns google forms. Safeguarding issues? Maybe a nice positive way to post about people (e.g. Exeter OxLove). Rhi says nurse could get resources, leave them in the JCR. Abi says we are legally obliged to tell people, could get ourselves into difficult situations.

Hikaru:

Charitable donation successes last weeks' motions. Two people have reached out about funding another a charity. Donating items to local migrant centre.

Abi + Sonya:

Joint bop, Worcester New LMH. Potential five college bop in a club. Plans to try to get other events under the banner of Entz. About £400 left of budget, lot of potential. Pub quiz? Sonya suggests an MAD – Entz life painting, drunk painting, shit-faced Shakespeare. Rick has offered up his garden for an Exeter Garden Play in the Fellow's Garden / Rick's Garden. Bringing people to the bar as more of a social place: pub quizzes. Neil Pemberthy to write pub quizzes for Exeter, prizes? Nights where we bring decks out, people have attempts. Emma says perhaps we could incorporate these into a live music night. Misha says this will stop him singing too many songs people laugh.

Liv + Sophie:

Liv went to Class Conference. Met some reps, shared a lack of attendance at events. New combine class events with BAME, LGBTQ, Womxn events to get a bigger turnout. Perhaps we could do a joint event with New College. Sophie spoke to the catering team, says a formal for class would be possible in Trinity. Bring a few groups in, make it more of a joint event for welfare.

3. Hilary Vac round-up

The idea is to have every rep submit a line or two outlining what they did this term, to let the JCR know. Everyone sits in silence in response to this, Freddie takes it as a “yes, great idea”.

4. Someone to go to Development Committee (Mon 20th 2pm-4pm)

Liv will go.

5. More Motions for next week

Everyone agrees. Abi questions the ‘to petition’ motions.

6. Exeter plus booklet

Ruby says she can help with this, the TikTok/Instagram can help. Sophie says there aren’t any Exeter Plus events.

Sophie potentially to ask Exeter-Plus organiser to hold more events/reunions throughout the year.

7. Exeter-Emmanuel - Rhi

Leaving at about 7am, 4th March, to Emmanuel College, sports’ day. Formal at Emma, one coach coming back at 10pm. Then one at 2:30am, those who wish to go clubbing. Spoken to Kathryn, Sports’ Rep at Emma, suggested crew-date type vibe. Confident college will pay for the coaches. Stash and formal are opt-in – otherwise you don’t have to pay for anything except lunch. Abi had an idea in terms of rugby: making it mixed, combined – no experience needed. In terms of rowers, they have no time on the river – so we’re doing it without the rowers. You can come and spectate. Deadline for the form is Tuesday 21st Evening. JCR message to go out tomorrow (18th).

8. Bar suggestions

Things to improve:

Middle pillar.

Pinboard for play stuff.

Paint the walls again.

Pool table isn’t flat, keeps leaning.

Need better lighting.

Jukebox.

Find better place for junk.

Rethink layout, of pool table.

Friday 17th February 2023

Photographs, alumnus, student vibes.

Sports photos.

Connect 4 is irrelevant.

Trophy cabinet.

Revamp sound system – Brasenose where you queue a song.

Playing into the old Oxford vibe, photos of past sports' teams.

Art decor competition.

I like the aesthetic of staircase 4.

9. Any other business

Sophie mentions Halfway Hall reimbursement forms, where to find. Rhi suggests using the Sports & Arts fund grant as a template for this.
