

AMAVEDA TERMS + CONDITIONS FOR ALL PROGRAMS AND RETREATS

Thank you for your commitment to your health and for investing in this transformative experience. Please read the following Terms and Conditions carefully, as they outline the responsibilities and agreements that keep our programs safe and clear for everyone involved.

Health & Medical Responsibility

For the wellbeing of all participants and staff, please do not attend if you are contagious with an infectious illness. All Amaveda programs and retreats are for educational purposes only and are not intended to diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent any medical condition. All activities and practices are optional. Participants with existing medical conditions or taking medication should consult their healthcare provider before attending. Each participant accepts full responsibility for their own physical, emotional, and mental wellbeing, as well as for any outcomes that may result from participation.

Loss, Damage & Injury

Emily Shaw and Amaveda accept no legal or financial responsibility for any injury, illness, or death sustained by participants, regardless of cause. For your protection, we strongly recommend comprehensive travel insurance that covers medical emergencies and other health-related risks. Amaveda is not responsible for the loss, theft, or damage of personal belongings, nor for any financial losses incurred due to unforeseen events.

Respectful Conduct & Participation

To protect the safety and harmony of the retreat, Emily Shaw and Amaveda reserve the right to request the immediate departure of any participant, without reimbursement, in cases of disruptive or unsafe conduct. This includes but is not limited to: mental health challenges beyond the scope of our support, disrespect toward participants, staff, or facilitators, or actions jeopardizing the wellbeing of the group. Decisions regarding dismissal are at the sole discretion of the retreat facilitator and are final.

Cancellation Policy

Due to the extensive planning and costs of international retreats, all payments are strictly non-refundable. In the event of cancellation, participants may transfer their reservation for the same retreat date to another individual, subject to Amaveda's approval. Securing a replacement participant is the responsibility of the original attendee.

Agreement

By making payment for this program or retreat, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agree to these Terms and Conditions.
