

Ringmaster: So, this is a bit of an interesting one. SC, can you explain what we're doing here this week?

SC276: WELCOME TO MY WORLD!! AH HA HA HA HAH HA!! Bom bom bom bom!

ahem We've done crossover fics before, as you remember two weeks ago, but they don't happen all that often because there's a notability standard. The other thing pony's crossing with has to be something big enough that the majority of rifiers recognize it, so the riffs don't degenerate into "Wait, who is this? Where are we? Is that an actual thing, or is the author bullshitting us again?"

Ringmaster: Exactly. But for this week, we're loosening those restrictions a bit to bring you four fics of somewhat lesser-known series, each suggested by an editor.

SC276: Not to say that you won't recognize them, maybe. We're not talking about the thing that Dragonborne wrote a crossover about here.

Dragonborne: Did somebody call me?

CaptainPipsqueak: 'Call', 'blame'...it's all subjective, really.

Ringmaster: Yeah, these are more "Things you've probably heard of, but likely don't have an in-depth knowledge of", with the possible exception of the last fic of the bunch. This first one is brought to you by, well, SC.

SC276: CHOO CHOO MOTHERFUCKERS. This is one I've been itching to put through the paces for awhile. I don't know how in-depth you'll need to be about Thomas the Tank Engine to get this one, but you got a name now, you can Google. Starting up, "Twilight the tank engine the new arrival" by kristinalprime23, and yes that is the title and yes this is the original grammar. And then there was trouble, indeed.

Something: WHERE AM I? HOW DID I GET HERE?

Crazy56U: (pokes head in) Have I successfully missed last week's riff? ... (comes in) Okay, good.

JofY: You didn't miss it. You strategically avoided it. Just like I strategically got bored and left.

ThatUnknownPony: Same as I strategically avoided it... by getting stuck in my job all week. It wasn't pretty.

Nox: Hehehe HAHAAAAHA! AH! HAHA! AH! HAHA! AH! HAHAAAAHA!

ToonGuy: Ah, Thomas the Tank Engine. My childhood hero...can't wait to see how they screw this up.

Mononeko: Thomas the Tank Engine? Obscure crossovers? This can only end so well...

Nox: Just think about the pre release today Nox.

Fallen Prime: I was already there. Pulled a Liliana.

Scarlet: dies from jealous

Thomas was working on the main line for a maximum of five weeks after the Farquhar branchline closed for repairs.

Mononeko: And I'm lost already.

ThatUnknownPony: Off to a great start if I can't understand shit!

Dragonborne: Now I know how my early readers felt when they saw my earliest works...

Something: Oh God, a Thomas the Tank Engine crossover. Well, time to see how this "ruins" my childhood.

Crazy56U: And he did not even get paid overtime, because train racism and train based 1984 bullshit.

CaptainPipsqueak: CONFUSION AND DELAY, MOTHERFUCKERS.

Nox: HA! HA! HA! Okay I'm good now.

Thomas was not the smallest engine on the north western the smallest was Percy.

Scarlet: Who formed an exquisite battle combination with Pierre.

Crazy56U: But hey, he makes up for it in bed! ...I have had a rough day, I'm delirious.

Nox: HOLY SHIT! Crazy! You were H2O Delirious all along?

Crazy56U: ???

the biggest engine on the railway was Gordon

Crazy56U: Because of train steroids.

SC276: Except when Spencer comes in from the mainland, that happens a lot.

ToonGuy: And except for the occasion where Flying Scotsman shows up.

he liked pulling the express but didn't care for some of his other jobs.

Something: These statements are technically correct but are grammatically horrific.

Crazy56U: Like being a mercenary for Sir Topham Hatt...

JofY: Or having to do menial paperwork.

ToonGuy: Oh, so THAT'S what happened to BoCo...

a goods train-A goods train- the shame of it-OH the shame of it.

JofY: Damn thing's repeating. kicks the fic

Crazy56U: (slides over a hammer) This should work better.

ThatUnknownPony: You're thinking low. Hit it with this! (brings up a mace)

Dragonborne: I prefer this. unsheathes her sword

CaptainPipsqueak: whistles while spinning a crowbar

Gordon said.

Mononeko: oh- the horror.

ThatUnknownPony: How shameful- Doing what I'm- supposed to be doing.

Dragonborne: D: squawks like a rusty door hinge in surprise

SC276: Oh quit your whining, that goods train has all the quotation marks that this fic should have.

Scarlet: Gordon has not yet realized that in another few years, he's going to be scrapped. Let him whine while he yet can.

Crazy56U: [Gordon] "Why couldn't I have been that train from Back to the Future..."

Nox: OWWW! Jesus! I just stepped on a fricken quotation mark!

ToonGuy: Oh, callbacks to earlier episodes, that can't be a disguise for how shallow this fic is.

oh Gordon it honestly can't be that bad? Thomas asked.

Something: [Gordon] "Thomas, everything I do that isn't pulling the Big Express does nothing but degrade my status as the most important train on all of Sodor.

Haven't you even been paying attention to the countless episodes and books where I complain about doing this menial labor that only you inferior tank engines and that race traitor Edward do?"

[Thomas] "Gordon, what the hell, man?"

[Gordon] "Oh, is the little tank engine triggered?"

AND this is going too long so I'll just move on.

ThatUnknownPony: Little did Thomas know that Gordon works delivering drugs illegally between towns. That's a secret he plans to keep to the scrapyard.

CaptainPipsqueak: [Fluttershy] "We have an... understanding, let's say."

Crazy56U:

MEANWHILE IN EQUESTRIA.

Crazy56U: (in pain from whiplash) FUCK, MY NECK

ThatUnknownPony: (audible crack as his neck breaks and falls dead)

JofY: MEANWHILE! IN CAPITAL LETTERS LAND!

Something: (in a doctor's uniform) I prescribe one bottle of Jack Daniels a day to help with the pain and a nice, soft pillow for comfort. Also, if you need something to do while waiting to recover, the Lethal Weapon movies are on Netflix.

SC276: Doctors can prescribe Netflix?! I need to get sick more often!

CaptainPipsqueak: MEANWHILE, IN THE HALL OF JUSTICE...PONIES...JUSTICE PONIES...FUCK IT, LET'S GO WITH THAT:

Dragonborne: I DEMAND AN ANVIL TO FACEDESK UPON!

SC276: ...Wouldn't that be "faceanvil...?"

twilight you've been working on that spell for three weeks when will you get it done?

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "Shut the fuck up, Narrator, it's 3:30 IN THE FUCKING MORNING!"

CaptainPipsqueak: [twilight] it will be done soon i just need to find the last ingredient where is it oh here it is.

ThatUnknownPony: [twilight] "why is the roof suddenly speaking? and where did all the capital letters go?"

JofY: [Twilight] "someone stole the capitals letters from capital letters land!"

Twilight's number one assistant asked in concern.

Scarlet: [Spike] "If you don't, the plot will never progress!"

Crazy56U: [Spike] "They paid me a shoebox full of gems to be the Narrator."

ThatUnknownPony: [Spike] "And the more you take without finishing that spell the more it'll take me to enjoy my little snacks!"

CaptainPipsqueak: Poor little schmuck probably feels like number two, amIrite?

SC276: It's not actually Spike. He packed up and left and she had to get a new baby dragon.

i am almost done spike.

JofY: And by that, she means 51%.

Dragonborne: More like 34%.

ThatUnknownPony: If she's like me, that actually means she hasn't even started.

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "I just need to drink a touch more moonshine..."

ToonGuy: Almost Done Spike was my favorite dragon.

Mononeko: I always preferred Not Quite Finished Spike. Or Half-Complete Ember.

CaptainPipsqueak: Or I'll Get To It When I Fucking Well Want To, Okay? Garble.

Twilight said but before she could get the final part of the spell added in the strangest thing happened.

SC276: The plot happened.

Dragonborne: This story divided by zero and got an editor to clean it up.

ThatUnknownPony: The story became more nonsensical somehow.

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "... (waves hoof in front of face)Spike, I'm blind again."

JofY: [Spike] "Again?"

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "Look, you drink moonshine sometime and see what it does to you..."

CaptainPipsqueak: [Spike] "Pfft. Please. I eat gems, sweetie."

Twilight's horn began to glow

Crazy56U: OH SWEET BABY JESUS, SHE'S GONNA BLOW! (ducks under table)

Something: (ducks under a different table)

Mononeko: drops to the floor THE END IS NEAR!!

Dragonborne: IT'S THE END TIMES! THE END TIMES HAVE COME!! opens a trapdoor that leads to a cellar and jumps through it Scarlet: Dramatically flops over the top of the table The horror! The horror!

ThatUnknownPony: Hides in a hole on the floor GET SHELTER WHILE YOU CAN!

CaptainPipsqueak: Pfft. How bad could it possibly

SC276: Oh freakin' again...!

ToonGuy: Welp, there goes the space-time continuum.

JofY: AAAAAAHHH!!! starts blindly firing machine guns then she let out a yelp that was so loud that it sounded like a steam engine's whistle going off.

Scarlet: Discovering you're in a Thomas the Tank Engine crossover will have that effect on you.

ThatUnknownPony: [Twilight Sparkle] "SPIKE, I TOLD YOU TO NOT LEAVE YOUR LEGOS ALL OVER THE FLOOR!!!"

Crazy56U: Oh. Goody. The Author's being cute.

TWILIGHT! Spike shouted.

JofY: [Twilight] "i knew it! you were the thief the whole time!"
Crazy56U: [Spike] "IF YOU'RE GONNA LEAVE, TAKE ME WITH YOU!"
CaptainPipsqueak: [Spike] "DON'T EVER COME BA...I MEAN: COME BACK!"

But before he could say a counter spell

Crazy56U: Because Spike is now a mage, apparently...
Dragonborne: Suddenly, Disgaea.
Mononeko: Hey, he can already mail letters, something we never saw another dragon do. Who knows what more the little guy can do.

his surrogate mother disappeared.

Scarlet: This is why you always leave at least 1U untapped, Spike!
Crazy56U: I'm tempted to reference "better season 5 end"...
Mononeko: holds a shotgun at point blank range Try.
ThatUnknownPony: bringing up another shotgun We dare you.
JofY: takes the bullets out of another Go ahead. Your jokes are accepted here.

MEANWHILE AT THE BRIGHTON WORKS.

Something: "Sir Topham Hatt was too busy playing Pokemon Go to notice that James, the little shit, had gone off the rails into a vat of acid."
CaptainPipsqueak: James' screeches of agony went unheard, believed to be nothing more than ambient background noise.
Crazy56U: (neck has officially broken in two) ...this smarts...
ThatUnknownPony: (neck spins 180° degrees) ...not again... (falls down dead)
Mononeko: Be careful not to lose your head...
ToonGuy: And I'm getting Shed 17 flashbacks.
CaptainPipsqueak: [Fluttershy] "Hey hey hey, stay outta my shed! ... It's where my lab is."

(twilights point of view.)

SC276: Because fuck persistent perspective.
Dragonborne: And fuck good grammar, syntax structure, storytelling, originality and vocabulary too, while you're at it.
Something: Wow, that parenthetical note saved the author about 4% effort.
CaptainPipsqueak: (captainpipsqueaks point of view) Yes, it's good to know these things.
ThatUnknownPony: (thatunknownponys point of view) I have the urge to facepalm at how much is wrong with that line.
Crazy56U: Well, to be fair, Spike was the Narrator, and he got left behind. Best to clarify who got his job...

There was a sound that I didn't know that was coming from the other side of the place I was in.

JofY: ...Que?

CaptainPipsqueak: Something happened in a place I don't know what is...Oh look!
Something shiny!

ThatUnknownPony: What where how when... SENTENCE STRUCTURE, DO YOU EVEN KNOW WHAT THAT IS?!

RJ: Well, You need to stop, see what's that sound and what's going down.

Crazy56U: Huh, I think it sounds like... ...rap...

I yelped and a lb&sc tender engine looked up.

SC276: [Twilight] "Which I totally know what it is."

Crazy56U: Well, Twilight knows a lot about magic and science, so her knowing about trains makes some sense.

Dragonborne: "Ib&sc..." I have the urge to commit sudoku...

And smiled at me.

Scarlet: pulls out the record player Well, my solid gold '70s collection is coming out earlier than I expected.

ThatUnknownPony: I've heard of going full throttle, but this is ridiculous! Rimshot

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "(thinking) Annnnnnnnd yep. Yep, that was my sanity. I am now insane. ...eh..."

Mononeko: And this was Twilight's cue to run like fuck.

JofY: Twilight discovered pot that day.

CaptainPipsqueak: [Fluttershy] "Oh please."

john: hello there I am Johnson but you may call me John. What's your name?

Something: Why did this turn into script form all of a sudden?

Crazy56U: Because the Author just gave up.

SC276: That would require the author to try at some point.

ToonGuy: [Twilight] "My name is OH MY FRIGGING CELESTIA A TALKING TRAIN KILL IT WITH FIRE."

SC276: [Johnson] "OK, um... Mind if I just call you 'Oh My?'"

Mononeko: snickers Johnson.....

CaptainPipsqueak: [Johnson] "Hello, my name is Twenty Foot Long Penis."

ThatUnknownPony: I refer to my last riff.

Dragonborne: I think the author's compensating for something...

Twilight- twilight sparkle and I used to be a equine alicorn. I said.

Scarlet: "I am now a 7/7 Eldrazi Horror with Flying, Lifelink, and Vigilance."

Nox: The Eldritch Moon is upon us!

Dragonborne: Impending doom approaches...

CaptainPipsqueak: Really? I thought she looked like three rabbits and a ferret in a trenchcoat.

Crazy56U: Huh, so apparently traveling between dimensions does downgrade an alicorn, looks like "better season 5 end" was right about som- (is hit with a brick; dies)

Mononeko: ...since when does my shotgun shoot bricks?

ThatUnknownPony: Since the moment I found this well-placed pile of bricks to throw.

SC276: Stop mentioning that fic.

Nox: How about we talk about the fic with the "shitgun" instead?

john was surprised you mean you used to be an equine royalty? He asked.'

JofY: [john] "So, you get up in others business like you own the place?"

ThatUnknownPony: [John] "(thinking) Just play along with her and she won't turn you into scrap, John..."

Scarlet: John being well versed in pony law and tradition, I see.

CaptainPipsqueak: John has seen shit, man.

ToonGuy: John was a fugitive from the Fat Controller's regime. He had seen a lot of things.

Crazy56U: [John] "I'm not being paid enough to have believable reactions, fuck it."

i said. Yes.

Something: Twilight. Has gone. Full. Shatner.

Mononeko: Hopefully. She won't. Ruin. Elton John.

Nox: (shoots Mononeko) We don't talk about that. Also uh, man down, I guess?

Mononeko: looks at a bullet hole in the wall behind him You need to work on your aim...

Nox: What? (looks down at a table) CRITICAL FAIL!?

JofY: examines dice ...all of these are 1's.

Crazy56U: Fuck you all, I like that cover.

ThatUnknownPony: If only because it is so bad, it's funny... unlike the fic we're trying to endure.

well then let's get you steamed up your grace.

JofY: Is that a sex thing?... I'm legitimately not sure.

Dragonborne: Err... hot train on pony action?

ThatUnknownPony: Shall I get the music going on?

Crazy56U: How exactly does a train have sex with a pony yep there went my brain I can feel it burning burning burning burning burning BURNING BURNING BURNING

He said. Shyly. Fluttershy would have loved him.

Scarlet: Somewhere, Rhymey grows jealous.

CaptainPipsqueak: SHUT THE FUCK UP, RHYMEY. I know he's not here, it just needs to be said whenever his name is mentioned.

SC276: For the record, I have no idea who this Johnson is. The only name matchup with the series I got has to do with the music or something.

ToonGuy: John is not a character in the show, I can confirm that.

ThatUnknownPony: Oh god, is he like the "stupid attempt at making a train version of Flash Sentry"?!

Mononeko: Because a train version of Brad is what everyone wanted...

Crazy56U: BURNING BURNING BURNING BURNING (punches self in the head)

Okay, I'm good. I'm good...

where am I going to work at since I am obviously a tank engine. I said.

Scarlet: That's odd, I would have assumed that on my spontaneous transmutation into a mechanical life form I'd have said something a bit more along the lines of 'auugh, what the fuck, where are my legs?' But you do you, Twilight.

ThatUnknownPony: [Twilight Sparkle] "I should be concerned about not being a pony anymore somewhere far away from Equestria... but I just accepted that and I'm ok."

CaptainPipsqueak: I, for one, applaud her ability to cope with such alien concepts.

JofY: I mean, it's no different than the time she realised she was a cat girl on Nimbus III.

Mononeko: Does that mean Twilight looks like this now?

ThatUnknownPony: The quality of that image matches the one from this fic... and now I'm blind.

Crazy56U: (eyes begin to bleed)

Dragonborne: Suddenly, pony version of Little Buster Q. I wish I was joking.

Nox: ...You're testing my patience, but the Eldritch Moon pre release is today so I'm feeling a bit merciful.

CaptainPipsqueak: [Twilight] "Just for the record, I am now to be called Twainlight Cargo."

Oh you will be working on my railway as my new tank engine. A voice to my right said.

Something: "It was Gordon, who had staged a coup and taken over the Isle of Sodor off-page."

Mononeko: Yay, slave labor!

CaptainPipsqueak: When Gordon mentioned his plan, Sir Topham Hatt just waved Gordon away and mumbled something before going back to trying to find that Pikachu.

Crazy56U: Really, though, Gordon's coup worked out for the both of them, since Sir Topham Hatt could now retire.

whoa. I yelped and acciedently

Something: ...am I dead yet?

CaptainPipsqueak: No. You don't get to escape that easily.

ThatUnknownPony: You're not dead, but grammar is.

Dragonborne: Death's probably laughing at us and playing cards with Gaibon and Slogra.

Crazy56U: I'm surprised none of you linked it.

bumped into some trucks who said in annoyance.

JofY: Wait, there were trucks just laying on the rails?

ThatUnknownPony: Do trucks even appear on Thomas the Tank Engine?

Crazy56U: Or the Author has gotten trucks confused with trains.

SC276: Guess what they call train cars in the UK? British!

oi give it a rest. They chanted.

Something: "The game is on, can't you wait fifteen minutes?"

SC276: Well, author, which is it? Did they say it or did they chant it?

Mononeko: Oi! Give! It! A! Rest! Give! It! A! Rest!

Crazy56U: Plot Twist: The trains were saying this directly to the Author.

But when they started to tease me they soon learned never mess with a former princess of Equestria.

Scarlet: Twilight Sparkle is not fucked with.

CaptainPipsqueak: Wow. Can that statement be misconstrued... Given as she's now several tons of metal, that might be something to...no. No I'm not going there.

ThatUnknownPony: Twilight then proceeded to commit first-degree murder when she ran full throttle over the poor trucks. There were no survivors.

Crazy56U: And so Twilight decided to go on a murder spree.

hold back lads. The first truck said.

SC276: For all the good that'll do, since they're not hooked up to her...

ToonGuy: Perhaps this takes place during Season 15, where the rules of logic and sense were thrown out of the window and ignored until saner heads prevailed.

...Actually, that makes perfect sense for this story's setting.

Mononeko: ...Thomas had at least 15 seasons?

ToonGuy: Oh, we're still going! Nineteen seasons and counting! That's not even going into the direct to DVD specials, the occasional theatrical release of said specials....it's not stopping any time soon.

ThatUnknownPony: Nineteen?! And people say MLP has overstayed its welcome.

Crazy56U: Well, as far as I'm concerned, when it switched over to CGI, it died. Much like what happened to Chuck E. Cheese.

But I biffed him into his brothers.

JofY: Causing everyone to have to pause their reading to look up what the word biffed is... At least it is an actual word that does work in this context.

Dragonborne: FINALLY! The author did something right! plays Final Fantasy fanfare music

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "Hey, why don't you make like a tree and get out of here, you buttheads!" no nonsense. I said. Or I shall rip you apart like Oliver did to scruffy. I threatened.

Scarlet: raises hand and lowers it Never mind, none of these questions I have need answering.

CaptainPipsqueak: And any answers we gave would either be wrong, or simply lead to even more questions.

ThatUnknownPony: fails to compute and crashes

Something: Well, it appears that Twilight already knows the dense and large-scale mythology of the Thomas the Tank Engine series.

CaptainPipsqueak: Yes, who could have thought that a story about sapient trains with faces could be that deep? Granted, this is coming from a sapient horse with wings and a horn, so...

SC276: Maybe she watches it on TV every day at 12:30 pm. On channel 58-2. When the dumb reception decides to work for fucking once.

Nox: All right you know what? I don't need to deal with this quotationmarkless bull. (leaves)

Crazy56U: Is it a good thing or a bad thing that Twilight issuing the threat of murder is the best part about this fic...

they soon stoped.

Something: This misspelling is pathetic.

ToonGuy: Damn, these trucks are the worst. You had ONE job, trucks, and you blew it.

Nox: (returns) I got my ass handed to me at the pre release.

Crazy56U: Great, Twilight just killed those trains with nothing but words.

when I arrived at knaphord station

SC276: Knapford. KNAPFORD.

CaptainPipsqueak: Shaddup. It's funnier this way.

SC276: No it's not.

ThatUnknownPony: It is solely by your reaction.

Crazy56U: Guys, stop torturing him, the fic is doing enough as is.

which I thought was just the name of the town.

JofY: In actuality, it was their religion.

Dragonborne: And it was like secularism, except not.

Crazy56U: Eh, better than Creationism.

I meat a red tender engine.

Scarlet: He was delicious and well-seasoned.

ThatUnknownPony: Cooked the way I like the most: Medium Rare.

SC276: Wait, when did the scene change? What happened to the voice? Oh god, it's gonna be one of those fics...

CaptainPipsqueak: Oh golly yes. Pretty much started out as one of those fics, but hey...

ToonGuy: Ah, James, can't wait to see your character butchered completely.

CaptainPipsqueak: I see what you did there.

Crazy56U: We interrupt Thomas the Tank Engine to bring you Cupcakes.

excuse me but can you tell me where knaphord is? I asked the red engine.
but this is knaphord where are you from? James asked.

Something: Fuck off, James! No one likes you!

ToonGuy: The shippers would disagree.

Mononeko: *Shippers?! *rubs temples Goddammit R34...

ThatUnknownPony: Who even ships a train and... You know what? Don't answer.

Crazy56U: Maybe some sexually frustrated conductors, I don't know...

brighton on the mainland. I replied.

SC276: Aaaaaaand I've stopped caring.

Crazy56U: That's it Twilight, just pull that out of your ass.

(end of twilights point of view)

Scarlet: We shall mourn Twilight's passing. She died as she lived - a true friend, not to be fucked with.

CaptainPipsqueak: Also a train engine. Don't ask questions, just accept this.

Mononeko: That's basically my tagline for this entire riff.

Dragonborne: And Twilight is become gravestone.

ThatUnknownPony: Here lies Twilight. She never scored.

CaptainPipsqueak:

Crazy56U: If only, there's more story.

(normal point of view.)

CaptainPipsqueak: NORMAL VIEW!

Crazy56U: "Everyone in Ponyville had become deeply concerned that Twilight was walking around in a daze screaming nonsense about trains. The fact that she smelt of moonshine did not help."

edward gasped.

Mononeko: NO NO NO NO NO!

CaptainPipsqueak: Oh you love it. Or you wouldn't be here.

Crazy56U: Thomas' Branchline, for all of your branchline needs.

Dragonborne: One of my relatives got nicknamed Stumpy...

Crazy56U: ...to take note if a train is short and stumpy?

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] “Why do you look like you’re having a stroke?”

Crazy56U: Uh, no, that's clearly blood.

no it's well your not a big engine. Edward said.

SC276: Neither is Thomas, what's your point?

CaptainPipsqueak: Thomas doesn't have a traingina. ... I'm not sorry.

Mononeko: looks at Captain I'll be sending you a bill from my psychiatrist for that joke.

ToonGuy: Same. As someone who had the misfortune of reading a Thomas the Tank Engine sex story once, and regrets it deeply, that bill's going to be a long one.

ThatUnknownPony: Agreed. I haven't had the misfortune of coming across train-sex, but the pun was just so bad it deserves punishment.

Dragonborne: Ditto. I'll be extra-sure to give you a yoyo-sized bruise on the eye, Captain.

Nox: That joke was worse than the insane rain/hail storm and power outage I just finished dealing with.

Crazy56U: (brain has burnt to ashes)

CaptainPipsqueak: NOT. SORRY.

SC276: I can't believe these people sometimes...

yes I am. Twilight snapped.

no your not. James said.

ThatUnknownPony: Oof! Savage...

Something: James, would you kindly fuck off?

ToonGuy: Go to hell, James! Heighist bastard.

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "Damn right, I'm not!wait..."

(muttering under her breath) well I was big enough to do my work on the main land.

JofY: Support the glorious USSR!

Crazy56U: Dude, come on, leave Russia out of this.

(adds under her breath) and EQUESTRIA. Twilight said.

Scarlet: I am sure much of this interaction might make more sense to me were I familiar with Thomas the Tank Engine. I am also sure it would dilute the surreal experience of reading Twilight Sparkle's anguish that she is too small to be forced into slave labor for the sake of humanity.

Something: I was obsessed with Thomas the Tank Engine growing up and I'M having trouble with this.

ThatUnknownPony: I used to watch the old stop-motion seasons when I was a kid, and I barely understand a bit of this.

SC276: Yeah, I actually have the good CGI seasons in recent memory and this is fucking bullshit.

CaptainPipsqueak: Wondrous wondrous bullshit. This is gold.

Mononeko: Solid, 24-karat gold.

Crazy56U: All of my knowledge of Thomas the Tank Engine consists of the Tumblr post I linked at the start, the live-action movie, and this. I am fucking lost.

wait all I meant was your not as big as I am. Edward said.

SC276: [Twilight] "Duh! I have eyes!"

Mononeko: snickers

ThatUnknownPony: Not as big as Johnson, am I right? Wink, wink. Nudge, nudge. Say no more?

Crazy56U: [Edward] "But then again, I did get a major growth spurt growing up..."
[Twilight Sparkle] "How the fuck do trains get gro- you know what, nevermind."

i may not be as big as you but I am very hard working and I can handle trucks and coaches all the same. She replied.

Something: I asked this earlier, but it bears repeating. How does Twilight know how the world of Thomas the Goddamn Tank Engine works?

Crazy56U: Twilight has gone insane from this ordeal and is just rolling with the punches now.

JofY: It's not even Twilight to begin with.

ToonGuy: Alternatively, we've all gone insane and we're actually just staring at re-runs of Thomas.

SC276: Honestly, not a bad theory after the last couple months...

I have a little song I sing and it keeps the trucks from causing trouble.

Something: "It's called 'Fucked With A Knife'."

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "I mean yeah, I stole it from Pinkie Pie and changed the words somewhat, buuuuuuuut..."

SC276: Oh god no, not more singing.

ThatUnknownPony: Oh, fucking hell!

ToonGuy: Oh TERRIFIC.

Mononeko: Oh no...

JofY: I'll be on the toilet if you need me.

CaptainPipsqueak: Hey, it's 'he must never know.'

this is the song she sang.

SC276: oh fucking hell

Scarlet: ~MOVE, BITCH! Get out the way, Get out the way, bitch-~

Crazy56U: And now, for a classic. (clears throat)

Mononeko: Oh sweet god.

Dragonborne: THE END TIMES! grabs her radio and calls someone Uh, yeah, can I borrow your boomerang for a second? I got an emergency situation on my hands!

twilight:(singing) when I was little the darkness would often make me frown.
tell me she's not? James asked.

ThatUnknownPony: Yes, please tell me she's not really doing what I think she's doing...

Scarlet: Hi, recycled joke! I haven't seen you in a while!

CaptainPisqueak: [Recycled Joke] "Silly Scarlet, I've been here all along!"

SC276: (Googles) ...Oh fucking hell, it's original. The only result for that exact quote returns the fic.

Mononeko: Oh, GET THE FUCK OUT!

Crazy56U: All you have to do is take a cup of flour! Add it to the mix!

twilight:(still singing) and the shadows would make me feel all down.
she is. Edward said.

SC276: [Edward] "Ma'am, the songs are interstitials! Unless you're in the pirate movie! No one knows what was going on with that one!"

ToonGuy: [Edward] "All I know is that I want some of that shit that Thomas got!"

Crazy56U: Now just take a little something sweet, not sour! A bit of salt, just a pinch!

twilight:(still singing) but daddy said that wasn't the way to deal with fears at all.
truck one: then what is?

SC276: [truck] "Also, what's a daddy?"

Scarlet: [Twilight] "CRUSHING YOUR ENEMIES BEFORE YOU, AND HEARING THE LAMENTATIONS OF THEIR WOMEN!"

SC276: [Twilight] "Or starting a family! It's basically the same thing."

Something: Excuse me, my pedantry alarm went off. The quote is "To crush your enemies, see them driven before you, and hear the lamentation of the women!"

Scarlet: I'm sorry, did I ask for your opinion or did I ask you to carry this knife around in your intestines? <3

Crazy56U: Baking these treats is such a cinch! Add a teaspoon of vanilla!

twilight:(singing) he said twilight

Something: "Shut the fuck up!"

ThatUnknownPony: "We're trying to sleep! Stop with the spontaneous musical numbers!"

Crazy56U: Add a little more, and you count to four, you got to stand up tall learn to face your fears you'll see that they can't hurt you just laugh and make them disappear. Ha-ha-ha.

ThatUnknownPony: Slamming head into a wall SHE IS. FUCKING. DOING IT! CRAZY. WAS. JOKING!!!

Scarlet: Ha ha ha you know I could be doing anything else right now.

SC276: Like driving an actual train. Presumably at us to vent.

Dragonborne: Twainlight the Tank Engine will be played by Pinkie Pie.

CaptainPipsqueak: [Pinkie Pie] "Toot toot!"

ToonGuy: i wouldn't blame you, to be honest.

Crazy56U: And you never get your fill of...

twilight and the trucks:(singing) SO giggle at the ghosty,chortle at the spooky, crake up at the creepy.

SC276: wait are you fucking serious (Googles) ...she changed the lyrics around, that's cheating

Scarlet: Excellent theory, Twilight. Let's test whether laughter wards off disturbing fear and imagery! And... go. Good luck with the persistent nightmares!

ThatUnknownPony: Cowering in a corner ...why did I have to open that link?

Crazy56U: Cupcakes! So sweet and tasty!

CaptainPipsqueak: "The engines cannae take no more! They're craking up!"

And tell that ugly fear to go away and he will leave you alone at the very thought of just(laughing).
Laugh.

Scarlet: ARE YOU NOT ENTERTAINED?

ThatUnknownPony: NO

SC276: No I'm not. Even the worst Thomas song is better than this.

ToonGuy: Did someone say Misty Island? I heard Misty Island. But then again, I hear that all the time when someone mentions 'worst' and 'Thomas' in relation with each other.

Crazy56U: Cupcakes! Don't be too hasty! Cupcakes! Cupcakes, cupcakes, CUPCAKES! (bows)

Soon the trucks where all lined up in two trains headed to to different directions.

SC276: To to, to. To? To!

Crazy56U: Four.

CaptainPipsqueak: No, it's clearly ten.

Crazy56U: No, you're clearly ten.

JofY: Forwards and North-North-South.

Dragonborne: Fools! Four is death!

well I see you did your best in get these yard organized. The fat controller said.

Scarlet: "But you failed. You failed utterly. I despise you."

JofY: "But you were in charge of a mile, not just a yard."

CaptainPipsqueak: "Stop calling me fat, you ugly bastard."

Crazy56U: "But unfortunately, you scare the crap out of me and that song was trash, please leave."

well thank you sir organized is my middle name twilight organized sparkle.

Something: Wait a minute. If you're a princess now, doesn't that mean your name has changed to "Princess Sparkle" and "Twilight" is your middle name?

Mononeko: "Princess Twilight Organized Sparkle."

JofY: No, no, no. It's "Princess Twilight twilight organized sparkle Sparkle."

CaptainPipsqueak: Princess Twilight Twainlight Cargo Organized Sparkle.

SC276: You guys should probably stop before you hurt yourselves.

CaptainPipsqueak: 'Before', he says...

Crazy56U: Yeah, okay, let's take safety advice from the guy who inflicted the train story upon us.

Twilight said.
ha-ha.

Crazy56U: What a story, Twilight.

Dragonborne: "They're coming to take me away, haha!"

Good tomorrow you will go to the steamworks to have a new coat of paint.

ThatUnknownPony: "That iconic lavender coat? Screw it! We're painting you black with red stripes!"

CaptainPipsqueak: "And we're going to give it a flame border. Just because. I mean, it's not like you could stop us or anything."

Scarlet: I'd like to remind you all that Spike is currently home, separated from his closest family member, and has no way of knowing how to ever return her to Equestria while this is going on. Enjoy the pathos!

Crazy56U: Nah, Spike probably died in the magic explosion.

thank you sir. Twilight said. And puffed away.

JofY: ...I get it!

ThatUnknownPony: ...I don't get it.

Crazy56U: She puffed her last puff and died.

at tidmouth sheds there was another tank engine like her.

Something: "Because he had mouthed off to the Supreme Leader Gordon, he had been sent to the sheds for 35 years."

SC276: Oh great, now not only has she been turned into a train, she's been turned into a recolor- oh fucking hell I knew I remembered that description from somewhere.

Mononeko: Why the fuck is she a recolor of Thomas?

ThatUnknownPony: Because FUCK LOGIC!

Crazy56U: Well, this just got a whole lot more awkward.

thomas looked up and saw the most beautiful thing next to the magic railway puffing into the berth next to him.

Scarlet: ...Again, already? whips out the record player

SC276: why is there shipping they're fucking TRAINS

Captainisqueak: Because 'training' just sounds creepier.

ToonGuy: You would be surprised.

Mononeko: R34. Just...R34.....

ThatUnknownPony: Sometimes I hate the internet for making that shit.

Dragonborne: Then again, an intrepid author once shipped Rainbow Dash with a kitchen sink...

CaptainPipsqueak: And I had her try to seduce a shrub.

Crazy56U: ...was she drunk?

CaptainPipsqueak: Exceedingly.

thomas: hello I am thomas.

Something: And I'm confused.

Mononeko: And I am fed up with life.

ThatUnknownPony: And I'm about to blow my fucking brains out!

Dragonborne: And I am wondering what lies in the darkness...

CaptainPipsqueak: And I'm sitting in front of my laptop and eating chips.
Crazy56U: [Thomas] "(near tears) I tried getting out of this, really, I did... ...but my agents wouldn't let me- (begins sobbing)" twilight: and I am twilight the new tank engine to help on your branchline and the mainline.

Scarlet: Mainline, represent! whistles
SC276: [Thomas] "Why would I need help on my branchline...? Well, I'm sure the Fat Controller has a good reason and isn't being driven by a terrible fanfic."
Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "Not out of choice, mind..."

how are you enjoying sodor twilight so far? Edward said.

Something: "It used to be better before Gordon took over, I swear."
ToonGuy: "Back then, we used to actually have something resembling personality."
JofY: "Though, there is a petition to change the name to Mordor."
CaptainPipsqueak: I was going to go with 'Sodom' myself.
Crazy56U: [Twilight] "(sarcastically) Oh, I'm loving it, it's like a great big party."

sodors a grand place to be but I want to see the world. Twilight said.

Scarlet: If you sing, I will cause pain beyond your imagination.
ThatUnknownPony: If she starts singing "Part of Your World", I'll go find the author and shoot him with a sharpshooter.
Crazy56U: Which is code for "Dear God, I want to go home..."

gordon groaned.

SC276: [Gordon] "Not another one..."
Something: "What's the point of being the Supreme Leader if everyone behaves the same as they always do?"
ToonGuy: "Oh the indignity of being in this fanfiction!"
Crazy56U: [Gordon] "God, I wish trains could drink..."

you will have to get used to shunting cars and coaches twilight. Said Emily.

JofY: "We trains are the superior race!"
Scarlet: "This is all you are good for now, Twilight. This is your only purpose."
ToonGuy: [Emily] "Or else I'll break out the knives and claw your fucking face off....night all!"
Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "The fuck is a 'shunt', is it a food?"

oh I will get the hang of shunting Emily. Twilight said.

Something: Wink wink nudge nudge if you know what I mean.
Mononeko: No!
CaptainPipsqueak: Aw YEAH.... Shunt that bitch hard and fast 'til she whistles!
ThatUnknownPony: NO! SHUT THE FUCK UP OR I'LL SHOVE A SHOTGUN UP YOUR ASS!
Crazy56U: BURNING

But all the same this is just like my previous life back where I am from. She added.

SC276: How the fuck are MLP and Thomas even remotely similar?!

Mononeko: Well...both of their names start with a consonant...

ThatUnknownPony: Both are kid shows?

CaptainPipsqueak: Twilight shunts back in Equestria? Well there's a side of her I never knew...

Crazy56U: Both involve talking.

where you are from? James asked in confusion.

Scarlet: A magical, far-off kingdom where none of this is happening.

Something: And fuck off already, James!

Crazy56U: (points in a nonspecific direction) Over there.

I am from another dimension entirely and became a tank engine completely by accident. She said. The other engines burst out laughing, all except one.

Scarlet: That's about the proper reaction, to be honest. I like these trains more now.

ToonGuy: Ah! At last! Sanity!

ThatUnknownPony: A little bit of logic in this illogical mess!

Dragonborne: Common sense! Hoorah!

Crazy56U: That engine being Twilight herself.

(whistles) ENOUGH that is no way to treat the princess of equestria. Thomas shouted by accident.

Scarlet: Shattering the boundaries of plausibility and possibility in the process.

Mononeko: looks at ToonGuy Would you like those words served with cheese, dear sir?

ThatUnknownPony: ..did I say logic? I meant to say "insanity".

JofY: [Spike] rips of Thomas disguise

Crazy56U: [Thomas] "You act like this is the least plausible thing that can happen in our lives! We're talking TRAINS for God's sake!" (gasps) the other engines where shocked.

JofY: They had touched the third rail.

SC276: [Emily] "Thomas are you fucking high."

CaptainPipsqueak: [Fluttershy] "Nooo...I don't have anything to get trains messed up. Not for lack of trying, anyway."

ToonGuy: [Henry] "Oh, terrific, if he starts crawling up the walls again, you're all going to have to deal with him, it took me a week to clean whatever it was he drooled on off my boiler."

CaptainPipsqueak: [Therapist] "Now can you show me where Twainlight shocked you?"

ThatUnknownPony: Dude, I've heard of Trainspotting, but this is too literal.

Crazy56U: They didn't expect Thomas to emote.

Well then your highness. Said Percy. What type of engine are you?

Scarlet: A draw engine! rimshot

Something: A Unity engine.

ThatUnknownPony: An Unreal engine.

Crazy56U: An engine engine.

CaptainPipsqueak: A Havok engine.

oh-ho-ha-ho. Laughed twilight.

Something: She had been turned into Santa Claus.

Mononeko:

So, like this?

ThatUnknownPony: ...I don't know if that's an improvement or not.

Crazy56U: (eyes begin to bleed)

Dragonborne: Um... what?

Nox: Forgive me Mono. (casts 20X fireball at Mono)

Mononeko: I got a lot more of 'em coming...crumbles into ash

I am still not used to being called your highness. But I think I am in the exact same class of tank engine like Thomas.

JofY: [Twilight] "Let me check. rips out Thomas's heart CaptainPipsqueak: [Twainlight] "Despite never having ever been a train before or questioning why I'm one now.

Crazy56U: Guesstimation!

AN E2 TANK ENGINE! The others shouted.

SC276: ...I'm not sure what's worth shouting over.

Scarlet: It's a Gundam! falls over screaming

Dragonborne: ALL SYSTEMS ARE GO!

ToonGuy: [Engines] "WOW. THAT'S BULLSHIT RIGHT THERE."

Crazy56U: "WHY SHOULD WE CARE?" Crazy56U shouted.

yes. twilight said but then shushed them with here thick Scottish accent.

JofY: (elsewere) [Celestia] "Hmmm... Now, either Twilight will come back to us, or she's become Scottish. Either way, I've done I've cared to do."

CaptainPipsqueak: [Applejack] "If you ever find you've been turned into a train, just use this here Scottish accent. Catches 'em out every time."

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "You know what, fuck it, scream at me, you get a different accent to listen to, fuck you all."

huald yer wheshshed here come yon controller.

Scarlet: You know, that thick, Scottish accent Twilight has. Sounds like Sean Connery half the time she's on screen.

ToonGuy:HUH!?! IS THIS A TROLL FIC?

Mononeko: respawns This is surprisingly similar to an event in a trollfic posted just recently. Granted, it was an Australian accent, but still...

ThatUnknownPony: Please, you're giving this fic merit by saying it's a trollfic.

Nox: Alright, forget this, see you guys next fic. (disappears)

Crazy56U: And now Twilight is shitfaced.

the next day sir topham hatt sent twilight to the steam works to have a coat of paint for her choice.

SC276: Because fuck having her be whatever color already.

Something: "Would you like Gordon blue, or Gordon blue? Ever since the Supreme Leader Gordon took over, those are the only choices."

Crazy56U: So, in other words, "I only have blue and blue, dude!"

Nox: (reappears) WHY. CAN'T. I. LEAVE?

hello,victor said. who are you?

Something: "I'm Batman."

Mononeko: "I am the shadow of the moon at night."

ThatUnknownPony: "AND I'M JAVERT!"

Dragonborne: robotic voice "I am not a car."

Nox: "I am the one who KNOCKS!"

CaptainPipsqueak: I am He Who Walks Behind.

Crazy56U: "I no longer wish to live."

I am twilight sparkle. twilight said.

so what type of paint would you like? victor asked.

lavender and magenta please. was the reply.

SC276: [Victor] "I do not recall those colors on the standard livery list..."

ToonGuy: [Victor] "I would normally debate this more with you, but since Gordon took over, I'm looking for anyway to piss him off in anyway I can. UP THE REVOLUTION."

Crazy56U: [Victor] "Blue it is!"

soon she was on her way toward wellsworth when she heard a engine whistling.

?:HELP,HELP THERE PUSHING ME THERE PUSHING ME!.

Something: What the fuuuuuuuuu-

JofY: Ah, birth.

ThatUnknownPony: AAAH!!! I don't need the mental image of a train giving birth!

Crazy56U: Oh sweet baby Jesus, don't tell me-

Douglas twilight shouted.

Something: Who is this "Douglas Twilight" and why is he being pushed?

ToonGuy: Perhaps this is where the Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy came from in Equestria?

Crazy56U: Because that's what the train crossover story needs, another crossover!

farther down the line a deer was grassing the grass

Mononeko: And watering the water?

ThatUnknownPony: While winding the wind?

CaptainPipsqueak: And mooning the moon.

Dragonborne: How does that even work?!

CaptainPipsqueak: Magic. Keep up, would you?

Crazy56U: And shitting the shit.

by the track Gordon was on the opposite line when he heard.

Something: "That's what you get for refusing to talk like everyone else, you Scottish fuck! No one disobeys the Supreme Leader Gordon without punishment!"

Crazy56U: [Gordon] "Huh, and here I thought deer were a myth."

whaaahhhh! Douglas screamed. oh dear help, help, help?
on-on-faster.

JofY: He needs help with what exactly?

ThatUnknownPony: Judging from those words... he needs helps with his ramming.

Crazy56U: On-On-Faster. For when Head On is too slow for your Head On needs.

the trucks said laughing.

I dinnae wanna go any faster. Douglas shouted.
(Douglas's breaks caught on fire.)

Scarlet: Well, it's not a children's story without someone heading for imminent death via immolation!

SC276: oh for (double facepalm and rubs viciously) douglas doesn't have wooden breaks james used to have wooden brakes until this exact shit happened to him and they got replaced with proper brakes YOU'RE RIPPING OFF THE FUCKING SHOW actually no YOU'RE RIPPING OFF THE ADVENTURE BEGINS I'M ACTUALLY RATHER OFFENDED

CaptainPipsqueak: I say, old chap....Settle down and take deep breaths. Old chap.

ToonGuy: This entire story is a rip-off of the Adventure Begins, except without the justifications for the characters doing what they were doing. And with random Douglas appearance!

Crazy56U: Well, that's nice and all, but we're about to see a train crash, so let's just shut up and enjoy it.

Mononeko: Oh boy! A trainwreck inside of a trainwreck!

ThatUnknownPony: Trainwreckception!

Douglas: me breaks noo stoop, I wannae stoop!

Something: I can't tell if this is an attempt at writing in the accent or just more terrible grammar.

Mononeko: I say play it safe and go for both.

Crazy56U: I'm more of a gambling man, so I bet neither.

ToonGuy: To be fair, the original books did have Donald and Douglas deliberately written in a over-the-top Scottish accent. To be fairer, I shouldn't be defending this story.

Douglas: whoa twilight?

JofY: "No! Stap with the young adult novels!"

Dragonborne: "Why did you read 50 Shades of Grey?"

Crazy56U: Uh oh, Douglas is about to mow Twilight down!

CaptainPipsqueak: GO, DOUGLAS! I...um...I mean: NO, DOUGLAS!

use your brakes, use your brakes! twilight shouted.

Mononeko: Decide on a format, decide on a format!

Crazy56U: Make better life choices, make better life choices!

ThatUnknownPony: Relax, don't do it!

I Cannae, me breaks are oon fire there made of wood. Douglas replied.

Scarlet: raises hand and lowers it again No. No questions. It's better this way.

CaptainPipsqueak: See? Now you're learning.

SC276: Good thing I'm psychic and I already answered them for you.

ToonGuy: Yep. That is totally a thing that happened. Of course it is. begins hitting head on the wall ThatUnknownPony: Can you give me a space? I want to bang my head repeatedly too.

Crazy56U: [Douglas] "WHY MUST I SUCK AT LIFE?!"

I'm going to try to couple up behind you Douglas,

Something: And suddenly this became train porn.

SC276: yep this is adventure begins THIS CLOSE TO PAGING DOWN

CaptainPipsqueak: DON'T YOU DARE CHEAT.

Mononeko: You stay here, goddammit!

Dragonborne: Scarlet, bring out your Mobile Fortress...

Nox: Please Twilight, try to keep it G.

Crazy56U: Unfortunately, Twilight had no idea how to couple, so she wound up knocking Douglas off of the tracks, killing him.

I'm going to try to slow you down. she said.

she shouted to the guard. couple me up, couple me up

Crazy56U: COUPLE ME UP INSIDE, I CAN'T COUPLE UP (COUPLE ME UP INSIDE)

I need to slow Douglas down. she shouted.

Scarlet: Scramble! Launch all the mobile suits! Mobilize the Zeon army! Give Ral a goddamn Gouf already!

CaptainPipsqueak: [Twainlight] "Mmmm....couple me up, baby...hsssss"

ToonGuy: Let me guess. Not apologizing?

CaptainPipsqueak: Got it in one.

Nox: Then I won't apologize for what happens now. (presses red button)

Crazy56U: And thus, this becomes the sequel to Thomas the Unstoppable Tank Engine.

uh, right. the guard replied.

JofY: [Guard] "I don't give a shit."

Mononeko: Clearly, an example for all of us.

ThatUnknownPony: A role model for all riffers.

oh no try again, try again. Twilight said.

Something: Yep, this is train porn alright.

ToonGuy: It basically is at this point.

ThatUnknownPony: Just what I needed to see in my life: Fucking train porn.

Mononeko: Was it ever something different?

CaptainPipsqueak: [Twainlight] "Ram me until I blow hot steam!"

we mustn't give up we have to try. She said.

Scarlet: Yeah, can we not? I'm down to making Gundam references even I don't actually understand and I'd appreciate this story ending just a little bit sooner.

SC276: The narrator in this fic doesn't know how to action.

Dragonborne: Nor does he know how to grammar, or plot...

CaptainPipsqueak: But he honestly tries, dammit.

twilight yelps and tries to catch up.

faster-faster. The guard said.

Something: You're making mistaking this for porn too easy, whoever-the-author-is.

whaaaaah! Douglas screamed as he continued on and on.

then he saw something that made his boiler run cold. Crosby bend was dead ahead.

whaaaaaaaahaah! Screamed Douglas.

Something: I want to die.

ThatUnknownPony: May dead free us from this pain.

ToonGuy: "Oh no, Crosby! That shit wee station that no one cared about in the show, oh horror!"

JofY: At it would lead to Jared Ave.

CaptainPipsqueak: ~There something happening here/ What it is ain't exactly clear...~

no twilight shouted.

SC276: Such enthusiasm.

JofY: no wait stop u hav so much to liv fo

ThatUnknownPony: much drama such emotion wow.

Mononeko: Lik if yu cry everytim

CaptainPipsqueak: no oh my god no.

i'm going off the rails. Douglas shouted, och ah oh.'

Scarlet: Ozzy Osbourne was inspired that night.

CaptainPipsqueak: "Scottish Train"? I don't think that's the right title.

whoa dear. The trucks said.

Crazy56U: [Trucks] "Well, this is definitely happening, golly..."

Hungnah.

Something: ... I am lost for words.

ThatUnknownPony: ...No comment. That expression... just what?

Scarlet: Apparently that one maid from Monster Princess is in this now. And this story just made me think of Monster Princess. Excuse me while I go cry again.

SC276: Is he hung? Nah.

CaptainPipsqueak: Garub. Hoonganuk juju.

Mononeko: The part of the trucks will be played by stereotypical Indians.

Twilight groaned to a stop when the dust settled she gasped.

JofY: She had gotten a N64 for christmas!

Douglas had derailed and was on his side with a cow looking at him.

SC276: "Moo," said the bull.

Dragonborne: "Quack," added the goose.

ThatUnknownPony: "Cluck," said the chicken.

CaptainPipsqueak: "Fuck you," said the riffers.

thomas was right cars can run an engine right off the rails.

SC276: Come up with your own plot!

ToonGuy: You ask the impossible.

Twilight said. Don't worry Douglas stay their I will go and get help.

CaptainPipsqueak: [Douglas] "I'm a train, you stupid cunt; where do you think I'm gonna go?"

ThatUnknownPony: [Douglas] "Do you see me on the rails? Do you think I can move freely through any ground? If I could, i would be away from this story!"

edward , Thomas and his coaches where in knaphord with sir topham hatt when twilight rushed into the yards.

Scarlet: Presumably flattening Sir Topham Hatt in the process.

CaptainPipsqueak: [Topham] "Confusion and delAAAAAIIIIIIII...."

was that twilight? The fat controller asked.

SC276: OK, author, which side of the pond are you fucking on? Actually I can just look up your FF.net account and find out myself you're an American why are you using Fat Controller.

ToonGuy: Because the author doesn't give a crap?

ThatUnknownPony: I think that was obvious from the get-go.

Mononeko: I especially like how he literally called him Topham Hatt one sentence before this!

CaptainPipsqueak: Sir Topham 'Fat Controller' Hatt.

wake up-wake up, emergency. She stated.

Something: But they're all awake.

Crazy56U: Well, maybe on the outside, but not in the inside.

ThatUnknownPony: They can't wake up. They want her to save them.

judy, Jerome said.

jerome, judy said.

JofY: [Thomas] "Thomas!"

Mononeko: Donkey!

Dragonborne: "Fiona!"

CaptainPipsqueak: SPOCK!

ThatUnknownPony: SPONGEBOB!

ToonGuy: ALLLLLVIN!

Nox: Master Marik!

emergency. They said in unison.

Scarlet: Dekaranger! beat .. Somebody will get that. Somebody has to get that.

JofY: We will. In the future of 2001.

ThatUnknownPony: Was it a Super Sentai reference, or something obscure yet again?

douglas is off the line his breaks where on fire. Twilight explained.

right, Jerome said.

we're ready, Judy stated.

Crazy56U: Are you, though? Are you really?

CREW UP, JEROME SHOUTED.

Something: It may be because I haven't seen it in ages, but I don't remember any trains named Jerome.

SC276: That's because that's not an engine. Judy and Jerome are the cranes of the fucking breakdown train.

ToonGuy: In the Adventure Begins, which as has been stated before, is basically what this story is, except with better pacing somewhat, better defined characters, pretty animation, decent grammar- I could go on all day, really.

Scarlet: Silence! The call has gone out! Time to Crew Up! elaborate magical girl transformation twilight where do you think your-?

Something: AND I'm going to skip to somewhere close to the end now for my own sanity.

SC276: Hey, how come I can't talk about time-traveling without being told it's cheating and he gets away scot-free?

Mononeko: Because we like to see you suffer.

ToonGuy: Because you submitted the fanfic? ...I have no real idea, I'm just spitballing here.

JofY: Yeah, I'm getting bored. I'm jumping to the end of this.

The fat controller shouted.

CaptainPipsqueak: [Fat Controller] "Get me nachos, Goddammit!"

Nox: Those chips are mine, nachos.

sorry sir but this is an emergency. Twilight said.

Scarlet: Martial law has been declared!

Dragonborne: And now... Knapford has turned into Vector.

back at the bend near Crosby station twilight was hard at work pushing the re-railed trucks away.
oh dear-go gently- go gently. They said.

Scarlet: And Pip makes this completely uncomfortable in three... two...

CaptainPipsqueak: Nah; it's no good if you get here first. I might have been able to come up with something involving a gangbang/bukake party, but I was at a bit of a loss anyway.

ThatUnknownPony: Just like our sanity, right?

i hope this will teach you troublesome trucks a lesson. Twilight said.

SC276: ~Those troublesome trucks will get the engines every time...~

CaptainPipsqueak: [Twainlight] "Because the next time I have to 'teach you a lesson' I'm using the whips and strap-on!"

do you have Douglas at the front there Judy? Jerome asked.
yes Jerome, ready to lift. Replied Judy.

Scarlet: Ready to bench. Twainlight is ripped!

ThatUnknownPony: I've heard that Twainlight has an eight-pack. That Twainlight is shredded.

CaptainPipsqueak: And that she doesn't afraid of anything me too, jerome said lets go.

whoa? Oh, Douglas said nervously.

Scarlet: Exclamations - the fanfic!

Mononeko: Now with it's sequel - "Quotation marks."

CaptainPipsqueak: and the prequel Interrobang!

your alright, heh your alright. Jerome said.

we've got you. Judy said.

SC276: Blah blah blah.

ToonGuy: Yawn.

ThatUnknownPony: Yadda yadda yadda...

Dragonborne: Don't make me summon the Special Task Force on your ass, fic...

at last Douglas was back on the rails sir topham hatt had come to make sure everyone was alright.

well done twilight now can you take Douglas to the steamworks do you know the way? He asked.

SC276: [Twilight] "Uh yeah, I was there like the other day. Or maybe earlier today, it's kinda unclear."

ToonGuy: And where is Donald during all of this? Probably high off his tender at this point, not that I blame him, but still.

yes sir, I do sir it's where I was painted lavender and magenta. She replied.

Scarlet: Twilight's memories of Equestria have faded. There is only Twainlight now. This is the saddest story I have ever read.

ThatUnknownPony: Suddenly this turned into a story where Twilight rejects her equine origin to become a train forever... Why is this suddenly deep?

Mononeko: Lik if u cry everytim ha-ha-ha that's right. The fat controller chuckled.

SC276: That's what I just said.

Later at tidmouth sheds the other engines where there to congratulate twilight on the a job well done.

good job twilight today you really where the best engine. Edward said.

SC276: yes a possession sue that's exactly what a thomas fic needs

ThatUnknownPony: All this needs is for Thomas to fall in love with her.

Dragonborne: fiddling with her radio again and calls a different person with it

Crossbow, please.

och aye, agreed Donald, what ye did was terrific.

ToonGuy: Oh. NOW YOU TURN UP. You betrayed Douglas to Gordon's regime, didn't you? Traitor!

Scarlet: It's better this way, ToonGuy. With any luck everyone ends up scrapped and we don't have to read anything else!

really useful that's what I think. Said sir topham hatt. Douglas shall have new breaks, a bit of repair here and there and a new coat of paint SC276: Shouldn't Douglas be at the- oh for fuck's sake, I'm the actual fan of this show and I mixed up the freakin' twins.

ToonGuy: It's okay. In this fic, they're both as wooden as ever. Like his brake-blocks! That....don't....exist- This makes my brain hurt.

Scarlet: raises hand and lowers it Yeah. Yeah it's still not worth it.

and you twilight due to your bravery and selfless act of heroism have shown your self worthy of having your own branchline.

Mononeko: facedesks

ThatUnknownPony: Geez, what a surprise.

CaptainPipsqueak: "You were only here five minutes, but those were the five minutes that counted!" my own branchline? Said a shocked twilight.

SC276: And where would they even put it...?

ToonGuy: Under the sea, of course, where Gordon hopes to drown this new challenger to his throne.

that's not all. Said a unfamiliar voice.

Scarlet: Prepare for trouble!

and a bright light suddenly shown causing everyone to shield their eyes.

Scarlet: Make it double!

When it had stopped there to twilights amazement where here friends and princess's celestia, Luna and cadence along with prince shining armor.

SC276: And they are somehow still ponies, I guess??

ToonGuy: Naturally. That's just common logic. ToonGuy.exe has stalled Mononeko: Great, now this travesty is starting to remind me that My Little Dashie exists.

ThatUnknownPony: At least there is no Rainbow Dash in a dog suit.

Scarlet: ...Damn it, I was kind of holding out for Team Rocket.

CaptainPipsqueak: Even those two idiots have standards. And their little cat, too.

twilight sparkle element of magic, I knew you could do it. Celestia said.

Mononeko: Do what? Turn into a train?

Dragonborne: Let's see... I'mma have to add massive cannon to the bucket list... seeing as I am in ownership of a sword, and have requested for a boomerang and crossbow so far...

but how did you know where I was? Twilight asked confused.

ToonGuy: [Celestia] "We watched the TV. Duh. Doofus."

ThatUnknownPony: [Celestia] "We were surprised when you appeared on our copy of the Thomas the Tank Engine Season One DVD."

CaptainPipsqueak: [Celestia] "After Luna stopped laughing long enough to be able to stand upright, we rushed over." Luna points at Twainlight, a huge grin appears on her face and she collapses in giggling hysterics. Celestia rolls her eyes it was your assistant spike who informed us of your disappearance but I can see that you have made new friends and have really earned this, and I am sure that everyone can agree that twilight is a really useful engine and princess of friendship. Celestia responded.

SC276: [Celestia] "I totally don't care that my prized student and Element of Magic bearer turned into a train."

[Luna] "And also that she'll stop caring about her other friends back home."

[Celestia] "Oh yes. The second season 4 ends, we are totally doomed."

ToonGuy: [Edward] "Guys, I am not the only one seeing this, am I?"

[Henry] "Maybe if we just stay really quiet, they'll go away."

[James] "Okay, does no one else think that any of the events before this was familiar in the slightest?! No one else got deja-vu from that?! At all!?"

[Emily] "James, stop questioning this, it'll all be over soon."

thank you princess I won't let you nor sir topham hatt down that's for sure. She stated.

Scarlet: Twilight has no need for legs, or magic. She only needs the fire burning in her belly, the steel of the track, the roar of her engines- I'm making this sound cooler than it is.

Mononeko: Weirdly, you're actually making it also more bearable...

ThatUnknownPony: Can you please continue your story? It's better than this borefest.

But before anyone could say anything Gordon asked something that caused everyone to start laughing.

But sir who will fetch our coaches? Some of us aren't meant to shunt. Gordon stated.

SC276: Aaaaaand back to the movie script.

ToonGuy: [The Fat Controller] "Gordon, do we have to have the same conversation every two years?"

CaptainPipsqueak :[Gordon] I'm sorry, bitch; did you say something?"

before the fat controller could say anything it was Thomas who spoke first.

Scarlet: [Thomas] "Gentlemen, I quit. This shit is too much." ride off on a magic railroad to the stars

Captain: Note: Thomas died on the way back to his home planet.

ToonGuy: sniffs Majestic. I want to read that story instead.

Mononeko: TAKE ME WITH YOU, THOMAS!

ThatUnknownPony: DON'T LEAVE US BEHIND!!!

i don't know Gordon perhaps you should fetch your own until sir topham hatt can buy another small engine like twilight. He said. Cheekily.

SC276: [Gordon] "Oh, so you're volunteering then!"

ToonGuy: But...But Percy didn't exist in the original script, and here, he's...he's in the story, right?NONE OF THIS HAS ANY REASON TO BE A PROBLEM.

but- but. Gordon started to protest. The others where laughing.
the next day twilight and rainbow her pony driver

ThatUnknownPony: Pony.exe has stopped working. Please reboot or reinstall operative system.

SC276: (meteor-impacts head against wall, causing it to explode) Congratulations, story. This is officially the STUPIDEST THING I'VE EVER READ.

ToonGuy: Yeah. I have nothing else to contribute, just, whatever SC said.

Mononeko: gnashes his teeth and downs a bottle of pills Okay, I'm calm...

Crazy56U: No, stop it you two, not in public!

along with Thomas saw an engine puff into the yards that they hadn't seen before.

Scarlet: Prepare for Trouble...?

CaptainPipsqueak: [Team Rocket] "Fuck. You."

Douglas: Ahem.

douglas is that you? Twilight asked.

och aye twilight, heh-heh how do ye think about me new paint work? He asked.

SC276: [Twilight] "Honestly, you look shit in not-black."

ToonGuy: Is it blue? If this was a better story, it'd make sense that he was blue considering that was what he wanted to be painted in the actual books- I'll, I'll just stop now, I think.

Wow Douglas you look splendid. Thomas said.

Aye know, I'm ready for me coaches. Douglas said.

we are twilights coaches now Douglas, said Mary.

yes and she even has here own branchline too. Said Martha.

SC276: There are literally no canon coaches named Mary nor Martha. They pretty much exist because the author figured she couldn't just take Annie and Clarabelle.

CaptainPipsqueak: Maybe Mary and Sue?

ThatUnknownPony: So, pretty much the only original thing from this story, and it's shit.

off to see the world twilight? Thomas asked.

yes Thomas I am. Twilight said.

SC276: Fun fact: that's only the first chapter. Out of five. This is kinda me right now:

ToonGuy: stares in horror DEAR....GOD.

ThatUnknownPony: FIVE CHAP... How did we let that happen?

Mononeko: That's also how I feel, but to keep my feelings in context, I feel more like this:

Crazy56U: (eyes begin to bleed)

Scarlet: There's more of this. There's... more of this.

Dragonborne: Mono... you're a member of the Frontier Quartet, aren't you?

SC276: ...Mono plays saxophone?

Nox: If the fireball wasn't enough for you last time then I'll have to use THIS twilight was shunting in the yards

CaptainPipsqueak: Twainlight, dear...you really shouldn't be doing that in public.

her driver and fireman where on break and she was resting in the sidings next to the turntable

SC276: Can't wait to figure out what episode she stole this from.

Scarlet: Was it the one before or after I unleashed magical vengeance on all trains everywhere for this existing?

she lived with the others at tidmouth sheds, she would also talk endlessly about there were two way's of doing things the great equestrian way or the wrong way, SC276: (headbutts another wall so hard it too explodes) Congratulations, author. You just made THE STUPIDEST IDEA I'VE EVER READ EVEN FUCKING STUPIDER.

ThatUnknownPony: CONGRATULATIONS, THIS IS ALMOST MYKAN-LEVELS OF BULLSHIT!

ToonGuy: Duck was thinking of suing for copyright infringement.

CaptainPipsqueak: Hey guys; let's drop this snorefest and check out 'better season 5 end' instead!

everything ran like clockwork, the trucks behaved well and the passengers even stopped grumbling and even Duncan stopped complaining to but the others didn't like having to be hustled about.

Scarlet: [Trainlight] "Can't stop my hustle, yo." puts on shades

Dragonborne: I want to make a Starlight Glimmercorn now.

Mononeko: opens MS Paint Is that a challenge?

Dragonborne: Bitch, you're old-school. opens up Paint Tool SAI

Crazy56U: (pulls out a can of spray paint) Plebs...

" There are two ways of doing things" she said," the great equestrian way or the wrong way,

Mononeko: gasps Does she dare to question the methods of the great Gordon?

CaptainPipsqueak: Twilight's a trainist!

I am equestrian built and-"

"don't we know it" the others would say.

SC276: [Gordon] "You weren't even built in this 'Equestria' of yours. You were turned into an engine by coming to this universe for reasons the author will not explain because there wasn't an episode of this show about that."

ToonGuy: [James] "SERIOUSLY, IS NO ONE GETTING A SENSE OF DEJA VU ABOUT THIS? WE LIVED THROUGH THESE EVENTS!"

[Henry] "Shut up, James, and drink your coffee."

things where fine until hard times hit the railway and sir topham hatt was in need of another engine.

SC276: Because that's what you do when hard times hit: bring in a thing that takes up even more resources.

ThatUnknownPony: Well that's how America does it anyways.

"hello- oh yes this is sir topham hatt, yes- I see no that's okay good bye" he hung up the phone and then scrambled to the sheds.

Scarlet: [Topham Hatt] "Egads, yet another Pikachu!"

Mononeko: Topham Hatt, the original Pokemon GO player.

CaptainPipsqueak: Between that stupid game and his overeating, it's a wonder that he's not dead yet.

SC276: I would think overeating and playing Pokémon Go would cancel each other out...

later twilight was talking to Trevor when Douglas puffed by with a long dirty coal train.

ToonGuy: Hi Trevor! Glad to see you making a completely pointless cameo!

"c'mon twilight, quit gossiping in the sun when there's work to be done" he said. that after noon twilight spoke to Douglas.

"Trevor and I are old friends

SC276: Somehow.

CaptainPipsqueak: That's what you get for blinking at the wrong time - you totally miss stuff like this happening. It was like three chapters back: he rescued her from falling off a cliff and right then, their friendship bond began.

ToonGuy: This is literally Escape. This is one of the best episodes of the show, and you're ripping it off!

and you two have a lot in common like Oliver the great western engine." she said.

"aye an what would that be?" Douglas asked.

"scrap" said twilight in a quiet voice.

SC276: Author, you can't put Twilight in the role of both Thomas and Duck and expect us to just fucking take it, as indicated by the fact we're riffing this.

ToonGuy: And besides, the entire story of Escape was about Douglas rescuing Oliver, so he should KNOW this!

Scarlet: Is this what it's like for other people when I start making references to continuities only I know? This is such a weird sensation!

ThatUnknownPony: Welcome to our world, baby. Don't you love to be in obscurity for once?

CaptainPipsqueak: Let's give her a proper welcome: ready the whipped cream cans and the coconut cream pies.

"losh sakes, dinna mention that wurd it make me wheels wobble." he said startled.

CaptainPipsqueak: Well, I'm stumped. Anyone wanna take a crack at this?

"it does the same to Oliver and Trevor they had similar encounters with death but where rescued in the nick of time, but all the same sir topham hatt does need another engine" she said.

SC276: Because those statements totally relate to each other.

Dragonborne: Much like how Twilight's accidental spell sent her here to begin with...

CaptainPipsqueak: [Death] "NOW THAT'S JUST NONSENSE. I DO NOT COME FOR MACHINES."

Douglas agreed.

"aye that he does an quickly" he said.

Scarlet: For future reference, a Scottish accent isn't the same thing as mercilessly butchering English.

ThatUnknownPony: Please, this story butchers English even if it's not a Scottish accent!

that night as Douglas was taking bocos goods train to the other railway to the same place he had been years ago, it was a place where only the diesels work.

SC276: Just what this fic needs now. Steamie / diesel racism.

CaptainPipsqueak: Dirty ol' diesels. Don't get too close - I hear some of them will cut you if you get in their face.

ToonGuy: This really is Season 15!

it was half past 12:07

SC276: So... wait, is that 12:33 and a half?

CaptainPipsqueak: No: 6:03.5 AM

Dragonborne: 23:59, military time.

ToonGuy: Don't apply logic to it, it'll only hurt more.

Mononeko: Author doesn't know how to time.

and Douglas was just shunting ready for the return journey when he thought he heard a strange hissing sound.

Mononeko: [Douglas] "Enough is enough! I have had it with those motherfucking snakes on these motherfucking trains!"

"what's that?" he said then he listened, "that's sounds like a steam engine"

CaptainPipqueak: [Douglas] "Fuckin' steam engines intrudin' on my turf?!"

the "hiss" came again.

ToonGuy: Oh, I'm hearing the original score in my head now, and I am ashamed to be associating that with this fic.

"who's there?" Douglas asked.

a whisper came.

"are you a fat controllers engine?" the voice asked.

"aye an proud of it" Douglas replied.

SC276: [Douglas] "I mean, I'm working here, I'm not sure what else I'd be."

CaptainPipsqueak: [Douglas] "It's not like I have multiple options."

the voice wasn't so sure.

"and do you by any chance work with a alicorn turned steam engine?" it asked again.

"correct again" said Douglas.

ToonGuy: [Douglas] "Oh god in heaven, another one?!"

Mononeko: [??] "He's red and black. Heard of him by chance?"

CaptainPipsqueak: OH NO! IT'S BLOODRAZOR! THE... um... the... st-steam engi... ... Does that sound stupid to anyone else?

the voice was relieved.

"I am sunset shimmer I'm with my coach Isabel and my brake van ted ToonGuy:That so? Uh huh. I see. walks over, begins banging head on wall

ThatUnknownPony: ...ok, Ok, OK! I can take Twilight turning into a train. I can take Rainbow be her driver. I CAN TAKE THOMAS HAVING A CRUSH ON TWILIGHT... BUT YOU INVOLVE SUNSET SHIMMER IN THIS FUCKING MESS AND I... I... Roars with rage and begins wrecking walls with his head

SC276: Oh good, there's still walls around in case something else phenomenally stupid happens.

CaptainPipsqueak: Sure. Why not.

Mononeko:

THE FIC MADE ME DO IT!

Crazy56U: (eyes begin to bleed)

Dragonborne: ... sighs, sharpens her sword Stand back everyone, I'm going to slay this monstrosity shortly...

we are escaping to your railway, but we ran out of coal and have no more steam" sunset shimmer said.

"but from what?" asked the Caledonian 812.

"scrap" answered sunset.

ToonGuy: [Sunset] "I'm randomly here for some reason, I wish I was getting scrapped, but this story is making sure I can't, for whatever reason."

SC276: Scrap - everyone's answer to everything.

Mononeko: This whole fanfic is a pile of scrap.

Douglas shivered but then remembered twilight's story.

"then I'll be glad to help ye but we must wurk fast." he said.

ToonGuy: You know, I'd make fun of this, except that I've actually written stories where I've mostly stuck to the script of the original episodes. The difference? When I did it, I was trying to do so to poke fun at it, and I had ACTUAL deviations from the story, that I intended to either poke fun of in a affectionate way, or to expand the story a little bit. You have done neither.

SC276: There's little that pisses me off these days like an unbalanced crossover.

Dragonborne: And an unbalanced crossover with shoddy grammar and "Twilight fucked up a spell" cliches also tend to piss me off...

ThatUnknownPony: And any story that fucks up Sunset Shimmer is an immediate piss off from me.

everyone worked fast, Douglas coupled to the front of sunset and began to pull away.

"nay time tae turn round I will have tae run yon tender first." said Douglas SC276: ...what? Could you speak up and turn down your Scottish for a second?

but before they could clear the station throat, they where stopped.

"ah-ha a great western auto tank, coach and break van, property of British rail you cant take these." the yard foreman said.

ToonGuy: [Guard] "You know, I get the distinct feeling that I've done this before."

'och can we now? as ye can see they are for us just see for ye self" said Douglas's driver.

SC276: Who is apparently not a pony what was even the point of that.

the foreman looked sunset all over and looked at the transit labels.

"hmm, seems in order, right away guard." the foreman said.

(whistle)

ToonGuy: (comment about how stupid this story is)

Mononeko: (comment about ToonGuy being right and/or unfunny joke)

ThatUnknownPony: (comment about how Mononeko's joke is still better than the story.)

CaptainPipsqueak: (obscene joke and/or terrible pun followed by refusal to atone for it) and they forged ahead.

"that was a near thing" said a relieved Douglas.

"we've had worse", said sunset.

ToonGuy: Have you!? That'd make a far more interesting story.

ThatUnknownPony: Well, she's in this story, for starters. That already is worse than anything.

SC276: I would like to know how Sunset suddenly got to this universe please.

Mononeko: Just assumed Celestia beamed her into this universe for no reason.

as the dawn broke through the night sky they reached crovans gate where victor was working a late shift.

SC276: I had to look up that Crovan's Gate is where the Sodor Steamworks is located. So just say the Steamworks. Unless you're concerned about how the episode you're ripping off didn't have the Steamworks yet.

"WERE HOME!" shouted Douglas.

"shh" said his driver," there are the works we will leave sunset hear and then head back to the sheds"

ToonGuy: Leave Sunset hear? Was she deaf before?

Mononeko: They're talking about leaving her there to hear the voices in her head ThatUnknownPony: She hears voices in her head. They counsel, her, they understand. They talk to her.

SC276: It's like being the smartest girl in the world.

CaptainPipsqueak: She should know better than to trust the Lord of Locusts.

sunset said goodbye and thank you as Douglas returned to the sheds, just as his twin, duck, Oliver, toad, Ryan, daisy, and Thomas along with twilight where just waking up.

SC276: So wait, Duck exists at the same time as Twilight impersonating Duck? And why is Toad at the sheds when he's also a brake van? And where's the freakin' rest of the Steam Team?

ToonGuy: Well there are answers to your questions. Pfft. No. I kid.

"och, Oliver! I've done it again!" shouted Douglas startling the others.

ToonGuy: So continuity does exist!What am I even saying at this point?

Mononeko: I dunno. Never followed you to begin with.

ThatUnknownPony: Continuity? Where? I need to see it to believe you.

"ugh, done what again?" asked a very tired auto tank.

"I have rescued another engine from the other railway!" said Douglas triumphantly.

SC276: When did you do it the first time? If you're talking about Twilight, that was Johnson, whoever he was.

that woke Oliver up.

"w-w-what?" asked Oliver.

"just that." said Douglas.

" fat controller will have to know," said Thomas.

ToonGuy: [Thomas] "So that he can shut down the story and can go about setting up that union. You know, so we don't keep getting killed off for the whims of stupid fat men. This story is probably going to be the end of us."

SC276: Because somehow neither he nor Mr. Percival didn't know about Luke. I still have no idea how the fuck that worked.

"well here he is" said a voice," now what this all about?"

"beg pardon sir, but twilight really needs help on her banchline" said duck.

ToonGuy:Does she, though?

SC276: News to me.

ThatUnknownPony: I wasn't paying attention, so beats me.

"yes indeed sir, a steam engine sir" said daisy.

ToonGuy: Okay, this line made sense in the original book because there'd be a incident with a diesel prior to this. It makes sense, albeit if you strain it a little, in the TV episode, because it was Gordon saying this, and Gordon, as has previously been stated, is a right asshole. But that's an ACTUAL diesel engine saying that. And I can't even believe I'm trying to argue this point, but SERIOUSLY.

ThatUnknownPony: That shows you care for the source material, unlike the asshole who wrote this.

SC276: (Wikis) ...What the fuck is a diesel passenger railcar doing at Tidmouth Sheds?!
CaptainPipsqueak: Yes. Because reasons.

"well unless one is saved from scrap there is little hope" said the fat controller.

"but sirr, one has" said Douglas.

"and thanks to you Douglas she is now at our steam works, sunset is just what we need for the new banchline." said sir topham hatt.

ToonGuy:Is she, though?

SC276: Oh so he already knows, apparently.

"sir, does this mean?" asked an anxious twilight.

"yes it does twilight, the new branch line is now finished."

SC276: Wheee.

Mononeko: Whoo-hoo.

ThatUnknownPony: Joy.

the rest of his speech was drowned in chorus of cheers and whistles and horns that could be heard all over sodor.

ToonGuy: "OI! TURN THAT RUDDY NOISE DOWN!"

the news spread like a wildfire.

ToonGuy: Actually, that was Henry burning his stash of drugs to try get mega high off of it. An admirable attempt when you take into account that he is a train and has no arms to do so with.

Mononeko: I refer you to my Nagito-abomination a few riffs back.

duck told the arelsdale engines who told Edward, who told bill who told Marion, who told timothy who told ben who told Gordon who told the other engines.

ThatUnknownPony: ...who told Topham Hatt, who told the news, who told the city, who told the state, who told the country, who told the continent, who told the world...

ToonGuy: Who weren't important enough to get names.

everyone was happy for Douglas. even devious diesel congratulated him.

when sunset returned from the steam works she and twilight worked on the new branch line. at first the others teasingly called it the little equestria. but the two didn't mind and the little equestria it will always be.

ToonGuy:And another line that makes more sense in the original than this one. WHAT A SHOCK.

SC276: At what point did Sunset tell the others that she's from Equestria too? And how did Twilight react to that? Why the fuck are they taking being turned into sentient machines lying down?!

Mononeko: Yes.

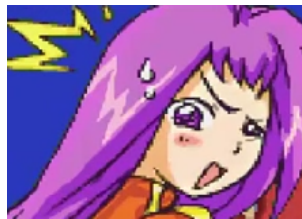

sunset was loving her new life on sodor,

Mononeko: she told the other trains. However, inside she realized that she had to live the rest of her life as a machine.

ThatUnknownPony: She was clearly delusional, living under the effect of a spell or a potion controlling her mind.

she was talking to the others about her adventures on how she was trying to figure out on how magic worked in the alternate realm that twilight had been to years ago.

ToonGuy: I....I'm sorry, what was that? It came out as a strangled garble, whatever it was.

Dragonborne:

ThatUnknownPony: Yeah, those adventures that happened in the HUMAN World, where HUMANS live, just like the HUMANS who ride the trains in this world!

SC276: And none of those adventures matter now because they don't have magic anymore, because the show doesn't have magic.

"she is truly a enterprising engine" said James.

"yes indeed" said Gordon. "young sunset has resource."

" an sagacity" agreed Donald.

ToonGuy: DO YOU NOT REMEMBER THE-You know what? Fine. Let it go, ToonGuy. Let it go.

SC276: A what now? Is it anything like Audacity?

"what's resource and sagacity?" asked twilight.

ToonGuy: Oh really? You don't know the meaning of those two words? Bullshit.

ThatUnknownPony: You have lived all your life reading books, and you've never heard the meaning of resources or sagacity?! Cannot... this just can't... what living creature wrote this?!

"I think what it means is that sunset is very clever and wise." answered Thomas.

SC276: Unlike the author.

but Thomas had a very nasty feeling and so too did Oliver.

Mononeko: I'm getting a nasty feeling from this fic.

"I hope sunset does not cause an accident like the one that caused the turntable to go out of order." said Oliver.

ToonGuy: Spoiler alert.It does.

SC276: Which was totally done by Sunset, who just got here, and not actually Oliver.

but I am sorry to say

SC276: I doubt that.

that all the praise that sunset received made her all stuck up.
and it showed in her work effort.

SC276: Oh, that explains the author's typesmanship.

ThatUnknownPony: Sure! Throw Sunset under the bus, why the fuck no?!

Dragonborne: sarcastically Nah, really?

duck and twilight tried to reason with her but she took no notice.

Mononeko: We interrupt this Thomas the Tank Engine fan fiction to bring you The Mysterious Mare-do-Well.

ThatUnknownPony: Or Sunset before Equestria Girls, WHICH SUPPOSEDLY ALREADY HAPPENED!

"Gordon said I am resourceful and sagacious." she stated.

Mononeko: [Duck] "But according to the supreme leader Gordon, all the trains are resourceful and sagacious. That way, no train feels superior."

"beg pardon sunset but if your really resourceful or good gracious" said duck.

ToonGuy: Did a capital letter murder your family?

SC276: Good gracious, what is that sentence supposed to mean?

but Douglas intervened.

"nae bother with her, she be getting a lesson that yon Oliver had tae learn," Douglas said.

ToonGuy: Yeah, but last time, that took your turntable out of action for an entire day, and that wasn't a good thing, so...maybe not let that happen again?

ThatUnknownPony: But then she could never learn her lesson! Screw the turntable, repeated morals are the priority in this story!

later sunset shimmer was working near the small railway shunting ballast hoppers when they where full she was to shunt them to Donald.
but the trucks didn't want to move.

ToonGuy: As opposed to us, who can't wait to get out of reading this fanfiction.

"duck we know, and twilight and the Scottish twins too but who does sunset think she is putting her bunker in our yards?" they asked each other.

SC276: What does that even mean?!

Dragonborne: Once again:

when they neared the yards it happened.

ToonGuy: The author got bored and ended the story early. Hooray!

(play the season three theme for the runaway theme song NOW!)

ToonGuy: No. Because that was legitimately good music, and there is nothing good in this fanfiction.

SC276: ~Those troublesome trucks will run the engines off the line...~

Mononeko: Author, you know who did the exact same thing in his fanfics? Mykan. You wanna be like Mykan? No? Then don't do this!

ThatUnknownPony: I stand corrected, this now Mykan-levels of bad.

the silly cars pushed sunset.

ToonGuy: Okay, you're either American or you're British when it comes to terms. MAKE UP YOUR MIND.

Mononeko: Spoilers: the author lives between America and Great Britain on the bottom of the ocean ThatUnknownPony: So either an Atlantian, or someone on a desert island. Explains his disconnection from the rest of the world.

"stop that" hissed sunset.
then there was trouble,

SC276: It's called this fanfic.

Mononeko: In that case, better not make it double.

duck was on the turntable and was unaware that sunset was coming until it was too late.

ToonGuy: Oh my god, what a shock, aaah.

Mononeko: oh no sunset nooooo.

ThatUnknownPony: sunset what did they do to you why.

with a bang and a sudden crash sunset ended up having her bunker in the turntable well just like Oliver.

SC276: Just like him? Gee, it's almost like the author ripped off a canon episode.
ThatUnknownPony: And almost like the author has something against Sunset.

"oh hello sunset are you being a good gracious engine? beg pardon but I don't think that twilight would want that on her line, and beg pardon but this is the second time some one has fallen into the turntable well.

SC276: [Sunset] "If this happened before, why didn't you fucking tell me about it?!"

the twins will be rather sad and shall miss there turntable." said duck and puffed away.

ToonGuy: Duck wisely decides to get the hell out of here and find a shrink.
Mononeko: TAKE ME WITH YOU DUCK!

poor sunset, later after being rescued sunset got a good talking to by both the fat controller and the Scottish twins.

there sentences where pointedly in both Scottish and pungently in English.

ToonGuy: You know, that line works in the original book because....no. No, you don't need a reason beyond this one. This story is shit.

sunset was sent to the works and would not be back from the works until her repairs were done.

SC276: ...Obviously?

Dragonborne: She wanted a reason to get out of this travesty. But alas, she couldn't, because such is the way of the fanfics that become trainwrecks.

when she returned she got teased by the cars and sang at rudely by the trucks but that's another story.

ThatUnknownPony: And this is where Sunset learned she had no place in this world and left to never return...

ToonGuy: Well that was rushed. Not that I'm complaining, mind.

SC276: And now for that another story with no transitions whatsoever.

sunset had returned from the works after the cars had pushed her down the turntable well.

"I mustn't be around those cars" she said to herself.

SC276: Have fun with that.

but I am sorry to say that when they saw her the began to sing rude songs at her, s. jr led the chorus.

Mononeko: Who?!

"sunset's no use at all thinks she's very clever, says that she can manage us, that's the best joke ever, when she orders us about with the greatest folly we'll just push her down the well, pop goes old olie!"

ToonGuy:Pardon?

ThatUnknownPony: ...Are you kidding me?!

SC276: Are you having Sunset substitute for Diesel?!

they sang.

olie was sunsets nickname but it was because it was accidentally assumed that she was Oliver the great western engine.

SC276: How the fuck is that even possible?!

Mononeko: googles Oliver* Seconded!*

ThatUnknownPony *I just... This fucking... AAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAGH!!! *destroys a thousand walls banging his head repeatedly against them

ToonGuy: *This story....this.....I'm sorry, I have to take a minute. heads over to corner, and stares at self in mirror Where did it all go wrong?*

Dragonborne: Ugh, the songs are starting again? I'm being reminded of Siren now...

the others where shocked and cross with the cars.

"shut up" they ordered.

but they couldn't be everywhere and everywhere they weren't the silly cars would start again.

"sunsets no use at all thinks she's very clever, says that she can manage us, that's the best joke ever!"

they sang.

SC276: Come up with new material!

Mononeko: *Well, if you can't beat 'em, join 'em. clears throat ~The author is no use at all /thinks he's very clever / thinks that he can write a tale / that's the best joke ever.~*

ToonGuy: ~when he writes his new fanfic/he thinks it's the greatest tale/So we'll just riff him straight to hell...../Go back to writing school you fail!

SC276:

at last the engines gave up, they were fed up and had tried all they could to stop the trucks from singing that rude songs.

"we're sorry sunset," they said.

Mononeko: Well, that was a fast reformation. Season 5 finale, eat your heart out.

ThatUnknownPony: fist bumps Mononeko I like you.

but sunset didn't blame them for anything she know that it was her fault she got too big for her buffers.

"that's alright you guys, it is really my fault for falling in that blasted turntable well." she said.

SC276: [Sunset] "Also your fault for not telling me this shit happened before."

ted the break-van could see that his old friend needed help.

Mononeko: I assume that in the original source material these characters get introduced to us?

ThatUnknownPony: And have more depth, personality, purpose... they're better written, just for short.

next day he decided to talk to Oliver, toad, and Douglas.

"I'm worried mister Oliver, mister toad, and mister Douglas, this disrespect for engines where's it going to end?' he asked.

"who knows" replied Oliver.

SC276: [Oliver] "Especially when it keeps happening over and over."

just then toad had an idea that had worked before, he whispered it to Oliver who told ted, who said that would work.

ToonGuy: Well that certainly wasn't tortured at all.

ThatUnknownPony: What did he whispered? Beats me.

"is it alright if I stay in the yards? me and sunset are like Toad and Oliver great western and we must stick together" he said.

ToonGuy: You know Oliver great western, right? He was always my favorite.

SC276: Why yes you are, Ted, I wonder why that is.

"certainly ted." said the three engines.

he suggested it to sunset who was with duck and twilight.

"goodness ted you mustn't suggest such a thing to sunset" said duck.

ToonGuy: ...Okay, the fuck was Ted's idea? Was it burning the trucks at the stake to the one true god named Gordon?

SC276: No, that would actually be original.

"no duck he is right this mess is my fault and I must put it right" she said.

"I mean no disrespect miss sunset." said ted.

"well alright good luck sunset and remember stepney's tip about sand.

SC276: That he never said.

ThatUnknownPony: But when has something been explained in this story?

Mononeko: It's apparently just common knowledge on Sodor.

good luck" said duck before puffing away with twilight.

Mononeko: I ship it, I guess...

sunset said thank you but even though she had shown a brave face she was dreadfully nervous on the inside.

ToonGuy: The inside of her biological body that had been somehow transformed into a mechanical one by magic, I guess, whatever. There's a original story idea there!
Do ANYTHING other than what you're doing right now, story!
Mononeko: I think you're asking too much of the author...

later sunset was shunting a long train, marshaling the worst trucks two by two.
"that's the way miss sunset,

Mononeko: "That's the way we like it."

I know it takes longer but that way they won't cause any trouble and if you leave that S. jr till last then you can have him right behind you then you can bump him if he starts any mischief." he said.

SC276: oh fucking hell, you didn't even mention Scruffy Jr before now.
ThatUnknownPony: I think he did? But it was so blink and miss plus this story is boring me to the point of sleepiness I'm not surprised you skipped that.

later on duck, twilight, and the other engines where at the shunting yards at Edwards station to cheer on sunset.
"three cheers for sunset" shouted duck.

SC276: [Duck] "May she do the thing that happened before!"

soon everything was ready.
S. jr began to snicker.
"Hold back" he said, "and past the word to the others."
the silly cars giggled.
but sunset was ready and with a great heave S. jr began to feel rather queer.

SC276: Look I'm all for gay rights and everything, but...
ToonGuy: Oh my!
ThatUnknownPony: ...are you implying he's taking it on the butt?
Mononeko: OH GOD NOT MORE TRAIN PORN!
ToonGuy: Where's Pipsqueak when you need him?

"OHEEER" he groaned, "I don't like this."
there was a creaking sound and he began to groan louder.
"OHEEER" he screamed, "I'm c-coming apart"
(crash, bang, wallop) and S. jr was in pieces.

ToonGuy: You know, somehow the original was more viscerally horrifying and awesome. I don't know what this fic lacks, apart from everything, but...gah, I don't know, man.

ThatUnknownPony: If only we could turn this into pieces as well.

SC276: The fic is in pieces.

Dragonborne: Let's finish it off!

Mononeko: graps a mace and throws it to the fic. Mace bounces back and hits him in the face AAAAAAHHH! FUCK!

then there was trouble.

SC276: Don't ya fucking know it.

"so sunset don't know your own strength now is that it?" said a familiar voice.

"n-no sir" stuttered sunset.

the fat controller inspected the remains.

Mononeko: [Topham Hatt] "Yep, this fic is unsalvageable."

"hmm as I suspected rotten wood and rusty frames if we put you back together maybe you will earn yourself a better name" he said

SC276: How can you do a better job than you apparently did the first time this happened?

ThatUnknownPony: Because apparently everything was hit with a reset bomb and all previous events are happening again.

then spun on his heels and headed to the station.

now a days sunset only takes the cars when the others are busy, the cars are always quick to warn each other when ever she was about.

"be careful with sunset shimmer, you cause any mischief for her and you will never be the same truck again, she will likely pull you in half."

S. jr was put back together and was placed on the out of use siding for a while I think he learned his lesson, don't you?

SC276: No. No he didn't.

ThatUnknownPony: Can the author please learn something like... how to write a story?!

Crazy56U: Well, I don't really care, but at least the story is over-

ToonGuy: Jinxed it.

Mononeko: Fuck me...

TED'S ADVENTURE.

Crazy56U: DAMN IT

Dragonborne: This again? shakes her head

ToonGuy: Ted. Clearly the fans were crying out for more of TED!

BASED OFF OF TOAD'S ADVENTURE BY ANDREW BRENNER.

Crazy56U: Oh, goddamnit, you're using one of the shitty newer episodes?

SC276: Actually, this is one of the less shitty newer episodes. The show got a lot better after Andrew Brenner became head writer in season 17, and I'll fight anyone that says otherwise. Which just makes this all the more painful. ...Also, Brenner didn't actually write this episode, but honestly, I don't know what else I expected.

sunset and ted are from the great western railway,

SC276: No she wasn't.

ToonGuy: I thought it was the Great Equestrian Railway, or some shit like that.

but thanks to Douglas who saved her life from scrap she would talk about how they arrived on the railway.

"and then there was that night of our daring escape from that scrap yard, oh what an adventure that was unbelievable" she said.

SC276: Yes, it's unbelievable that you had the exact same story as another engine and come to think of it this is barely even about Twilight.

ThatUnknownPony: Who? I don't remember this Twilight you're talking about.

Mononeko: Did that happen? These chapters are so boring they're actually feel like the same chapter reposted four more times.

ted the breakvan had been there as well but was upset that he didn't have an adventure of his own.

ToonGuy: Aside from that one time of nearly getting killed.....wait, what happened to Isabel the coach? Did she just die off screen? Why do I even care?

" I know miss shimmer I was there too remember and I have heard this story before!" he said.

"never before has a great western engine had such a narrow escape, the moon was full that night and the wind was rustling in the trees but I weren't scared though" said sunset.

Mononeko: Just keep pushing, man. Just keep pushing...

ThatUnknownPony: ~Just keep pushing. Just keep pushing.~

sunset shimmer had told the story about how they first arrived on sodor a hundred times, ted wanted an adventure of his own.

Mononeko: Please don't let it be written by this author, then...

"oh yes our escape from that scrap yard was the greatest adventure that anyone has ever had." she said.

SC276: At least in this fic.

ThatUnknownPony: And even then it was rushed and crap.

later sunset dropped ted at knaphord shunting yards

Crazy56U: Uh oh, the Author forgot how to spell.

ToonGuy: They knew how to in the first place? News to me.

Dragonborne: Barely. And OP's written 59 different stories so far, with this one as one of the much more recent ones... Mykan did better on the fucking spelling and structural fronts, and his grammar has improved last I checked.

CaptainPipsqueak: And nobody has suggested to this putz that he could be doing something he's actually good at instead?

Dragonborne: Went and checked every one of their stories that had reviews. There were some who disliked the grammar abuse, but nobody commented that OP's time be spent doing something that OP is good at.

to pick up a passenger train.

"bye ted, (whistles(2x))

SC276: (long painful whistle)

ToonGuy: Damn, that's impressive!

Mononeko: (short understanding whistle)

ThatUnknownPony: (long groan-like whistle)

CaptainPipsqueak: (warbling fart)

see you later, nice talking with you." and with that she puffed away.

toad the breakvan could see that his brother was a little upset

ToonGuy: WOAHH WOAHH, BROTHER?! THE HELL DID THAT HAPPEN?

ThatUnknownPony: Well, when Mommy Train & Daddy Train love each other so much and see their Kid Train is lonely...

SC276: It's only a fanfic, it's only a fanfic, it's only a fanfic...

and decided to talk to James about the situation.

James was just arriving at the yards to find a breakvan, he was just as upset as he was when he took toad on an adventure.

"(scoffing) brakevan's, why do I need a breakvan for? I never had accidents without one before!" he said.

ThatUnknownPony: That's just asking for an accident to happen to you!

"excuse me sir, hello did you say you needed a breakvan sir?" ted asked.

"you what's so special about you?" asked James.

"well just ask anyone sir, I like hauling coal wagons and my breaks are strong and oh please mister James?" ted answered.

SC276: No, canon episode, stay out of my head, I don't want you tainted by this drek.

ToonGuy: BEGONE FOUL SPIRITS. BEDEVIL THIS CANON EPISODE NO MORE.

"oh alright, alright, come along we don't have all day" said James.

soon ted was coupled to the back of James's train headed for vicarstown.

as they where chuffing along James began to brag.

" I don't suppose you see any splendid red engines on your little equestria line very often?" asked James.

Mononeko: [Ted] "Yes in fact, we do see a lot of red-and-black engines. Although they are not anywhere near 'splendid'."

ThatUnknownPony: [Ted] "They always brag about being unique and deep, with tragic backstories and state-of-the-art capacities. But they're always tacky & ugly to look at."

"no sir I-" began ted.

"did you know that I am the only splendid red engine on the whole of sodor." boasted James.

"yes sir I can see that-" ted was yet again cutoff.

"you could come for miles around and never see such a splendid engine like me" James boasted again.

SC276: This. Hurts. So. Much.

ToonGuy: I'm pretty sure there's nothing else I can really contribute to this, because this is the same plot as the actual canon episode, just with minor alterations!

James began to go a little faster.

Mononeko: wiggles his eyebrows

ThatUnknownPony: No, no train porn...

"d-do we have to go s-so f-fast mister James?" ted asked.

Mononenko: wiggling intensifies

ThatUnknownPony: GODDAMNIT I SAID NO TRAIN PORN!

"nonsense ted the sooner I get to vicarstown the sooner I can get back to pulling coaches." James said.

just then there was a small bump which caused a piece of coal to fly out of one of the trucks.

"ow!, please slow down sir, sunset wouldn't travel this fast with a full load" said ted.

SC276: She'd travel just as fast as Oliver and you know it.

"nonsense ted I go this fast all the time." said James and began to go faster still as he began to reach Gordon's hill.

ted decided that he didn't want an adventure anymore.

Dragonborne: And I don't want to continue with this dreck anymore..

SC276: So end the fic!

"oh dear, oh dear me!" he stated.

"oh lighten up ted, were almost done with our WHAAA?!" exclaimed James. he hit a branch that had fallen onto the main line and then the coupling snapped.

SC276: How fun, author, can you describe where that happened, or can you not perceive anything that's not narration?

Mononeko: No.

"oh no not again!" James cried out in alarm.
" oh mister James what was that?" ted asked.
"we hit a branch." his reply was.

ThatUnknownPony: Not again? So you already had a similar accident and yet you...
Why am I even bothering?

SC276: Yes, that is definitely alarm.

ted began to roll backward down the hill.

SC276: Just Ted? And not the bunch of heavy cars that I don't remember what's in them and the author doesn't either?

"stop the cars!" shouted James.
down at the bottom of Gordon's hill twilight was taking sir topham hat and the duke and the duchess and the dowager to the mainland to see the opera.

SC276: OK, one, if the Duke and Duchess of Botsford were going somewhere, they'd take Spencer. Two, why are those two even here? They have literally no purpose in this story.

Mononeko: To connect it more to the original source material?

"you know I was quite the singer in my time." said the dowager.
"really mam?" asked the duchess in curiosity.
"would you three like to hear me sing?" the dowager asked.

Mononeko: NO NO NO NO NONONONONONONO NO!

ThatUnknownPony: We already endured two Song Fics, WE DON'T NEED ANOTHER!

"um maybe later" stammered the fat controller.

SC276: Also I'm guessing the author doesn't know that Dowager Hatt is Sir Topham Hatt's mother. Or is in denial.

ThatUnknownPony: Somehow the former is more probable.

then the dowager began singing again twilight rolled her eyes when she looked up ahead.
"CINDERS AND ASHES!" she cried out in alarm

SC276: Which is totally a thing Twilight says.

Mononeko: Like Scarlet said, It's all Trainlight now...

and she slammed on her breaks surprising the four passengers.
"twilight, why have we stopped?" asked the fat controller.
"up ahead sir look!" twilight replied.
"BACK UP TWILIGHT, BACK UP!" the fat controller said.

Mononeko: "Tell me what you're gonna do now!"

"twilight look out!" shrieked Thomas.

SC276: Does the author have a vendetta against Percy?
ThatUnknownPony: or just simply forgot about him.

"Thomas, oh no where going to have a crash!" screamed twilight.

SC276: The fic's already crashed.

Thomas gasped and ted too gasped

Mononeko: And Mononeko too gasped.
ThatUnknownPony: And ThatUnknownPony just yawned.

ted knew it was all up to him now as there wasn't enough time for Thomas and twilight to reverse quickly.

SC276: You can't even rip off the narrator right!

ted growled as he slammed his breaks on even harder then ever before.
the fat controller shouted to the other passengers.
"he's going to hit us!?" he stated.

SC276: That is not a question. Also, he is apparently not holding his mother in a protective hug.

everyone braced for impact but then.
(clang).

Dragonborne: Chocolate break! opens a refrigerated Crunch bar and takes a bite ted had done it he had stopped the cars just in time, everyone was relieved.

SC276: Except we continue to be furious.
Mononeko: Or bored out of our minds...
ThatUnknownPony: Or already snoring...

"well done ted" praised twilight.
"thank you miss sparkle, just- chough- doing my job" said ted.
"sorry twilight I lost my cars on the hill is everyone alright?" James asked.
"no James everyone is not alright, you have caused confusion and delay, I demand to know how this happened." said the fat controller firmly.

SC276: Aaaaaand I'm reminded of the DR crossover now. Congratulations, author, you made me miss the worst mystery on FIMFic.

"well sir the thing is I was going too fast-" James was interrupted by ted.
"there was a fallen branch on the line sir, it was nobody's fault it was an accident" ted said.
"oh accident eh, well um?" the fat controller pondered.

SC276: This fic is certainly an accident.

"sounds to me that this little break van has saved us all from disaster, wouldn't you agree?" asked the dowager.

SC276: No, because this story's still going.

"yes, well" stammered the fat controller.

"you are a really useful breakvan and a very kind one too." said the dowager.

"yes uh well done ted, carry on, carry on the opera awaits." the fat controller stated as the dowager began singing again.

SC276: [Fat Controller] "Yes, carry on, let's get this nonsense off my railway and over with."

ThatUnknownPony: [Fat Controller] "The faster you move, the faster we're done with this bullshit."

"you can go a little faster now if you like mister James?" said ted.

"uh no thank you ted I think I will stick at the pace I am at right now, never too slow, never too fast that's what I always say" answered James.

Mononeko: wiggles his eyebrows even more

ThatUnknownPony: sigh You're just going to ignore me about the train porn...

later back at the shunting yards James had just dropped off ted when sunset arrived.

"thank you for a lovely time out mister James" said ted.

"no thank you ted and call me James" he stated.

"hello ted, you'll never guess what happened to me today let me tell you all about it-" began sunset when James intervened.

"actually sunset I think you should ask ted about the adventure he had today" said James and puffed off.

"you ted?- you had an adventure?" asked sunset.

"Well yes as it happens,

SC276: [Ted] "Not an original one, mind..."

[Sunset] "Eh, mine wasn't all that original either probably. Carry on."

it all started when I was coupled to mister James, and he started to go a little fast by the time we reached Gordon's hill my wheels were shaking" said ted.

"well that don't sound like much of an adventure now does it?" stated sunset.

"but that's where things get scary, by this time we saw that branch had fallen onto the line." ted continued.

"no" sunset stated.

ThatUnknownPony: [Sunset] "No, that's not how it happened. I was passing by and saw it was all James' fault. You're just covering his fuck up."

"(gasps) so what happens next?" sunset asked.

Mononeko: yawns Yes, please tell me...

"that's when things got really scary, James couldn't stop

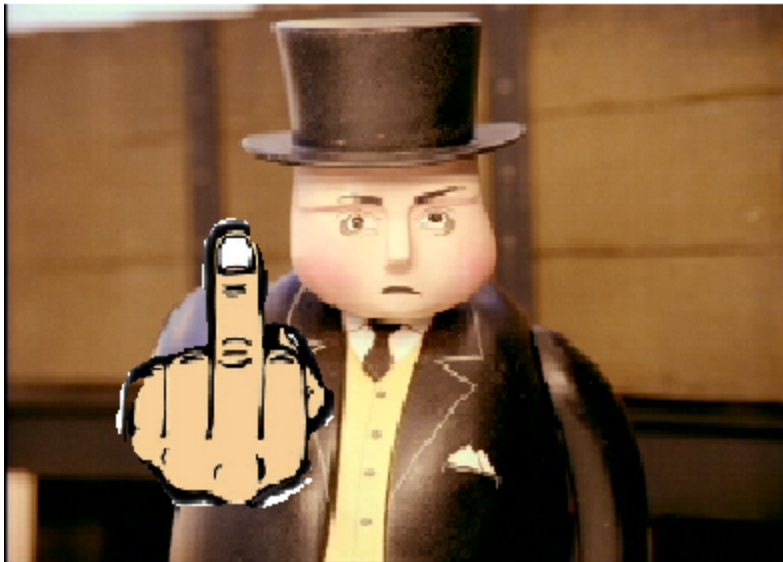

Something: Because James was a useless asshole.
Dragonborne: Indeed.

ted told everyone about his adventure out on the main line, sunset said that she could hardly believe it, SC276: Neither can I...

but ted said that was okay he would tell the whole thing again tomorrow.
THE END

SC276: FINALLY! (puts a sledgehammer to another wall, causing it to explode) I only read up until Johnson-whoever-he-was found Twilight initially, I didn't think it'd be this much of a wholesale ripoff. (takes a few deep breaths, drinks some orange juice, and recomposes himself) Right, what's next?
ToonGuy: Thank god that's over with. There there, Thomas and Friends, you are free now. That was physically painful. Mind you, the next one isn't much better.
Mononeko: And now, a message from Sir Topham Hatt to this fanfic:

ThatUnknownPony: I agree with that message.
Crazy56U: (eyes begin to bleed)

Ringmaster: Yeah, remember that thing I said about "in-depth knowledge?" Yeah... disregard that for this next fic, where the author literally only saw the trailer of this series and wrote a fic off that.

ThatUnknownPony: Great, so this was written the same way Jason Friedberg & Aaron Seltzer write parody movies. Good to know I'll loathe this from the get-go.

SC276: This is not the day you've been waiting for. Unless you were waiting to get introduced to RWBY, an animated web series by Rooster Teeth that's totally awesome. Just because the author never saw it doesn't mean you shouldn't!

Ringmaster: I personally... don't care for it at all, but that won't stop me from running this next fic, "Red Like Roses" by Ryzombies01.

Crazy56U: Roses are red, violets are blue, I haven't seen RWBY, we're still in Hell.

Mononeko: Me neither. But yeah, we're still in Hell...

Something: Oh God, a RWBY crossover. Like I didn't have ONE thing possibly ruined for me tonight.

ToonGuy: This was my pick, and it's....well, put it this way, it's a prime example of how maybe you should watch the actual first episode of a show at least before writing a story about it. Relatively short, now that I think about it, compared to the last one, but it's definitely a pile of crap.

CaptainPipsqueak: Yeah, I'mma hold off on this one; unlike the author, I know nothing about the series but choose not to point this out to others.

"Red like roses fills my dreams and brings me to the place you rest
White is cold and always yearning burdened by a royal test
Black the beast descends from shadows
Yellow beauty burns gold."

Something: Ah, yes, just quoting lyrics from a song on the RWBY soundtrack. A-plus writing.

JofY: No. This has narrative symbolism to it... In that it's symbolizing that the writer doesn't know how to make a narrative.

ToonGuy: Which is completely worthless considering that neither Weiss, Blake or Yang appear in this story at all.

ThatUnknownPony: So, we're stuck in a story with only Ruby without the rest of her team, written based only on the trailers... long desperate sigh ...I should marathon the series after this.

Crazy56U: This isn't going to help me understand RWBY at all, is it...

Mononeko: Do you even have to ask?

"Spike?" yelled Twilight. searching for something.

Something: You'll never take me alive!

ToonGuy: She was searching for her back up 'Number One Assistant'.

Mononeko: Owlowski?

ThatUnknownPony: That vibrating thing in her drawer?

Crazy56U: Her jar of moonshine?

CaptainPipsqueak: The ball-gag and strap-on?

"Yeah?" says Spike. who just got out of bed. "do you know where the "Unicorn's Guide To Ultimate Magic" book is?" asked Twilight.

Crazy56U: No, Fluttershy needed help lining her bird cage.

JofY: [Spike] "It's right next to: How to Kill Your Friends and Loved Ones to Become a Mary Sue."

"You put it under you

Something: That sounds uncomfortable.
ThatUnknownPony: Maybe she's too much into book.

blanket on your bed" says Spike. Twilight goes up and looks under her blanket to find the book.
"Thanks, Spike" says Twilight as she goes down stairs.

SC276: Who puts a book under a blanket and not a pillow...?
Mononeko: Bibliophiles...who like to sleep with their books...there's a book fetish joke in there somewhere.
Crazy56U: And a dictionary joke if you like to make puns.

"Your welcome" says Spike in a quiet voice as he falls into his bed and falls asleep. Downstairs.

JofY: looks downstairs Huh... Apparently there's some Nazi gold here...
Mononeko: MINE! grabs the gold and runs for the door Oh right, this thing is locked...
CaptainPipsqueak: Also, it's only foil-wrapped chocolate.

Twilight is looking at a spell called "Tele-Species".

JofY: Meanwhile Upstairs Twilight is wondering what a clone is doing in her house.
ToonGuy: The sequel to Teletubbies?
SC276: Oh it's one of these fics again.
ThatUnknownPony: One of two: Either she teleports to the world of RWBY, or she brings Ruby into Equestria.

the spell allows to teleport other people and species with magic like her teleportation spell.

JofY: With only a 17% chance of death!
CaptainPipsqueak: And a 83% chance of being left begging for it!
SC276: Why would she need something to teleport "species?" Whatever the fuck that's supposed to mean.

Twilight then opens the door to visit Applejack.

Mononeko: For some reason...
ThatUnknownPony: Because she has teleportation doors apparently.

Meanwhile....

JofY: In Spain...
SC276: I hear the rain there falls merrily on the plain.
CaptainPipsqueak: Also there was this inquisition thing. They had multiple weapons: fear, surprise and ruthless efficiency, among others.
Something: Were these last two fics written by the same person? If it goes to script mode then I swear to God I will-Crazy56U: At Rooster Teeth...

it is a sad day for Ruby.

SC276: She realized she was in a terrible fanfic.

Something: She had seen one of her friends die right before her eyes, her sister had post-traumatic stress following the forced removal of one of her arms, her team had been split apart, and she had a new power that she didn't understand... the ending of Volume 3 was fucking dark, guys.

SC276: gee thanks for assuming everyone's caught up you spoiler

ThatUnknownPony: ...Ok, now I need to marathon the series. Thanks a freakin lot for the spoilers.

Crazy56U: ...huh.

for that it is the four year anniversary since her master has died due to a attack from a Beowolf. Ruby stares at the grave. then a flashback begins.

Something: Wait, Uncle Qrow is dead in the context of this story?

ToonGuy: Uncle Qrow didn't even exist at the time of the writing of this.

SC276: Oh great, another visual writer.

ThatUnknownPony: So again another writer that comes up with bullshit because they clearly never saw the source material.

Mononeko: Well, at least he knows how to use quotation marks.

|"Ruby. i need you to focus.

JofY: [Ruby] "Wha?"

Crazy56U: [Ruby] "(isn't paying attention; is staring off into space)" you'll never know how to use the Crescent Rose!" says Ruby's master. Wade.

Something: Who the fuck is Wade?

ToonGuy: You know, Wade. That guy. He did the thing, with the whatsits.

ThatUnknownPony: And taught her that technique, that does stuff.

Crazy56U: I want to make a Grand Theft Auto 5 joke here...

says. "okay" says a young Ruby. however. a Beowolf breaks trough the window.

JofY: Oh yeah!

SC276: really

Crazy56U: ...there was a door.

and is about to strike Ruby. "RUBY!" yelled Wade as he jumped in-front of Ruby Something: Since the name "Wade" has nothing to do with a color I'm going to go ahead and assume that this is an author self-insert.

ThatUnknownPony: Or in the worst case scenario, "Wade" is actually Weiss.

Crazy56U: Or, in the even worse case scenario, "Wade" is actually both.

. and. in the process. getting slashed by the Beowolf's claw.

SC276: As well as several extra periods.

Crazy56U: [Wade] "... ..well, that was rude."

"MASTER!" yells Ruby, who turns to the Beowulf and shoots it, making half it's face explode into red petals. she then runs to Wade.

SC276: Boy, the fucker went down quickly for a mentor-killer.

ThatUnknownPony: Things always happen quickly in these fanfics. You should've already gotten used to it.

"Ruby..." says Wade in a weak voice as lots of blood runs from his slash on his chest. "you need to continue without me" says Wade as his voice gets quieter and soon closes his eyes and stops breathing.

SC276: Worst last words ever.

ToonGuy: Oh no.....poor Wade!Whoever the fuck he is.

Mononeko: R.I.P. Bland Underdeveloped Character. We will not miss you.

"Master?..." says Ruby. she soon realizes what's happening. "MASTER!" says Ruby. waiting for Wade to respond. nothing.

```
"MAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAASSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSSTTTTTTTTTTTTTT
TTTTTTTTTTTTTTTTTTTTTEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEEERRRRRRRRRRRR!"|
```

JofY: [Wade] "...Yeah?"

Mononeko: KHAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAN!

ThatUnknownPony: SNAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAAKE!

Crazy56U: [Wade] "Shut up, let me die in peace!"

Ruby starts to cry remembering that horrible day.

JofY: Random character death sucks.

Crazy56U: So, she's flashing back to... what we just read?

ever since then she trained herself how to use the Crescent Rose.

Something: You're completely forgetting the existence of Uncle Qrow, badfic.

ThatUnknownPony: That's assuming the author watched beyond the trailers.

killing every Beowulf she comes across in his name.

Something: So, the author turned the normally bright and fun (and team-based)

RWBY into a solo revenge series... I'm going to tap out for the night before I find out what this author thinks Nora should be like.

SC276: I don't think the author's even aware Nora exists- hey stop skipping out on me!

soon a explosion occurs in the snow forest.

JofY: Yes, 'a explosion' happens, in the FUTURE!

Ruby starts to run to the scene.

Back in Equestria.

SC276: Because horizontal line rules or any other section separator are for chumps.

Applejack is bucking apples and stops and sees her friend Twilight Sparkle walking to her. "hey Twi. what brings you here?" "can i borrow Winona?" asked Twilight.

JofY: Because fuck Background Pony.

ThatUnknownPony: glares at JofY with deadly intentions Call her Background Pony once more...

"why do yah want Winona?" (oh no, what do i do. i can't tell her i using her for testing on a spell.

JofY: ...Did you think she wouldn't ask?

SC276: Why the fuck would Twilight use her friend's pet as a guinea pig? Instead of some random frogs lying around?

ToonGuy: Because she likes to see the look on their faces when it all goes wrong.

This is actually Pages of Harmony Twilight, just filtered down a bit.

ThatUnknownPony: What's with fanfics and turning Twilight into a mad scientist?

but i can't lie. i guess i will have to do it the HARD way..)

ToonGuy:No....you really don't have to.

Mononeko: [Twilight] pulls out a gun Gimme that fucking dog, BITCH!

thought Twilight. she turned around and bucked AJ in the face. knocking her out.

JofY: falls out window

ToonGuy: Well that escalated fast.

Mononeko: Twilight Sparkle! The most intelligent and reasonable of ponies!

ThatUnknownPony: And just like that, I hate this version of Twilight, I hate this fanfic, and I hate the author.

SC276: Considering she's morally off enough to considering using her friend's pet - and one that probably does some farm function like herding - as a test subject, this is actually completely expected.

then she takes Winona and flees.

SC276: Then Big Mac came chasing after her and knocked her the fuck out. THE END!

back at the tree house. Twilight is performing the spell.

JofY: And is hoping that her clone isn't ruining any friendships.

"Okay Winona. stay still" she said as she aimed her horn at the dog. and fired. but nothing happened.

JofY: [Twilight] "Huh... Ah well, nothing lost."

ThatUnknownPony: [Twilight] "I wonder if Pinkie will ever miss her alligator..."

a explosion then happens in the Everfree Forest. Twilight rushes to the scene.

ToonGuy: ToonGuy then rushes to the bathroom to be sick.

ThatUnknownPony: ThatUnknownPony meanwhile flips the bird to this story.

SC276: Explosions everywhere. Who wrote this, Michael Bay?

Mononeko: Well, either that or the Demoman. But it's probably the first.

Meanwhile

Ruby was running to the scene. but is stopped when she comes across a group of Beowolves. "get out of my way!" yelled Ruby as she decapitates them and runs to the scene.

ToonGuy: Just like that? Wow, you'd think they'd put up more of a fight.

JofY: Wow, they held the tension for an entire second.

she then finds a horde of Beowolves...No. these wolves are made of wood.

JofY: Unlike Beowolves which are made out of beo.

SC276: (applies hand to face and rubs temples thoroughly) I do not need this, I do not fucking need this...

ThatUnknownPony: So... not even a reason for why she's suddenly in Equestria. Ok then...

Mononeko: Dear god are you kidding me right now?

"What?" Ruby asks herself. however. a timberwolf spots her and the horde charge towards her.

"Fuck" Ruby says in a quiet voice.

ToonGuy: "Damn it!" says ToonGuy in a pissed off voice!

ThatUnknownPony: "Screw this!" says ThatUnknownPony as he tries to leave, to no avail.

Mononeko: "Jesus Fuck..." Mononeko groaned as he put his hands in front of his face.

and puts the "Cross Shot" in her Crescent Rose and charges towards the horde. but disappears in a flash. but not in front of the wolves. or anywhere. she vanished without a trace.

SC276: ...Aaaaaaaand this just stopped making any sense at all.

eanwhile in the Everfree Forest.

ToonGuy: The Legion of Doom were out house-hunting for a new secret lair.

Mononeko: An M has gone missing!

Twilight is in the Everfree Forest. using her horn as a light source.

SC276: Because the smartest unicorn in Equestria is stupid enough to run into the Everfree without help.

Mononeko: Granted, this is the same Twilight that bucked her best friend in the face and kidnapped her dog.

ThatUnknownPony: Are you sure this is still Twilight and not just a changeling pretending to be her?

she then spots a group of Timberwolv...(wait...THOSE ARE NOT TIMBERWOLVES!) thinks Twilight.

JofY: [Twilight] '(Wait, what are those parthenaise for?) I mean, it's [not like I had an interna{I thought or some}thing. I mean>, it was already in thoughts.'

these wolves are not made of wood. but black fur. red fangs. red claws. and red eyes.

JofY: It's an OC! RUN!

Mononeko: OH MY GOD THEY'RE THE PUPPIES OF DOG!

ThatUnknownPony: RARITY, YOUR PUPPIES RAN INTO TWILIGHT!

they where NOT timberwolves. one notices Twilight and Twilight runs away.

ToonGuy: Truly, Monty Oum would be proud.

SC276: No, if Monty Oum were animating this, Twilight would be kicking ass right now.

JofY: [Twilight] "Twilight you bastard! Don't you dare leave me to die!"

ThatUnknownPony: [Twilight] "You were always the inferior clone! I deserve to live more than you!"

Meanwhile in another part of the Everfree Forest...

"Sweetie Belle. use your horn!" says Applebloom. soon it reveals the CMC (Cutie Mark Crusaders) are walking trough the forest.

JofY: [Story] "Now, for my next trick..."

on a mission to get their "CUTIE MARK CRUSADERS FOREST EXPLOERS!" cutie mark.

SC276: Yeah, just what this fic needed. Idiots.

Mononeko: glares at SC

ThatUnknownPony: To be fair, they were portrayed as idiots in the comics. Not that they're canon anyways.

they hear the sound of a branch break. they look into a bush.

"what is that...thing?" says Scootaloo.

"i don't know. but i think it's waking up!" she says in horror as the "thing" wakes up and sees them.

ToonGuy: IT'S CLOBBERIN TIME!

ThatUnknownPony: Suddenly, we're in John Carpenter's The Thing.

Meanwhile in Ponyville.

Mononeko: ADD, the fanfiction!

AJ is trotting around in Ponyville. her face has bandages and a eye patch on her left eye due to Twilight bucking her in the face.

JofY: Punished Applejack.

(why did Twi buck me in mah face. she's my FRIEND for sakes) thinks Applejack.

SC276: My thoughts exactly!

ToonGuy: Don't worry, Applejack, you'll get a satisfactory an- Pfft! Sorry, couldn't help myself, no, you really won't.

ThatUnknownPony: Like I said, a changeling.

but soon sees Twilight run pass her. her face expressing horror.

JofY: Cut! Damn it, Twilight B! You're supposed to be expressing lust and happy depression!

covered in tree sap and cuts from branches.

Mononeko: Was she trying to get her cutie mark in pony ziplining?

"Twi! wait!" AJ yells to Twilight. "why is she running?" says Applejack. but soon hears a roar as a Beowolf emerges from the forest and attacks a nearby resident (Lyra) and starts cutting her to pieces. soon the Beowolf kills Lyra JofY: Oh no! Not an expendable character!

SC276: Why Lyra specifically again?

ThatUnknownPony: Because that way he doesn't have to make "human obsessed" Lyra jokes when Ruby arrives?

ToonGuy: Maybe the authors in this shuffle just really hate the color green.

Mononeko: Or maybe this is a subliminal message about the author's view on gay marriage and the LGBT community in general, since Lyra and Bonbon are pretty much the only confirmed gay couple. Maybe he's telling us that he disapproves gay marriage and sees those people as lesser beings in our society. Or maybe I'm just looking too deep into this and the fic is just a load of shit.

and notices Applejack and charges at her. she then runs away in horror. back to Ruby.

Mononeko: Wait, what? Is she in Equestria already? WHAT THE HELL IS HAPPENING?

ThatUnknownPony: A clusterfuck. That's what happening.

"so your trying to get your cutie marks at exploring dangerous forest huh?" asks Ruby. "Yeah. and we found you" says Scootaloo.

SC276: After that crap Thomas fic, I no longer immediately question characters in a crossover immediately knowing each other's rules.

Mononeko: But I still do. What the hell?

soon. the smell of smoke hits Ruby and the CMC's noses.

JofY: The village barbeque got really out of hand.

they rush to Ponyville to find it in chaos. fire everywhere.

JofY: Like, everywhere. Even the fire is on fire.

Mononeko: Boy, the ponies took that Bloodhound Gang song very serious...

Lyra and Rainbow Dash's dead bodies are seen on the ground. "Rainbow Dash!" Scootaloo yells as she runs to Dash's body.

JofY: Rainbow Dash! No! Who could have seen that coming!?

SC276: Even outside Classics Month, she doesn't get out unscathed!

ThatUnknownPony: This isn't even a grimdark fanfic! Why kill Rainbow Dash?!

ToonGuy: She was only two days away from retirement.

Mononeko: LGBT theory confirmed!

Ruby sees The Mane Six

SC276: Minus Rainbow Dash.

and other residents surrounded in the middle of town cornered by Beowolves. Ruby takes her Crescent Rose out. "Hey Beowolves!" yells Ruby at the top of her lungs getting both the ponies and Beowolves attention. when the wolves see her. they charge. Ruby jumps and shoots one of the wolves. killing it. then the Crescent Rose turns from "Gun" mode to "Scythe" mode. and starts slashing the wolves. then.

JofY: Later.

Mononeko: So many periods, did William Shatner write this?

there where only ten.

SC276: Agatha Christie, save us from this monstrosity!

ThatUnknownPony: It could be a true mystery for her to find how to fix this mess.

she put in her "Cross Shot" and ran at the speed of light. killing wolves as she ran. it took only 10 seconds flat (yeah yeah. Rainbow Dash thing)

Mononeko: Fuck you.

JofY: Gee, it's almost like it's stupid and overdone. Also, it took her ten seconds at the speed of fucking light?

ToonGuy: Wow, even the author stopped caring. I mean, if they even started at all, I mean.

to kill them. just then. Ruby disappeared. later. Ruby awoke to find she was next to Wade's grave. she has returned home.

JofY: So, great crossover guys! Really found interesting ways to merge the themes and ideas of both series.

SC276: I don't think I have words for the sheer completely unnecessary of this story.

ThatUnknownPony: This was just... how... How could a rational human being write this... I just answered my own question, didn't I?

ToonGuy: [Ruby] "Huh. My therapist is going to have a field day with this."

Meanwhile in Ponyville.

"So Twi. why did you buck me in the face? asked Applejack. "i was testing a spell that teleports animals. if you knew. you wouldn't allow me.

JofY: [Applejack] "So why didn't you get one from the pet store? Or ask Fluttershy."
SC276: [Applejack] "Or just some random frog by the pond that nopony cares about."

i had no choice. and now because of me. Rainbow Dash is dead...." said Twilight. who was now crying because of the fastest pony in Equestria's death.

JofY: Lyra doesn't matter.
ThatUnknownPony: And somehow the spell she tried on Winona is to blame because...

it was truly the worst day ever...

Author's Note:

so that was it. i was bored so i made this.

JofY: Well, it does seem like something someone would write when they don't care.
SC276: How bored do you have to be to produce something so terrible?
Mononeko: It's like he wrote it as a revenge fic against Rainbow Dash. ...are you Mykan?

hope you like! :D

ToonGuy: We didn't.
Mononeko: Fuck off.

plus i do not own My Little Pony or RWBY.

ThatUnknownPony: Nor have you watched the latter.
JofY: NAW!

Well. bye

Mononeko: Take it away, Gollum.

-Ryan

Everything was returning normal since the Great Beowolf Attack. a funeral was held for Rainbow Dash and Lyra Heartstrings. the town was rebuilt and more.

JofY: This one has kung-fu grip.

Pinkie Pie was never the same.

JofY: After all, she now exists in this story.
ToonGuy: She was disappointed she hadn't gotten to kill Rainbow Dash herself.
Mononeko: The mare of her dreams had been killed.
ThatUnknownPony: Wasn't Fluttershy the mare of her dreams?

every time she remember 'Dashie'. she cry's a river of tears. AJ has recovered from Twilight's buck to the face as well as Winona returning to the farm. everything was returning to normal.

SC276: So, the whole Winona thing was ding! completely pointless.

ToonGuy: In fact, let's just say that the entire story is ding completely pointless and save the hassle.

Meanwhile in the Everfree Forest...

We see a Beowolf staring into the legendary Mirror Pool.

Crazy56U: Uh oh, the End Times.

ThatUnknownPony: Oh, for fuck sakes!

grunting as more and more Beowolves came out of the pool. soon there where thousands. one then spots Ponyville and runs off with the others
The End?.....

Crazy56U: Uh oh, the actual End Times.

SC276: Right, because crap made from boredom is going to produce a sequel.

Credits Start

[made by: Ryan Daugherty]

[RWBY by: RoosterTeeth]

[MLP by: Hasbro and Lauren Faust]

[Songs: Red Like Roses (Ruby's theme) and "Take Us Back"]

Crazy56U: [Edited by: %%NAME_NOT_FOUND&&]

SC276: Take us back to before we read this, please...

Crazy56U: Sorry, I don't think anyone submitted a Back to the Future crossover fic for this...

ThatUnknownPony: I don't know if I should be happy or depressed because of that.

Song Stops

[Thanks for reading! :D -Ryan]

Author's Note:

CLIFFHANGER! you know what that means! SEQUEL! RWRITY 2: ATTACK OF THE BEOWOLVES!

Crazy56U: Fuck you

ToonGuy: Nope.

Mononeko: So much nope.

ThatUnknownPony: Can you please no?!

July 10th. 2013!

SC276: If this exists, we better not riff it, or I will legitimately murder someone.

ToonGuy: Don't worry, it hasn't appeared yet.

ThatUnknownPony: Oh thank goodness. At least God hasn't forgotten about us yet.

Crazy56U: So, the same day "The Inhuman Torch" premiered, good to know.

Thanks guys for 35 views for "RWRITY" (even if i have one like and 3 dislikes i don't care).

JofY: Wow, this writer is really aloof.

Crazy56U: Uh, Author, the ratings are trying to tell you something. Take the hint.

ThatUnknownPony: Wow, talk about obliviousness.

CaptainPipsqueak: The kind of guy you'd like to corner and just start punching until you got bored. He'd likely die at some point, but you probably wouldn't be bored enough to stop yet.

thanks. for my other story "The Trotting Dead" only has 30. this makes "RWRITY" my most viewed story here on FimFiction.

Crazy56U: Fuck you.

CaptainPipsqueak: With a fork.

Mononeko: cracks up

ThatUnknownPony: Even my most amateur story has more views than that!

SC276: Your game is weak.

so i have a announcement to make. a upcoming sequel called "RIWNBOW DWSH"

Crazy56U: Fuck you.

CaptainPipsqueak: With a rolling pin.

ToonGuy: Okay, author? Give up. I don't usually say that to a writer, but just....stop.

is going to be released in the next 3 weeks! thanks for the views! and see you in the next 3 weeks with "RIWNBOW DWSH".

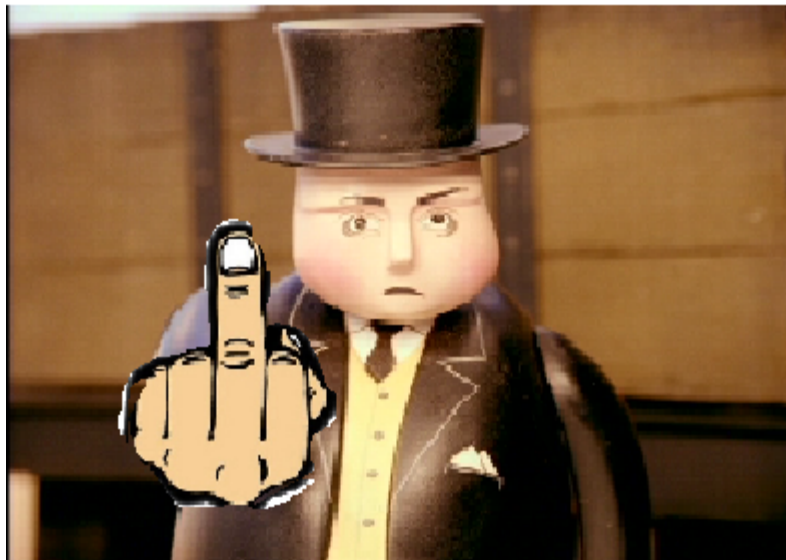

also a PREVIEW for another crossover.

Crazy56U: Fuck you.

CaptainPipsqueak: With a coffee grinder.

JofY: END! END!!!

SC276: OH MY GOD YOU FUCKING WHORE!!

Mononeko:

Crazy56U: (eyes begin to bleed)

"Hello. Pinkie. and welcome to Hoofpture.

Crazy56U: (dead-eyed glare)

ThatUnknownPony: slowly contemplates jumping from a window.

be ready to test..."

Mononeko: Goddammit, I will hunt you down for this...

Crazy56U: [Pinkie Pie] "FUCK YOUR TEST, I REFUSE TO GO BACK TO SCHOOL!"

[Title "My Little Portal: Cake Is Tasty"]

["5.5.13"]

SC276: Does this guy do a lot of crossovers? Actually, I don't care.

Crazy56U: No thank you, I think I will be doing better things with my time on that day, like watching TV.

because alot of you ask questions.

Q: You did not capitalize the beginnings of your sentences a lot.

A: I was bored and tired so sorry

Crazy56U: "Also fuck you."

SC276: Being bored is no reason to skirt typesmanship!

ToonGuy: Well at least he's honest.

ThatUnknownPony: So bored and tired to even use a good word processor to check your grammar. Author, you suck.

Q: Why did you make this?

Mononeko: A: Because I wanted to see people suffer.

Crazy56U: A: (fart noise of derision)

ThatUnknownPony: A: Because... potatoes.

CaptainPipsqueak: A) Because Mummy told me I was a really good writer and that I should follow my dreams, no matter how empty they were.

A: when i watched RWBY "Red" trailer. it was awesome. so i decided to mix these two together.

Crazy56U: Or you could have waited. ...until RWBY actually came out...

Author's Note:

REALLY SHORT! keep those questions flowing in the comments for more Q&As!

SC276: Here's a question for you: "WHY"

Crazy56U: I think you know by now my answer to that...

CaptainPipsqueak: How about "Would you please die?"

SC276: And now we come to the stuff even I don't recognize. Probably because it's live action. I'm not good with live action.

Ringmaster: This time, we have a goddamn self-insert Stu fic about fucking Knight Rider. As in, that old 80's show with David Hasselhoff and the talking car? Yeah.

CaptainPipsqueak: Also known as "The Adventures of the Guy Who Drove A Car That Was Smarter Than Him."

ThatUnknownPony: Oh for the love of... I know of the original and even the less than stellar reboot, but really?! A crossover with a self-insert?

SC276: We're definitely in for a treat, I see.

Ringmaster: Without further ado, "The Knight Rider Of Equestria" by ferrari84italia.

Crazy56U: By the way, I submitted this. You can thank me later.

SC276: Given your track record for submitted fics, this is going to suck.

Crazy56U: I said thank me later.

Mononeko: There are so many references I can make here, but they're all really obscure.

The Knight Rider of Equestria
My name, heh,

Crazy56U: T-that's not a joke...

ThatUnknownPony: Unless he is the self-insert, then he is a joke by definition.

ToonGuy: Okay, Mr Heh, nice to meet you!

CaptainPipsqueak: Do you mind if we call you 'H'?

Mononeko: Not as bad as Trust Spirit Harbinger.

Crazy56U: Excuse you, his name is Dog.

CaptainPipsqueak: Or Nobody, Princess of...something.

my name is Michael Knight and yes before you say anything,

Crazy56U: "I am David Hasselhoff, and no, I haven't seen Baywatch, stop asking."

I am related to the same Michael Knight who drove a T-top Trans Am in the 80s

Crazy56U: Fuck, that broke my joke...

ToonGuy: So this is that shitty 2008 reboot of the show? Good to know!

ThatUnknownPony: Took the words out of my mouth.

SC276: "Trans Am" sounds like a brand of radio...

CaptainPipsqueak: "Welcome to Tranny AM, the radio station for people who are tired of their gender!"

and a Shelby GT500KR Mustang in the mid-2000s. They are my Grandfather and Father respectively

Crazy56U: As opposed to being your pet goldfish and your pet turtle respectively.

SC276: ...your dad is a car?

Crazy56U: No, his dad is Michael Knight, while his dad's father is Michael Knight, meaning Michael Knight's grandfather is Michael Knight. Michael Knight is related to Michael Knight and Michael Knight and is deciding to continue the legacy of being Michael Knight by being Michael Knight just like Michael Knight before him and Michael Knight before him... ...yeah.

CaptainPipsqueak: Michael Knight cubed. Fuck it, I'm calling him 'Cubey'.

ThatUnknownPony: So... this is the son of the protagonist of the reboot... I think?
Wh... explodes trying to comprehend the logic of that but I have one difference that neither them nor anyone else on Planet Earth has.

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "I can act..."

JofY: "I'm Jewish!"

SC276: "I'm a Gary Stu!"

Mononeko: "I'm a Jewish Gary Stu!"

ToonGuy: "I am in a terrible crossover with My Little Pony! My life is hell!"

CaptainPipsqueak: [Cubey] "I'm secretly female!"

You see when I was three years old, I went with my parents on a search of some ruins,

JofY: It was 'bring your child to an incredibly dangerous place day'.

SC276: Did they used to work for Aperture Science?

Crazy56U: Ah, yes, I remember that episode of Knight Rider that had them Indiana Jones-ing all over the damn place...

CaptainPipsqueak: They brought him as a sacrifice to the Great Wolf God so they could get his treasure.

and as luck found it that where I accidentally opened a secret room in those ruins

JofY: Quite amazing that you didn't fall off a rock and break your skull then.

Mononeko: Are you sure this isn't an Indiana Jones crossover?

Crazy56U: Or, worse case scenario, Uncharted.

JofY: Worse case scenario in which way?

ThatUnknownPony: In the case of "Good material being butchered merciless."

CaptainPipsqueak: You haven't answered his question.

and somehow (none of us can explain it to this day 22 year later)

Crazy56U: Well, to be fair, at this rate, we'd all probably be dead by 2038...

ThatUnknownPony: Or you know, by the end of this year if someone gets elected.

I was bestowed the powers of what I call is the Windragon.

Crazy56U: We interrupt Knight Rider to bring you Anime.

ToonGuy: ...An interesting start to a Knight Rider story, I must admit. I did not see this going the way it did.

ThatUnknownPony: Are we still crossing with Knight Rider or is it now Kamen Rider?

SC276: (Googles) ...I actually have some doubts that this has anything to do with Legendz.

I can grow wings and use the wind around me for attacks.

Crazy56U: So, in other words, you became an angel.

ThatUnknownPony: Or a demon because EDGY.

ToonGuy: So really, you don't need the car at all.

JofY: So, what's the point of this being Knight Rider?

SC276: The same point of the Thomas fic having ponies.

Mononeko: Or that RWBY...thing.

CaptainPipsqueak: So in other words, your story has fuck-all to do with the source material. Gotcha.

It's totally awesome and has come in handy so many times but enough about my family history, Crazy56U: Because it only gets worse from there.

CaptainPipsqueak: [Cubey] "I just wanted to point out my special snowflake powers."

this story is about me,

JofY: 'Enough about me, let's talk about me.'

Crazy56U: "And my sweet ass car."

CaptainPipsqueak: Ten dollars and a pizza says Cubey can transform into a car, too.

or about me and my car

SC276: -of indescribable make and model-

Crazy56U: Okay, to be fair, my joke was a given.

when the two of us stumbled into a mysterious and completely random incident that would change our lives.

Crazy56U: "This is the story about how I got banned from Detroit."

CaptainPipsqueak: [Cubey]" I kept telling them that it was my car, not me but they didn't believe me."

(Before I go on, if you don't know about the Michael Knights, we all drive a car called KITT which has AI and a bunch of really cool gadgets that I won't get into detail about).

Crazy56U: Why do I have a sinking suspicion that the Author never actually saw Knight Rider?

ToonGuy: Poor KITT. To be dismissed like that must be painful.

ThatUnknownPony: Could be worse: It could be turned into scrap and discarded unceremoniously.

JofY: Also, until the story proves otherwise, let's just assume that there are hundreds of 'Michael Knights' that all have to fit into one car like clowns.

SC276: pffft (chuckles)

Mononeko: Mental image want.

Now before I tell you the story, I need to tell you that, yes, I am a brony

Crazy56U: (pinches bridge of nose)

JofY: gasps

ThatUnknownPony: groans

SC276: OK so we're going there now.

CaptainPipsqueak: Oh darling, we never left.

Mononeko: Aaaand there goes my sanity.

ToonGuy: GOODBYE LOGIC!

and like a loyal brony, I watched every episode of MLP to this day, Mononeko: Bullshit. I consider myself a loyal brony and it's easier to name an episode I haven't seen yet.

Crazy56U: I have yet to get caught up on the show through Netflix.

or so I think, I've been without TV for 3 years that I don't know if it went to a fourth season or not.

Crazy56U: (chuckles) Oh, you missed the fuck out, buddy...

ThatUnknownPony: He better don't know about Seasons 5 & 6.

Mononeko: Hey, not all of those seasons are crap. Those are the seasons that gave us Crusaders of the Lost Mark, Gauntlet of Fire, The Cutie Map...

ThatUnknownPony: I wasn't implying those seasons are bad, just pointing out all that he's missing.

Mononeko: isn't paying attention ...Slice of Life, The Crystalling (debatable)...

CaptainPipsqueak: But The Cutie Remark, now that was brilliance. They should get an award for that one.

SO, now to continue to the story about a man and his car, and how one brief moment would change the lives of both of them.

JofY: This is the story, of Herbie the Lovebug.

ThatUnknownPony: This is the story of why you don't drive drunk and stoned out of your mind... while getting head.

Crazy56U: "This is the story of how I rear-ended a cop."

Mononeko: ...The Saddle Row Review, Amending Fences...

CaptainPipsqueak: [Cubey] "I proposed marriage to KITT. Now, he hasn't said no, yet, so..."

The day began like any other day. Waking up to Sonic Youth by Crush 40

Crazy56U: Because the Author actually wanted to do a Sonic crossover, but the universe said "No".

ToonGuy: The universe can be merciful on certain, rare moments. That was one of them. We should all be grateful.

ThatUnknownPony: Between a Sonic crossover and this... fuck it, I take this instead.

Mononeko: ...and Tanks for the Memories. All amazing episodes!

and having my phone going off thirty times with comments for my Spitfire page that I admin.

SC276: You sure you saw up to the third season, and not the negative-second?

Crazy56U: Or he probably just runs a website about airplanes...

CaptainPipsqueak: ...neglecting to mention that the comments are variants of 'For fuck's sake, stop it'...

Yep, things were just "great" after the government decided to shut down funding for Knight Industries and FLAG, JofY: So... Why did the government decide to shut you down? Is there something illegal that your company was doing? Did you not pay your taxes?

ThatUnknownPony: Because fuck it, we need to get rid of everything related to Knight Rider and put MLP over it!

CaptainPipsqueak: There was a valid reason, you just blinked and missed it. I'm not bringing you up to speed, either. Nope. Fuck it, you missed it.

Crazy56U: Basically out of spite.

of which I worked for. The only good thing that came out of that was that I still had enough cash to live on, and I kept the car.

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "I mean, yeah I barely have enough to feed myself and I'm being evicted today, but it all pretty much breaks even..."

SC276: To be fair, if you have to live out of your car, it might as well be sentient.

So following my usual schedule I walked into the kitchen and looked on my calendar.

JofY: It was Employee Appreciation Day!

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Aw, shit, today's Tax Day?!"

ThatUnknownPony: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Fuck, it's Saturday! I'm gonna miss the new episode!"

It was my birthday that day.

Mononeko: Of course...

Crazy56U: As opposed to it being your birthday yesterday.

So in "celebration" I decided to go down to a bakery in midtown Sacramento and buy myself a cake.

SC276: Hey, take your celebrations where you can get them.

ThatUnknownPony: Couldn't it be easier to drive to your closed alley and buy some brownies instead?

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Then I will swing by the liquor store so I can buy enough beer to drink myself to sleep tonight."

Mononeko: Also, why the fuck would you live in Sacramento of all places?

CaptainPipsqueak: He doesn't. He just went to Sacramento. Cubey has his meals in different cities. It's his little 'thing'.

Crazy56U: Tax cuts?

I live near the Sacramento International Airport so the drive was a pretty long one to get to midtown. So I walked outside to get into my car and felt something amiss in the breeze.

JofY: A bad fart joke.

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Is the sky on fire?"

Over the years I'd gotten adapt at reading the wind to sort of tell me that I was going to have a good or bad day, Crazy56U: So, in other words, you are also the fuckhead from Twister. Bill, I think...

SC276: That or a bird...

Mononeko: Or a pegasus...

but that day, I couldn't read it. It was a jumbled mess of chaos, classic signs of Discord if he existed.

JofY: And who wants to bet against this being an attempt at foreshadowing?

SC276: Yes, because Discord is always heralded by unreadable winds, and not raining chocolate milk.

Crazy56U: Or you could be about five seconds away from a seizure...

ThatUnknownPony: Or it could be about to start a tornado nearby.

CaptainPipsqueak: pinches bridge of nose Oh Christ, I do not have time for this...

So I ignored it and drove to that bakery, bought myself that cake and breakfast and drove home and what happened on that drive I'll never be able to explain.

Crazy56U: Long story short, he caused a dear to commit suicide.

SC276: You couldn't even explain how you became an Airbender, dude. I do not have faith in your explaining abilities.

The freeway was empty, not exaggerating,

Crazy56U: Plot Twist: Michael Jr. Jr. slept through the apocalypse.

ThatUnknownPony: So, triple crossover with The Walking Dead?

there were no other cars except me and KITT, so I did my usual and ignored the speed limit.

JofY: So, even when it's filled to the brim with cars, you just drive over them, ignoring the speed limit?

SC276: And then he remembered he doesn't have a job to bail his ass out...

Crazy56U: [KITT] "MICHAEL, WHY are YOU DRIVING at a near-crawl?"

CaptainPipsqueak: [KITT] "MY MIND IS GOING. I CAN FEEL IT. I'M AFRAID. I'M A... FRAID..."

Then it happened.

JofY: The urge to pee.

SC276: And then there was trouble.

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "... (waves hand in front of face)KITT, I'm blind again."

ThatUnknownPony: [KITT] "MICHAEL, THIS IS WHY I WARN YOU ABOUT DRINKING AND DRIVING. I'M NOT GOING TO BE ALWAYS TAKING YOU HOME."

CaptainPipsqueak: [KITT] "AND I SWEAR TO GOD, THAT IF YOU THROW UP ON MY STEERING WHEEL AGAIN..."

Right in front of me a portal opened up and since I was going close to 150 mph, JofY: DAMN! Dude! How do you even turn with that kind of speed?

Mononeko: Magic.

Crazy56U: Suddenly, Bootleg Back to the Future.

ToonGuy: Oh terrific, Michael broke the universe! All right everyone! Clean up time!

I couldn't avoid it and drove straight into it.

SC276: And that's the ending of my first solo pony riff. What is with these authors and ripping me off...?!

Mononeko: OH GET THE HELL OUT!

ThatUnknownPony: And then he was teleported into a black hole and died in the depths of space. THE END!

Crazy56U: (CinemaSins voice) Michael Jr. Jr. took the Driver's Ed course at the Prometheus School of Running Away From Things. (ding!)

What happened next I'll never forget it.

JofY: It was... Um... Er... Something... Yeah... That.

Crazy56U: He died.

I screeched to a halt in a castle leaving tire marks on the floor that was so clean that you could eat off it,

Crazy56U: I thought Mythbusters busted that metaphor... ...or am I thinking of the "five second rule" episode.....

CaptainPipsqueak: No, that applies to dogs: If it's on the floor for five seconds...

ThatUnknownPony: I don't think you could eat off a floor with tire marks. Unless you like your food to taste like rubber.

until I arrived. I immediately got out, turned around and there sitting on the throne was Princess Celestia in all her glory, eyes wide open and mouth agape at the sight of my, one arriving unannounced and two, leaving tires marks on her floor.

JofY: And three, he just ran over like, 5 ponies.

Mononeko: But they were all royal guards, so nobody really gave a shit.

SC276: And four, driving a thing she's never seen before.

Crazy56U: And five, causing a shitty crossover.

I was the first to speak.

"Umm, where the heck am I?

Crazy56U: Well, Michael Jr. Jr. (which is both my dumbest and best renaming ever), there's one of two places you can be right now: Equestria, or BronyCon.

ThatUnknownPony: I don't see any fursuits, so I'm begrudgingly going for the former.

CaptainPipsqueak: Don't even get me started with the furies. If you want something ruined, bring it to their attention.

I don't think I'm on earth anymore

CaptainPipsqueak:

Crazy56U: Okay, now this is a Wizard of Oz crossover...

Mononeko: Auntie Em, Auntie Em! It's a terrible fanfic! It's a terrible fanfic!

SC276: I'll get you, my Stu-ie, and your little car too!

considering the fact that there is a horse that looks like Princess Celestia sitting there on a throne.
"That's because I am Princess Celestia,

JofY: Suddenly, mind reading.

SC276: And not answering the actual question.

ThatUnknownPony: And just pointing the obvious.

Crazy56U: (picks up a quotation mark from the floor) And missing one of these.

now who are you? What are you? And what is that thing that you just got out of?"

JofY: One, we don't know. Two, you should know. And three, please don't tell me this is gonna be one of those stories where characters are confused by different technology...

SC276: [Celestia] "What's going on? Where am I? Who are you people?"

ThatUnknownPony: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Well, you see... I might have probably crashed into you, and now you have amnesia."

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Well, in short order: A person, a person, and a person-transport device."

CaptainPipsqueak: [KITT] "JUST SO IT'S TOTALLY CLEAR: I HAVE NO INVOLVEMENT IN THIS; I JUST DRIVE HIM PLACES."

says the Princess still in complete shock, pointing at my car.

"This? This is my car, KITT. I am a human from earth and you can't be Celestia that's just not possible."

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "I have thumbs, therefore you are a myth."

[KITT] "CONFIRMED."

[Michael Jr. Jr.] "Shut up."

"Well, it is and I am Celestia. Why would that not be possible?"

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Just let me be in denial, damnit!"

ThatUnknownPony: For starters, because it makes no sense.

CaptainPipsqueak: [Celestia] "Some bitch wanna find themselves on the moon?"
[KITT] "NO INVOLVEMENT WHATSOEVER, I SWEAR TO GOD.

"Because you are a..." I stop myself in midsentence and realize what has just happened. Apparently that portal that I couldn't avoid was a portal leading me into Equestria, and I was in fact standing in front of Celestia with my car having left long tire marks on her floor.

Mononeko: Well, thanks for stating what we already know.

SC276: Why do you keep focusing on those stupid tire marks?

ToonGuy: Because she's going to murder him for destroying her nice clear floor.

Crazy56U: Because the tire marks are the only interesting thing in this fic.

"Never mind, that's not important now, the real importance to me is where Luna, your sister, is, shouldn't she be with you."

JofY: [Celestia] "She's sleeping. And that was a terrible Shatter impression."

SC276: Why is that your first question.

ThatUnknownPony: Because that way he can introduce some kind of bullshit plot twist like "She's still on the moon."

Crazy56U: [Princess Luna] "(yelling from offscreen) LET ME CRAP IN PEACE!"

Apparently she seemed a little upset at this remark and I soon found out why. "One I don't know how you know Luna, or you knew my name, but Luna has been locked on the moon for nearly a thousand years for trying to bring eternal darkness to Equestria."

JofY: [Celestia] "LET ME JUST LOUDLY CONFIRM A FACT THAT EVEN MY PRISED PUPIL WAS UNSURE OF!"

Mononeko: Oh my lord, are we doing this?

ThatUnknownPony: Yup, there's the stupid twist. CALLED IT!

Mononeko: ...huh, usually I'm the one who predicts those things. shrugs

SC276: He arrived before the show. I fucking skipped a Lilo & Stitch fic that did this shit the moment I realized the author was retelling the first episode just with his character inserted and not actually doing anything.

Crazy56U: (pulls out a tape recorder) I really hate the fact that I'm doing this. (hits "Play")

Tape Recorder: (to a conga beat) Let's re-do the pi-lot! Let's re-do the pi-lot! Let's re-do the pi-lot!

"Oh, I'm sorry" I tell her and then look down and say so quietly that only I could hear. "Great of all the times I could have arrived. I decide to arrive at the time when Luna is about to break free of the moon as Nightmare Moon."

JofY: Yes, shame that you arrived before Nightmare Moon escaped from the moon. It really must suck since you don't know if Twilight will still make friends. Out off all the times to arrive, it had to be at the start of the show... Do you get it audience?

ThatUnknownPony: Can you please hammer it harder? Since this author loves to state the obvious, why shouldn't we?

SC276: How the fuck do you know Nightmare Moon's breakout time relative to your arrival? You haven't even seen the night sky yet! Also you didn't "decide" shit yet!

Crazy56U: Calm down, he's clearly guessing that this is the case.

Celestia had regained her composure and looked sternly at me. "Now why are you here and what is that thing that you called a car?"

"To put it bluntly, I don't know why I am here. I was just driving home, a little too fast some might say, and a portal appeared in front of me and here I am arriving in your castle"

SC276: That'll teach you to go over 88 miles per hour.

ToonGuy: That'll teach you to break the laws of science.

ThatUnknownPony: That'll teach you to drive while drunk and stoned out of your mind.

Crazy56U: That'll teach you to be Michael Jr. Jr..

I turn to where I entered and see the tire marks I made. "Umm, I'll clean those up."

JofY: With what? Your tongue?

Mononeko: Actually, yes.

Crazy56U: No, with his anime bullshit from earlier.

She doesn't show any emotion,

Mononeko: For I realized only now that I was talking to a figurine.

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "God, I want to hit you." so I'm not sure if she is thinking about how I'm here or how to get rid of me.

SC276: I know which one I'm thinking of.

ThatUnknownPony: [Celestia] "I wonder if anyone could notice if I suddenly blasted this creature out of existence?"

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "(thinking) I want cake..."

"A portal randomly appearing in front of you, sounds like Twilight might be up to something."

JofY: [Celestia] "Damn ingrate."

SC276: Because it's a fucking crossover, of course Twilight's responsible.

ThatUnknownPony: Because she's the only pony who has tempered with portals. It's not like Celestia had another student who also happened to know about portals. And no, I'm not asking for Shimmer to get involved.

Crazy56U: Or maybe that Thomas the Tank Engine fic is sort-of canon to this. Maybe in this universe, Twilight has a habit of causing shitty crossovers by accident...

She turns to one of the guards of whom I didn't even know was there.

SC276: What was the Knight Rider guy's job again? Some sort of secret agent?
(Googles) Ah, vigilante cowboy. Even less of a reason to fail your Perception check.
Crazy56U: Plot Twist: It was a ghost.

"Go fetch me Twilight Sparkle at once."
"Yes, your majesty"

CaptainPipsqueak: Guard rushes off, barking
Crazy56U: [Guard] "(pulls out a book) Here, Twilight, Twilight, Twilight! (whistles) Here girl!"

He leaves in a hurry and returns soon with Twilight. As soon as they enter I nearly pass out because it is nearly too much for me to take.

Mononeko: Same here, but for different reasons.
SC276: How does just Twilight being there push you over acceptability limits?
ThatUnknownPony: Let me put it this way: Brony Self-insert Stu son of Michael Knight from Knight Rider is in Equestria about to meet the future Princess of Friendship... I think that's really pushing it, don't you agree?
JofY: "Oh god! Where's the bathroom!"
ToonGuy: And we discover that My Little Dashie and this story star the same character and he has clearly learned NOTHING.
Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Oh thank God she's not an alicorn anymore... God that ruined the show for me..."

I am actually living a bronies dream to be in Equestria and see these ponies.

ThatUnknownPony: And I rest my case.
SC276: It just occurred to me that it might be concerning that the car hasn't talked yet.
Mononeko: He doesn't want to be associated with this either.
Crazy56U: Shut the fuck up, Michael Jr. Jr., I hate you.

A freak of nature and I am thanking God that it happened to me on my Birthday.

JofY: What an amazing coincidence.
SC276: It's almost as if someone was trying to write a story with you as the main character.
ThatUnknownPony: And what a fucking coincidence... I also think you're a freak of nature!
Crazy56U: Part of me is hoping that the twist ending to this is that he actually crashed KITT and this is just his dying dream.

Twilight speaks a little nervous. "You wanted to see me Princess Celestia?"
"Yes, were you working or experimenting with any portal spells recently today?"
"No, I haven't been working on one. There was one in my book that I noticed and was about to try when you summoned.

JofY: Ah, insta-activate-when-read spells. The worst kind of spells.

ThatUnknownPony: Just ask Twilight about that spell in "Magical Mystery Cure". They really are troublesome.

SC276: "Guess what spell I cast before I gave this to the bird."

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "It concerned trains, I thought it would be interesting."

Why do you ask?"

JofY: [Twilight] "It's too bad I have this disability preventing me from looking to my left to see a strange and unusual things that would be from another world."

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "Side note, (points to KITT) the fuck is that?"

"Because this thing, a human he says, entered into my castle

SC276: [Celestia] "-from out of absolutely nowhere, mind-"

ThatunknownPony: [Celestia] "-Running over five of my guards, not that they matter anyways-"

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "And I want you to kick his ass."

and claims that he arrived through a portal, and you seem to be the only pony that would be working on a portal spell here." She points at me while still looking at Twilight, a little confused if you asked me.

SC276: This fic is more than a little confused.

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "Princess, are... are you drunk again?"

Twilight looks all sorts of confused, one because she can't understand what I or KITT are,

JofY: Unlike the rest of the ponies there, which could instantly tell.

Crazy56U: Actually, she does, she's just confused why this is happening at all, in a "where did I go wrong in life to deserve this" type of way.

and two how that could have even been possible for the two of us to arrive here. "I'm sorry Princess; I don't know how that could have happened." She bows in apology. "I'm sorry and I'll put this right."

JofY: Yeah, shame on you for doing something by complete and utter contrivance!

SC276: Yeah, put it right by sending him back before he can further contaminate canon.

ToonGuy: Too late for that.

ThatUnknownPony: There's no going back now. What's done is done, and Twilight will have to live with the guilt of letting the Stu in, for contrived reasons.

Crazy56U: And so Twilight pulled out a shotgun.

Now this is where I start to freak out a bit. Because I honestly have wished for this to happen to me for many years and now that it has, I don't want it to end.

Mononeko: That's where I disagree.

JofY: And why should they have to put up with you?

ThatUnknownPony: Because otherwise his life could be miserable full of sadness and pain... Ok, is this the protagonist of My Little Dashie?

SC276: It's not like they're being held in an intentionally-featureless space and forced to read terrible fanfiction.

Crazy56U: And then Twilight blasted Michael Jr. Jr.'s head off. THE END

Thankfully though, and again for reasons I don't understand, she couldn't perform the spell that apparently was the cause of my arrival.

ThatUnknownPony: And those reasons are: Fucking contrivances!

SC276: That might be because she's still yet to get into the magic of friendship to give her magic the necessary boost.

JofY: She might not have even done the spell that brought you here in the first place!

ToonGuy: And the universe now proceeds to implode on itself. Nice work, Michael.

Crazy56U: Because her horn exploded.

"I don't understand I'm doing it correctly. There should have been a portal to take him home right there, but there isn't." Twilight says, confused at the spell and is looking multiple times in the book to make sure she was doing it correctly.

SC276: The book she oh so conveniently has with her for no reason.

Crazy56U: She pulled it straight out of her ass.

Then all three of us hear a maniacal laughter, one of which that makes me wish I was dreaming.

SC276: You and me both.

Crazy56U: Uh oh, the Author finally snapped and is bleeding into their universe.

"Oh of course not you silly foal and foolish princess, I wouldn't want Mike to go back to Earth so soon.

JofY: "After all, I made dessert!"

ThatUnknownPony: "I want you to suffer with this Stu for the rest of your fucking life! MWAHAHAHAHAH!"

Crazy56U: "You aren't having this shit end this early!"

I want him here, where I can easily kill him, take his power, and overtake the throne."

SC276: And you can't kill him on Earth because why now?

ThatUnknownPony: Because otherwise he has no purpose to be in Equestria living his self-fulfillment dream.

Crazy56U: ...what?

Celestia looks around confused and angered that her position was just threatened.

JofY: The murder of an innocent being was okay.

Crazy56U: A car appearing out of nowhere, that's fine. A vague threat? Now it's on!

"Who are you?! State your business!"

The voice only laughs. "I heard that you always went straight to the point and it looks like the rumors were true.

JofY: Huh. I never knew one could laugh out actual sentences.

ToonGuy: It's a knack you pick up once you realize you're in a bad fanfic.

Crazy56U: Or Michael Jr. Jr. knows how to speak laugh-talk and is translating for us...

I'm not here for you "Tia"

Crazy56U: Hey Luna. Oh, wait, sorry: hey Nightmare Moon.

I'm here for the little boy standing next to his precious car. I'm here to kill and absorb the power of Michael Knight.

Crazy56U: It doesn't make sense! The power of Michael Knight is bullshit! Why does it always win?!

SC276: Isn't his power that he has an intelligent car? You could just steal the keys.

ThatUnknownPony: That could be Michael Knight Sr or Michael Knight Jr. Now, Michael Jr. Jr. has the power of being an angel, remember? ...how did I? I'm even perplexed at that thought.

Once I'm done with him, you will be next. I'll take your throne and rule over Equestria."

SC276: Just what we need, another Mykan villain.

Mononeko: Oh, god why...

ThatUnknownPony: Can we please have a really good written villain for once?! I'm tired from this clichéd Moron antagonists.

Crazy56U: Or you could just take a nap and realize what you are saying is stupid.

Celestia looks down at me. "Do you know who this is? Why does she know you?"

I'm still standing there in shock from seeing the ponies and now from the voice but eventually I catch my bearings and respond trying to keep the fear out of my voice. "Her name is Killbeat;

JofY: "Her parents were that bad."

Mononeko: Jesus, this really is a Mykan villain....

ThatUnknownPony: So you couldn't even get Nightmare Moon nor Discord. looks at the wall for a moment, contemplating if he should bang his head on it.

Crazy56U: Daughter of BloodGunn.

she is a bicorn about your size and is definitely powerful.

JofY: Yeah, come back when she has three horns. Then maybe we'll care about how uber-powerful she is.

Mononeko: Or we won't.

ThatUnknownPony: ...that settles it. Begins banging his head on the wall

Crazy56U: A bisexual alicorn. ...alrighty, then.

She is able to make your worst nightmares come to life and use them to torture you until she kills you but before you actually die, she steals all your power and it feels like she's stealing your soul.

JofY: "Her very presence makes others have a condition where their sentences run on and on for well past the amount of length that any average or normal sentence would normally often be, as in this case you can see how long this sentence is going without stopping and it really makes the exposition seem forced."

Crazy56U: Or, in other words, super ultra edgy Nightmare Moon bootleg.

She means what she says, I don't know if I can beat her on my own. I may need help."

SC276: (Googles) ...another fucking Legendz character. I'm not checking if the personality is right because I honestly don't care and it probably isn't anyway. This is even worse than the Gravity Falls crossover and its surprise Winx Club content. The fact the car hasn't talked yet and two different hits on this other thing is evidence enough that this author completely missed the mark on what they were crossing over with.

ToonGuy: In this shuffle? What a surprise.

ThatUnknownPony: Okay, so I don't know if this Legendz has the same level of writing that the Moron loves so much (Although somehow I doubt it), but this writer is definitively taking cues from Mykan.

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Have you invented guns yet?!"

Killbeat laughs again. "Oh are we scared Mikey? Afraid that you are going to die today?"

Mononeko: Trust me, killing him now would be a fucking act of kindness to us.

ToonGuy: Yeah, if you want to get a move on, we're not fussed, really.

Crazy56U: Well, come on, him dying would make for a perfect birthday present...

Well you should be afraid, I've absorbed the power from many people since you last saw me, and I'm much stronger.

JofY: [Killbeat] "I have the power of ten overweight nerds!"

SC276: When did you first see him?! What fucking universe are you from, Mikey?!

ThatUnknownPony: From the Sueniverse of course! I heard he was friends with this girl called Siren and this other kid named Juliet.

Crazy56U: I'm willing to guess he's from the Batshit Universe.

You will die today and your power will be mine." As soon as she finishes I get kicked in the back and fly into Celestia as Killbeat stands next to my car smiling widely.

JofY: [Killbeat] "Let's see if your 15 minutes will save you 15% on this dent!"

SC276: [Twilight] "Where did you fucking come from?!"

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Uh, I think you broke my spine. Everything's going dark..."

"I'll kill you and take the throne and don't worry Celestia; I'll make you suffer before I take the throne.

SC276: [deadpan!Celestia] "Oh no, I'm going to be tortured by a repetitive villain. I am definitely worrying about that."

JofY: [Michael] "What about Earth?"

[Killbeat] "Uh... Um... Er..."

ThatUnknownPony: [Celestia] "Listen, my sister is coming from the moon in an hour to try to take my throne and make night last forever. Can we make this quick?"

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "(has stopped paying attention; is eating cake)"

[Killbeat] "...should I be concerned that you pulled that out of thin air?"

I do believe that this little filly is your favorite student, am I right?"

JofY: [Celestia] "Nope."

ToonGuy: [Celestia] "What filly?"

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "OH, GEE, LOOK AT THE TIME, I HAVE A PIE IN THE OVEN, TOODLE-LOO! (runs out of the room)"

She starts to walk slowly to Twilight, who is cowering in fear too afraid to move while Celestia and I are still getting back up.

Finally Celestia and I regain our bearings just in time to look up and see Killbeat holding Twilight by her head.

SC276: Celestia didn't even take a hit! Even if she did, that's way too fucking long a stun!

Mononeko: Offer her! Offer her! Offer her!

Crazy56U: [Killbeat] "(is trying and failing to snap Twilight's neck) BREAK, DAMN YOU!"

[Twilight Sparkle] "...please stop..."

I never know how she does it, but sometimes Killbeat has hooves, sometimes she has hands. I have no idea how that works.

JofY: It's almost like the author didn't care.

ToonGuy: In this shuffle? What are the odds?

ThatUnknownPony: Or maybe she's like that deer from Adventure Time and her "hooves" are just like gloves. Or... maybe I'm overthinking it.

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "I've pretty much given up trying to rationalize this shit at this point... ...I should've stayed in bed..."

"Please let her go, he and I are the ones you want, leave Twilight out of this." Celestia said with obvious concern in her voice.

Mononeko: As opposed to obvious boredom.

Crazy56U: As opposed to obvious apathy.

Killbeat doesn't let go and just smirks deviously.

SC276: Oh fuck off, restaurant waitress I can't believe I fell to referencing THAT.

Crazy56U: ...I'm just going to pretend I understand that...

"If you want your precious student back, then bring him to the old ruins in the Everfree Forest.

SC276: [Killbeat] "Y'know, where the Elements of Harmony are so that this guy will reactivate them on his own and save the day single-handedly using the power of working together."

JofY: ...Why can't she just attack them now?

ToonGuy: Reasons.

ThatUnknownPony: Also, she's a Moron villain. Of course she has to give the protagonist all the weapons to defeat her.

Crazy56U: [Killbeat] "I mean, I could just kill her now, but fuck it."

There we will see who lives and who dies."

SC276: Well I already know who's dead: my hopes and dreams.

Mononeko: Same here.

ThatUnknownPony: My hopes for this fic died from the first paragraph.

Crazy56U: Uh, you have no say in that, Killbeat. (pulls out a tape recorder) (hits "Play")

Tape Recorder: I AM CELESTIA! I DECIDE WHO LIVES AND WHO DIES!
NOW GET ME SOME CAKE, MOTHERFUCKERS!

She disappears and only her maniacal laughter can be heard.

I'm running to my car, get in and start my 700 horsepower 5.4 liter supercharged V8

SC276: You probably ripped those stats right from a wiki.

Mononeko: googles You're driving a different car, buddy...

Crazy56U: And then the car explodes. THE END making such a noise that Celestia flinches from it.

JofY: [Celestia] "Is it supposed to sound like the cries of innocent children?"

ThatUnknownPony: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Yeah! It's powered by the tears and screams from unlucky rifiers. Do you like it?"

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "Sweet baby Jesus, it sounds like it needs to be put out of its misery..."

She walks up to the window of which is rolled down.

"Do you even know how to get to the Everfree Forest?" She asked.

I just shrug my shoulders. "Well I can from Ponyville; I was planning on driving on the train tracks till I get there then go to Everfree."

SC276: Because that's not dangerous and a fucking terrible idea.

ThatUnknownPony: On the plus side, this can only end so well... at least for us. He could end up dead for all we know.

Mononeko: Be careful! You might run into Trainlight!

JofY: [Celestia] "Do you realize how many laws you'd be breaking then?"

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Also, I have a GPS."

[KITT] "NO YOU DON'T-"

[Michael Jr. Jr.] "Shut up."

"Well, I can teleport us there in an instant."

"Oh, yeah, I forgot you can do that."

"How do you know so much about me and Equestria? You obviously are not from this world." She asked giving me a look that says, give me the wrong answer and when this is over, you're going to the moon.

SC276: Of course she hopefully plans on sending him to the moon either way...

Crazy56U: Spoilers: there is no right answer.

"I can't explain that now, I would have to show you,

Mononeko: How?

ThatUnknownPony: He just turns on a TV. Duh.

Mononeko: smacks himself on the head Of course...

Crazy56U: By having her read the script.

but after we save Twilight. Now."

The trunk on KITT opens and I pull out two golden wristbands and put them on.

SC276: While sitting in the driver's seat, somehow.

JofY: Hey... Isn't KITT supposed to talk?

ToonGuy: Must be the wrong KITT, you're thinking of?

Crazy56U: KITT is dead inside, he doesn't feel like talking anymore.

"Are you going to teleport us or not?"

A small tornado forms around my body and when it disperses, I'm standing with a pair of white wings, white armor and twin white swords in both hands.

JofY: bursts out laughing Okay! Okay, what does he really look like?

ThatUnknownPony: Like a Moron. With clipped wings and a cardboard cosplay.

Mononeko: groans and buries his head in his hands

Crazy56U: Well, now he's ready for Comic Con. Don't know how that helps deal with Killbeat, but...

Celestia stands there in shock at my transformation.

"O-ok."

SC276: [Celestia] "I'm getting too old for this bullshit..."

Mononeko: [Celestia] "You look like something Mykan would come up with."

ThatUnknownPony: [Celestia] "No, seriously. You look just like that cosplay Mykan did. Do you have any shame? ...Don't answer."

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "I-I've officially gone insane, haven't I?"

Her horn glows and we arrive outside the ruins. The sight of which makes me nearly faint, yet again.

JofY: Wow! It's so... That word!

Crazy56U: Michael Jr. Jr. is about five seconds away from dying of a brain aneurysm.

(Seeing a pattern here with the sights of Equestria?)

SC276: No, because this is only the second time you've been someplace.

Mononeko: Unfortunately, yes...

ThatUnknownPony: It's only becoming more painfully obvious...

Crazy56U: Yes: you see a thing, your brain shuts down. Equestria is clearly an Eldritch Location.

I'm standing in front of the ruins where the Mane Six find the Elements of Harmony.

"Dear God, please don't let me be dreaming because if I am, this is the cruelest dream ever." I whisper to myself as we walk into the ruins.

SC276: You want cruel dreams? Mine don't include terrible fanfiction! The cruel part is I have to wake up!

Mononeko: shudders Every night in my dreams I see the faces of bad OC's and horribly mangled characters in these crossovers...

ToonGuy: pats Mono on back Don't worry. You are not alone.

ThatUnknownPony: You want a cruel dream? How about one where your whole family is dead? I... might have dreamed that one day....

Mononeko: suddenly disturbed ...umm... moving on...

Crazy56U: (cheerfully) Well, this got dark!

We walk in side by side as I'm looking all around making mental pictures of this moment. A maniacal laugh stops my sightseeing as in a reenactment of how Twilight met Nightmare Moon here, Killbeat steps up on the pedestal in a cloud of dark smoke.

SC276: I don't think you remember exactly how that scene worked, given Nightmare Moon teleported Twilight away.

ThatUnknownPony: Also, can you stop beating us with this pretentious "Oh, just like the first episode" crap?

Crazy56U: As opposed to the reenactment of how Twilight went insane in "Lesson Zero".

She laughs. "Well, well, you two seem impatient to meet your doom."

JofY: [Celestia] "Well, I have a meeting to go to in like, 15 minutes."

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "Well, excuse me for wanting to get this shit over and done with..."

Celestia just glares at Killbeat.

"Where is Twilight Sparkle?!"

"Relax, Celle, she is right there."

Killbeat points at a wall and the smoke clears revealing Twilight shackled to the wall with magic resistant shackles.

SC276: [Twilight] "This is still bullshit, by the way!"

JofY: "But not wing resista- OW! FUCK! My wing! This metal is hard!"

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "Celestia, help! These shackles are starting to chaif!"

"If you two can defeat me, she will automatically be freed. But that will never happen." She smirks.

SC276: [Killbeat] "I didn't kill the guy I need to kill immediately back at the castle because my contract states I must act like a Mykan villain."

Crazy56U: [Twilight Sparkle] "(the shackles break, causing Twilight to fall to the ground) ...ow..."

Celestia growls and charges Killbeat horn pointed forward as the two clash

Mononeko: Horn-swordfight!

Crazy56U: Charrrrrrrrge!

and I kid you not, Celestia took to the air and copied the battle she had or will have with Queen Chrysalis, but this time Celestia is victorious and stands over Killbeat threateningly.

SC276: I'm not sure what this means exactly. Thankfully I don't have to think about it because I know it's stupid.

ThatUnknownPony: Well, I kid you not, that was fucking silly and unoriginal. Next time try to describe things a little bit better than that.

JofY: So, she was instantly defeated?

ToonGuy: Anything to get the story moving faster.

Crazy56U: Or she is pretending.

"Give Twilight back to me, NOW!"

Killbeat just smirks and disappears in a cloud of smoke and we, somehow, are surrounded by a forest

SC276: Well I suppose it makes sense she can teleport too...

Crazy56U: Round 2! FIGHT and out of the trees walks the only pony that guarantees this is an illusion,

JofY: "My pony OC!"

Mononeko: "Nobody!"

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Wait, who the fuck are you and why is there a wolf with you?"

[Dog] "Nevermind about me, why do you look like anime?"

Celestia's sister, Luna. Celestia runs to her and tries to hug her but Luna just turns away.

SC276: Did Celestia just up and forget they were in the middle of a rescue mission?

Mononeko: Celestia's memory span has been replaced with that of a goldfish.

ToonGuy: Fitting, because I intend to hit my head on the wall until my memory span IS that of a goldfish, so that I don't have to remember these stories.

ThatUnknownPony: You wait your turn! already banging his head on a wall

Crazy56U: Uh oh, Killbeat gave Celestia brain damage.

"Why do you try to hug us? You banished us to the moon for one thousand years. You obviously don't love us. You have never loved us."

JofY: "So what if I tried to murder you and take over Equestria? It's still a huge dick move."

ThatUnknownPony: "Why didn't you let me do what I want? Was it too much to ask for that valuable toy?"

Crazy56U: "Also something about the night, I forget."

Celestia is already in tears.

"Luna, I have missed you so much. I was foolish to send you away for so long.

JofY: [Celestia] "In all honesty, the timer for your release broke, and I've been counting the seconds in my head... And I haven't been counting recently."

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "I mean, yeah, making the night last forever could've killed everyone, but details..."

Please forgive me."

Luna doesn't even turn around.

"No, we shall never forgive thee. If you had missed me, why were we there for so long?"

SC276: If the guy knows it's an illusion, why the fuck isn't he saying anything?!

JofY: [Celestia] "Because I am unsure, and it is very likely, that when you get out, you'll still be in evil bitch mode."

ThatUnknownPony: [Celestia] "Because I didn't have the Elements?"

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "Because drama?"

Luna smiles evilly as Celestia falls to the ground crying as more Luna's surround her each with the same evil smile.

JofY: Now that's just silly.

Mononeko: Return of Harmony balloon scene, anyone?

ThatUnknownPony: So that means we're getting a corrupted evil Celestia? And probably turning into another Nightmare?

Crazy56U: No, because this isn't a good story.

I remember how Killbeat works and run to Celestia's side.

"Celestia, this isn't real, Killbeat is trying to mess with your mind. This is all an illu.....argh!"

SC276: Yeah, sure, say something now when it's obviously too fucking late. Why were you allowed to keep the talking car again?

ThatUnknownPony: He inherited it.

Crazy56U: At this point, I'm pretty sure he actually stole it...

All at once, the Luna's fire a magic blast at me. The shockwave slams me into a nearby wall cracking most of my armor and draining most of my energy as I groan to get back up. In an instant Killbeat has one of her hands on my throat, Mononeko: Hands? Is she a horse or is she actually a Mykan villain?

ThatUnknownPony: Take a quick guess.

Crazy56U: ...yes?

choking me.

"I told you today would be your end.

SC276: [Killbeat] "I just waited until now because fuck it, plot!"

Crazy56U: [Killbeat] "Happy Birthday! Your gift is the sweet release of death!"

Now good bye, Michael Knight!"

Mononeko: Oh right, this was a Knight Rider crossover...

JofY: [Kitt] runs over Killbeat

Crazy56U: Oh, shut up and do it already!

Killbeat laughs maniacally as she tightens her grip on my throat as I reach out to Celestia pleading for her help. Suddenly, something sparks in Celestia's eyes

Mononeko:

ThatUnknownPony: WE GET IT! STOP RE-DOING THE PILOT, PLEASE COME UP WITH SOMETHING ORIGINAL!

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "(grabs eyes in pain) MY EYES, MY EYES!"

as her mood changes and she returns to her hooves.
"You are not my sister.

JofY: You ten of you.

Mononeko: Nooooooooooooo...

ToonGuy: Brilliant deduction, Sherlock.

ThatUnknownPony: You clearly are a genius mastermind for figuring that out.

Crazy56U: (pulls out a "You Win!" ribbon)

For one you would never attack an innocent being who was trying to help me, and another is that you're still on the moon, unfortunately.

JofY: I love how she had to go "Wait, aren't you supposed to be on the moon?"

Crazy56U: Really sums up Celestia's character in this dreck...

Now begone you foul creatures!"

SC276: ...Didn't work, the fic's still here.

Crazy56U: ...fuck it, you deserve this more. (gives SC276 the "You Win!" ribbon)

SC276: Yay! ^^ I'd like to thank the Academy...

Her horn glows as all four Luna's try to strike her but Celestia quickly destroys them and charges at Killbeat.

"You will let Michael and Twilight go!"

"You're a fool Celestia." Killbeat's horn glows as she blasts Celestia into another wall. She laughs again.

SC276: Why is she not just killing him?! Hell, if we could attack through the fourth wall, we'd help!

ThatUnknownPony: Because she's a dumb Mykan villain: She's obviously gonna lose because she let the Stu live.

Mononeko: throws a mace at the story again, dodging it as it bounces back

ToonGuy: You really should be more careful about where you throw that mace!

Crazy56U: [Killbeat] "Physical violence is funny!"

"I've taken most of Michael's power.

SC276: When?! All you've done is choke him!

Crazy56U: You just answered your own question.

Now I have more power than even you! Equestria is mine!"

As she goes back to choking me, Celestia's and mine eyes meet and her horn glows along with my body as I feel my strength return to me and kick Killbeat off me.

"What?! What is going on?!"

JofY: Please, explain!

SC276: Bullshit, I suspect. Also, I don't think Twilight's magic is blocked so she's still capable of telekinesis-Crazy56U: Celestia is stealing a page out of Tirek's book and giving Michael his power back. ...because.

She fires two blasts from her horn at me that just bounce off me as I stand there looking at my body as my armor changes from white to gold and I now have two sets of wings.

SC276: Nope, I was right the first time. Bullshit.

Mononeko: I swear to god, if you sprout a horn...

ThatUnknownPony: Worse, he will sprout three horns...

Crazy56U: And now Michael Jr. Jr. had Digivolved into a Super Saiyan.

"NO! I will not lose. It is my destiny to take over Equestria!"

JofY: "That $5 fortune teller told me everything."

Crazy56U: "It's either this or going back to working at the IHOP, don't do this to me!"

She fires two more blasts at me.

"This power is amazing!" I see the blasts, create my wind swords, of which haven't changed and deflect both the blasts.

"Killbeat, you prey on the fears of others for your own pleasure.

JofY: Perhaps the same can be said of all men.

SC276: What is a man?! A miserable little pile of secrets!

ThatUnknownPony: But enough talk, have at you!

Crazy56U: (is hit with a wine glass) ...hey!

It's time to put an end to you."

SC276: Does that mean the story's over?

Mononeko: Pleaaaaaaase...

ToonGuy: Come on story, hurry up!

ThatUnknownPony: This has gone far too long, end now, quickly!

Crazy56U: And now, it's time to murder.

Both of my sets of wings spread to full girth. "Now! Double Wing Tornado!!"

JofY: ...Really?

SC276: Yep, Legendz is an anime alright.

ThatUnknownPony: Hopefully not as crappy as this bullshit.

Crazy56U: Since I refuse to look it up, let's say it is.

From both sets of wings, a tornado is launched drilling through Killbeat.

JofY: Oh god! The blood is everywhere!

Mononeko: And it was hyper realistic blood as well!

Crazy56U: Well, I was kidding, but fuck it: murder.

"NO! It was my destiny!!"

JofY: How tragic?... Um... What emotion are we supposed to be feeling?

Mononeko: Content. And happiness.

ThatUnknownPony: I feel nothing at all. It's like I'm the shell of a man right now.

Crazy56U: Yep, it was your destiny. ...to die...

She screams as she fades from life with a huge hole in her midsection from the tornadoes.

SC276: Yours is the tornado that will pierce the heavens!

Crazy56U: (waves) Have fun in Hell!

I run over to Celestia and fly her, and the now free Twilight, back to the castle

SC276: I thought that was an illusion, what the fuck is even going on anymore?!

ToonGuy: Just....just hold on, the fic's almost over.

ThatUnknownPony: I don't think my brain can hold on longer...

Crazy56U: Does this mean the pilot's still happening, or did it get negated?

and put her in bed to rest as I return to KITT with Twilight following me.

"Wow, what a change, I've never seen a being with two sets of wings."

SC276: And hopefully you never will again.

Mononeko: Wait until you see a being with three horns...

Crazy56U: Stop bringing that up, please.

"Yes, I read about this in the ruins where I got these powers.

JofY: It's called bullshit.

Crazy56U: No, it's called anime, I thought we agreed on this.

This is my Commando form, it feels amazing."

JofY: backs away slowly

SC276: [Twilight] "And you didn't use it when that villain first showed up because why now?"

ThatUnknownPony: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Because fuck you. I'm the protagonist, and I decide when I must be a hero."

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "I mean, the internal bleeding is a bitch, but..."

A small tornado forms around me returning me to a normal person as I get in my car.

"Get some rest Twilight; you need it after what happened today."

She nods and lies down next to KITT as I close the scissor door and sleep in the driver seat, waking up to the sight of Celestia talking to Twilight in front of my car.

JofY: Please don't be drunk...

SC276: Why is Celestia talking to Twilight while she's trying to sleep- you scene transitioned in MID-SENTENCE didn't you.

Crazy56U: Or the Narrator zoned out mid-scene. ...meaning Michael Jr. Jr. zoned out mid-scene...

"Good Morning Princess Celestia and Twilight Sparkle."

JofY: "Good Morning, Charley."

ToonGuy: "GOOD MORNING VIETNAM!!"

Crazy56U: "Good morning Mr. Email, there's a call for you on line two!"

"Good morning, we were talking about you just now."

"Oh yeah, what about me?"

"Your departure from us, Twilight, if you please."

SC276: [Celestia] "See, we got a whole show about friendship to do, and you're not in it."

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "Plan B was killing you, be grateful."

Twilight's horn glows as a portal opens in front of me. Celestia holds her hoof to the portal.

SC276: [Celestia] "I, the more magically powerful being at the moment, am not making the portal because I honestly hope you die in transit."

ThatUnknownPony: [Twilight] "Besides, I've experimented with portals and dogs before. This can only end up so well. For us, of course. You'll probably die in there."

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "Out."

"There is your way home, you are free to leave."

JofY: "Though, your car costs five bucks to transport."

Mononeko: "Please go and never come back."

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "Get."

Thank you for freeing Twilight and saving me. If you want anything before you leave, please tell me."

JofY: "A spray can!"

SC276: One would think you'd ask that before opening the portal.

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "...can I have your crown?"

I start my engine but hesitate to move forward to my portal home. I sigh and lean out the window.

JofY: "Can you get me a better car? I want one that talks!"

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Did you happen to have invented gasoline yet?"

"Can I stay?"

Mononeko: [Celestia] "No."

The End.

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "I mean, it saves me a trip..."

"Excuse me?" Celestia says while looking puzzled.

SC276: [Celestia] "This bullshit again..."

ThatUnknownPony: [Celestia] "The answer is no. Goodbye! And never come back!"

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "Why?!"

"Can I stay and learn more about Equestria. That is what I want."

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Also, I just remembered I'm out of gas."

ToonGuy: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Because fuck my family! And my car doesn't get to have a opinion!"

ThatUnknownPony: [Celestia] "Do I have to repeat myself? OUT! NOW!"

"You are abandoning your world for our less advanced one?"

"Yes, my world is corrupt and cruel.

JofY: Yeah. Like it... Um... Er...

ThatUnknownPony: Sudden political statement because... awkward?

SC276: Your world also has Pokémon Go, presumably. ...And Pokémon in general.

Mononeko: glares at SC

Crazy56U: (flips off SC276)

SC276: ...What?! I'm arguing against his statement!

Crazy56U: I know. I flipped you off because you reminded me of better things I could've spent my time on.

Here it is peaceful. It would be amazing to stay here.

Crazy56U: Plot Twist: This is actually in the "Conversion Bureau" multiverse.

I would have to hide KITT though."

JofY: Why not. It's not like that whole Knight Rider thing was important...

ThatUnknownPony: It doesn't even talk or has an advanced AI. For all we know, it's just a car he bought at a bargain sale.

Crazy56U: By burying him.

The portal closes.

"Very well, if you want to stay, you may stay. You will live with Twilight and learn alongside her as my student."

JofY: [Twilight] "Can I not? I mean, I already have an assistant..."

Crazy56U: Actually, I think Spike doesn't actually exist in this universe.

"Thank you, Princess Celestia." I bow very gracefully. "But, what about my car?"

Crazy56U: [Princess Celestia] "Oh, well, that's a no-brainer. (blows up KITT)"

"We will build a place for you to leave it and we will find a way for you to call it, somehow, when you need it."

JofY: Yeah, well, hope he needs it for only 60 more miles.

SC276: It's never good when the fic uses the word "somehow."

Crazy56U: Or he could just live out of KITT...

ThatUnknownPony: Again, not like it was useful or meaningful to this story.

"I've got the calling part partially covered. Thank you again Princess Celestia."

And that is my story.

JofY: Nothing else interesting happened in his life.

ToonGuy: Not really surprising.

Crazy56U: 2/5 Would not recommend.

Since that day I have literally lived the events of MLP: FIM in the exact order of the episodes.

JofY: So, he didn't use the knowledge of those events to try and make sure that some of the bad events didn't happen? ...Could have stopped the whole wedding thing, help aid come to the Crystal Empire sooner...

ThatUnknownPony: Wreck Discord before he broke from his statue...

Crazy56U: Mowed down Starlight...

Mononeko: Annihilate Tirek...

I actually got to partake in all of the "episodes"; I must say that Winter Wrap Up was as disorganized as it looked until Twilight took control. And then there was the coronation of Twilight. It was a proud moment, since I was living with her for three years.

JofY: So, how's Spike?

SC276: So wait... You only watched? Even when like three villains showed up at different times? And the mere presence of a human with an alleged supercar did nothing to change the events by itself? Congratulations, your fantasy has you as the most useless character ever.

Crazy56U: Well, it could've been worse... He could've fucked everything up. Best to be on the sidelines.

ThatUnknownPony: He could be replaced with a cardboard cutout and nobody would've noticed.

Shining Armor and I both shed tears of liquid pride like a man and a stallion. But there was a surprise at the Coronation Celestia welcomed me as an official citizen of Equestria for my services to the nation.

Crazy56U: FUCK OFF

JofY: Like catering, and cleaning.

SC276: What the fuck did you do besides one thing before anything happened?

Mononeko: Scrubbing the floors in Canterlot Castle.

ToonGuy: Cutting the hedges in the garden.

Crazy56U: Breathing.

ThatUnknownPony: Stealing air, you mean.

So this is how my life completely changed in one drive home.

JofY: Plus a weird battle that made no sense.

Crazy56U: Plus anime.

ThatUnknownPony: And drugs, lots of drugs.

Well excuse me. Pinkie Pie is throwing me a Birthday party and Twilight's Coronation party.

JofY: Wow, way to slack off and do only half your work, Pinkie.

SC276: This isn't a diary entry, author, this is a fanfic.

Crazy56U: And a "This Shit Is Finally Over" party.

Yep, today has been three years since I came to Equestria. As a final note I will say that I returned to Earth a couple times, but only to get internet so I could download plans for the tech I helped develop.

JofY: And he didn't try to get them to make contact with one-another because...

Mononeko: We didn't want another MLD.

SC276: Tech that might as well not exist because it changed absolutely nothing.

Crazy56U: Michael Jr. Jr. reinvented the microwave in Equestria.

Ok, I need to get going before Pinkie has Applejack lasso and drag me in there. This is Michael Knight signing off on April 21st 2015.

Crazy56U: [Michael Jr. Jr.] "Well, anyway, I gotta go. A new episode of The Flash is on tonight, apparently it's a good one."

It's time to turbo boost into the future

Crazy56U: Among all the other hiccups, crossing over with Knight Rider was the stupidest thing Power Rangers Turbo did... Even worst than the Ninja Turtles: The Next Mutation one Power Rangers in Space did, which I am now inflicting on you all.

with new adventures to come. See ya on the next gear.

Crazy56U: And now it's a Top Gear crossover. Oh god.

SC276: PICK A CROSSOVER, YOU FLAKE

Ok Pinkie, I'm coming!

Crazy56U: Not in public!

ThatUnknownPony: Get a room, you two!

ToonGuy: Calm it down, tiger.

Author's Note:

Please do not post rude criticisms about my Fanfic.

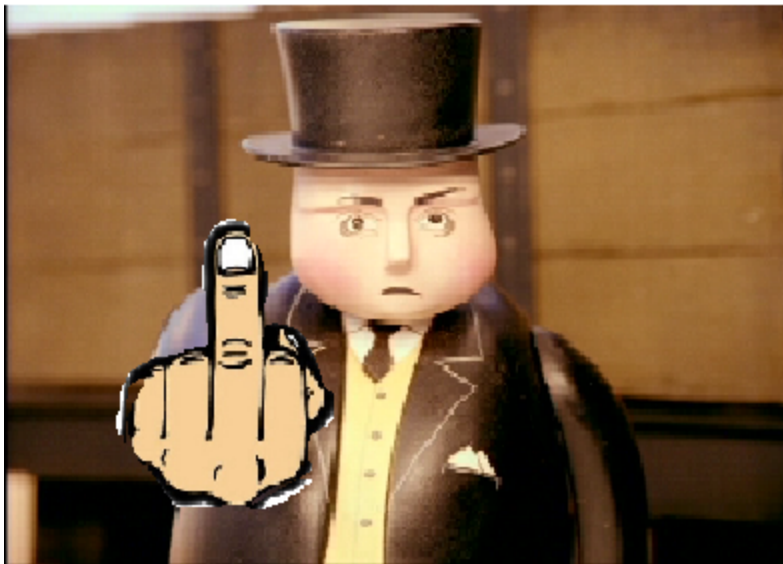

Crazy56U: Oops.

JofY: Ah, the polite version of: IF DON'T LIKE DON'T READ!

ThatUnknownPony: Thankfully I know how to be passive-aggressive: Not to offend you, author, but this was kinda shitty and non-sensical. I know you did your best, but man does it has a lot of mistakes. Can you be a little kind and GO FUCK YOURSELF?

Mononeko: Don't worry, I won't. I have my Topham Hatt image for that.

Crazy56U: (eyes begin to bleed)

SC276: ...OK seriously, you should probably get some tissues for that.

Crazy56U: (eyes are still bleeding) Why?

It was an idea that 's been brewing in my head for sometime

SC276: Clearly not long enough.

Mononeko: Some ideas are not meant to be shared.

Crazy56U: And some ideas need to be thought out better.

and I felt like putting it down and now I want to know what others think of it.

JofY: But only if you like it.

Mononeko: I refer you to the image I posted.

Crazy56U: Or if you want to spare your eyes, watch this.

ThatUnknownPony: And I refer again to my passive-aggressive response.

There are some parts of this Fanfic that reference an Anime called Legendz Tale of the Dragon Kings, mainly the Windragon parts and Killbeat.

SC276: By "some" parts, you clearly mean all of them.

JofY: This was more a crossover with Legendz than with Night Rider!

ToonGuy: Well, that was.....that was a thing.

Crazy56U: Yes. Yes it was.

SC276: One last fanfic left in this travesty... Well, after all those individual flavors of terrible, at least it can't get any worse...

Scarlet: I admit it- this one was my fault. They asked for me to find an obscure anime crossover. I found this instead. I don't have regrets.

Ringmaster: What exactly is the fic they're about to riff, Scarlet?

Scarlet: I'm glad you asked, because I'm not even sure! The stated crossover is MLP with Kamen Rider Kiva - which, if you haven't ever heard of it, is the delightful story of terminally hot Kurenai Wataru and his attempt to defend humans from the menacing Fangire. I like me some silly tokusatsu vampire-hunting fun, and I don't begrudge the author that. I'm just not sure why he picked this particular story to cross over with. Because.... Well, I'll let the author's note spoil the twist this time. Classics Month never really ends!

Ringmaster: Without further ado, our final fic, "Wake Up!" by Gamer Master.

Mononeko: Okay, maybe this will actually be good-

ToonGuy: sighs Again, with the jinxing.

Crazy56U: (deep pained sigh) Here we go...

ThatUnknownPony: Okay, I bite. What's the catch this time?

Author's Note:

Hello and welcome to this idea I had. I really wanted to see a My Little Dashie type story

Crazy56U: (puts head down on table; proceeds to scream)

SC276: OH FUCKING HELL

Mononeko: -OR NOT!

ToonGuy: Oh wow, it was worse than I thought!

ThatUnknownPony: OH MY FUCKING GOD, ARE YOU FOR REAL?!

with 2008's Kamen Rider, Kurenai Wataru. I decided to make it a One-Shot like the original MLD as well as a sequel to My Little Dashie.

Crazy56U: (inhales; keeps screaming)

Scarlet: I told you I'd have my revenge. <3

SC276: Scarlet, I love you as a friend, but I'm going to fucking kill you.

ToonGuy: GET IN LINE.

CaptainPipsqueak: My God... it's like something stayed still long enough for Mykan to fuck it and this author was the spawn.

Mononeko: Well....let's just press on...

Have you ever been through almost everything under the sun?

JofY: Under the sun? Technically, the sun has no bottom for you to 'be' under.

ThatUnknownPony: Unless of course he's talking about Celestia's Cutie Mark. Or Sunset Shimmer.

Crazy56U: ...so no, then?

Then you and I are very similar.

Scarlet: Wataru is part of the F/F/T/3K15 lineup?

Crazy56U: Wataru really hates Scarlet right now?

Mononeko: Wataru is insanely pissed off right now?

ToonGuy: Wataru's going to slam his head against the wall right now?

I have been through almost everything imaginable.

JofY: Even a Birdemic!

Mononeko: And a Foodfight!

ToonGuy: Dare I mention Troll 2?

ThatUnknownPony: And let's not talk about that Norm of the North.

Ringmaster: Those are easy. You guys haven't seen shit when it comes to bad media until you've seen, like, After Last Season or a Nutshack episode.

People usually think it's incredibly simple because I can't explain it further.

JofY: Well, then you must have a poor ability to explain.

ThatUnknownPony: Like the author from that last fanfic?

They think by fights with my brother in the past they mean rough-housing.

Scarlet: "They are correct. BUT ALSO--"

What actually happened was that my brother was King of the Fangires and attacked me when I didn't join him.

Scarlet: "I'm not sure why I expect people to understand this, on second thought."

SC276: I don't know if the author isn't making this up, and I honestly don't give a shit either way.

JofY: Fangires? ...Does this fic mean fangirls? I'm going to assume as such.

SC276: Read the intro. Also, are we talking about Kamen Rider or Double Dragon?

ThatUnknownPony: Considering how many sudden and pointless some of this crossovers are, I think we're talking about both.

JofY: Shrug, and come on. It's a silly name, translated this way.

They think about losing a girlfriend they mean either stolen or broken up.

JofY: "But, in actuality, I left it in the park one night."

What actually happened was that my girlfriend was a reluctant Fangire, who got in the way of my finishing kick and was alright until Bishop came and destroyed her.

Scarlet: She'd lost faith and Pope Francis ordered her execution. Not unusual.

SC276: Why would Bishop need to destroy her? If she got in the way of his "finishing" kick, wouldn't that finish her?

I didn't see Bishop but that's what Nii-san told me.

JofY: Perhaps if he used a rook, or a knight.

Mononeko: Maybe a pawn, but that's really pushing it.

SC276: Queen, all the way. Those are tricky bitches, they are.

Oh, I completely forgot to introduce myself, my name is Wataru, Kurenai Wataru.

Scarlet: "I'm a private eye-" wait, no. Wrong Kamen Rider.

I am also Kamen Rider Kiva. That's the reason I can't fully explain my, let's just call them issues.

Scarlet: "That and my strange compulsion to start stuttering and panicking anytime I have to interact with a living being."

SC276: I assume that everyone that sees a teenager riding a motorcycle while wearing a mask assumes the rider has issues.

ToonGuy: I don't know if I can contribute anything to this. So, I'll just sit back and keep my rant warm.

ThatUnknownPony: Same. never been a fan of Kamen Rider, so I'm all lost.

Anyways, I was walking home with my partners, Kivat and Tatsulot SC276: It's only a model.

when I accidentally walked into a box. I crouched down and saw writing on the box, it said, Give to a good home.

JofY: 'From: An accidental spell hitting a random lightning bolt'

On the other side it said, Fluttershy.

Scarlet: The first thing I call bullshit on is, of course, who would ever be evil enough to abandon a baby Fluttershy.

JofY: 'And on the bottom it sa- Oh, shit. There was something actually alive in there...'

Mononeko: Oh god, it begins...

"Kivat, what do you think I should do?" I asked Kivat.

SC276: As opposed to asking Camelot.

Mononeko: Or Canterlot.

"Well first open the box, we have no idea what's here. For all we know it could be a baby Fangire." Kivat told me.

Scarlet: That seems like a sane idea. "Quick, push the button! For all we know it might be a nuclear detonator!"

JofY: "Let's open the box. Something that will attack us if we do so might be inside!"

ThatUnknownPony: It might be lethal, but curiosity is killing me already, so..."

I opened the box worried about what I would find and I found a filly. A yellow filly, with wings, and a pink mane and tail.

Scarlet: I mean that's nice, but what happened to Fluttershy?

This feels very similar to a story I heard about an unidentified rainbow explosion in France.

Scarlet: "Except for all the parts that were completely different and had nothing to do with a rainbow explosion."

Mononeko: Wait, MLD did take place in France, right?

SC276: I don't remember a specific location being named, but given the place was going through integrating modern commercialism in 2012 or later, it can't have been a first-world country.

JofY: Honestly, I thought it was after some place finished several devastating wars.

The filly was sleeping peacefully. She probably didn't know where she was. I had to take her into my home.

Scarlet: "What do you mean, the ASPCA exists?"

"Kivat, Tatsulot, we're heading home." I said with the box still in my hands.

SC276: (Googles) ...I'm assuming no one else is around to see the flying bat and dragon made of metal? OK then!

They followed after me if a little worried about what I was thinking.

JofY: "How many licks does it take to get to the tootsie roll center of a tootsie pop?"

Mononeko: "Why did Pushing Daisies get cancelled?"

ThatUnknownPony: "Did I leave a pie in the oven?"

"Are you sure about this, Wataru?" Kivat asked me.

Scarlet: [Wataru] "Kivat, you don't understand. This is a limited edition Fluttershy. I will never get this chance again."

"Byun byun!

JofY: "(baby speak) I wub to byun sluff!"

Let him do it. It could very well teach him responsibility." Tatsulot told him.

SC276: [Kivat] "There's another way to do that. It's called 'getting him a normal dog like everyone else.'"

ThatUnknownPony: [Kivat] "Or we can get him a cat, even a turtle. Not some multicolored horse."

When we got home it was empty.

JofY: Robbed again.

Shizuka wasn't here so it was just me, Kivat, Tatsulot and I guess her name is Fluttershy.

SC276: Well at least he's not a brony, so that's a point up on the original...

ThatUnknownPony: And at least he's taking her as an actual pet or living thing and not a plushie...

I decided to lay Fluttershy down in my bed to rest, when she opened her eyes.

JofY: [Fluttershy] "Dear Celestia! How did all these lice get on me so quickly!?"

She was very scared of me from what I can tell.

Scarlet: "I decided turning into a stained-glass vampire might calm her down."

JofY: "I'm just gonna treat you like a baby."

"Don't worry, I'm not gonna hurt you."

Mononeko: And then he got his ass kicked by Angel, who travelled with Fluttershy.

I said. She seemed to calm down a small bit when I made it clear that I was not going to hurt her I sat on the bed next her and she laid down in my lap, she then fell back to sleep.

SC276: (Googles) ...According to the Kamen Rider Wiki, Wataru keeps to himself a lot due to an obsession with hygiene. Depends on how long he's been riding an oily motorcycle, I guess, but I'm willing to bet if he found a wild animal on the streets, he would not bring it into his room and put it on his bed.

ThatUnknownPony: Compared to what the others crossover have ignored from their sources, I think I'll give a pass... for now.

I began thinking, Technically speaking, now Fluttershy is my daughter now,

SC276: She has so far shown no signs of being sentient in the scarce amount of detail you've given. Why are you not considering her a pet, considering you have more justification for that than the original MLD guy?

and from how she is, I can only reveal her to those I trust the most.

JofY: 'But how do I stop her from revealing herself to herself?'

It may sound like a lot but I know that I can trust Megumi-san, Nago-san and my Nii-san with this secret.

SC276: I thought your brother was the leader of the bad guys- y'know, if he has more than one brother, story, and you insist on pointing out one, you should probably point out the others too.

I just hope I'll be able to be a good enough father for Fluttershy.

JofY: 'Oh shit. She's already dead.'

"You'll do just fine, Wataru." A voice told him.

Mononeko: Old man Jenkins?

"Father?"

"Yes and I know that you will be a great father!"

SC276: Good to get some reassurance from what I assume is beyond the grave.

A couple of years passed

SC276: Wherein the guy probably didn't have to do Kamen Rider shit.

ThatUnknownPony: Or if he had, we might get a badass Fluttershy.

and Fluttershy started to grow,

JofY: You know, with a series like dekaï ranger, that should always be taken as a bad thing.

I suspect that when I found her, she was about three, but she didn't know how to talk yet.

SC276: If you can't talk by three, that's kind of a major problem, isn't it?

As the years passed she started learning how to talk from listening to me, Kivat, and Tatsulot talk. Now I decided to do a little bit of research on Fluttershy by typing her name on Google Search.

Mononeko: "I found horse porn everywhere."

ThatUnknownPony: "These people in 4chan seemed very obsessed with pairing her with other horses."

What I found shocked me.

JofY: His computer was rigged to electrocute him.

ThatUnknownPony: "Why was that dragon-chimera doing that to her?"

I found a character of a TV Show currently airing in America and Canada. From what I checked, the show, My Little Pony Friendship is Magic, hasn't aired in Japan

SC276: I highly doubt that.

ThatUnknownPony: At least by the time this was written.

so I think I'm fine with forgetting about the show.

Mononeko: Trust me, you're missing out...

SC276: Do you want yet another pony raised by a brony?

Mononeko: Well, no...

ThatUnknownPony: Then it's fine for him to forget about it.

JofY: 'It's not like a character that has similar features and the same name as my daughter/pet could possibly have any connections.'

I decided later today would be the day I introduced Fluttershy to Jiro-san, Ramon-san, Riki-san and Nii-san.

SC276: You somehow managed to keep it secret from them for three years?

"Fluttershy, I'm taking you somewhere special today." I told her. She looked really intrigued.
"Where are we going Father?" Fluttershy asked me.

SC276: Well at least there's actual dialogue...

"I'm taking you to meet my brother and some friends of mine." The problem was that I had to get Fluttershy to Castle Doran.

SC276: If that's anything like Castle Greyskull, it'd be awesome.

ThatUnknownPony: Googles it ...trust me, it isn't. It's just... another example that those Japanese love to get high.

Mononeko: For reference's sake, it looks like this:

And I swear to god I did not fuck around with MS Paint this time!

Without being seen by anybody and I knew that a pony that could talk would be strange

SC276: I haven't seen your show, but if it's anything like Power Rangers, a talking pony would probably be the least strangest thing.

ThatUnknownPony: Not too strange, but strange none the less.

so I picked up Fluttershy to cradle her in my arms so people would think it's a baby in a yellow and pink blanket.

Mononeko: Eh, as long as it's not a dog suit.

JofY: So... Nobody will think the fact that she's all yellow is weird?...Or are Japanese racist to themselves?

As I walked towards Castle Doran, Fluttershy saw the dragon head and shivered in my arms. "Don't worry Fluttershy, he's a nice dragon like Tatsulot."

"Is he funny like Tatsulot?" Fluttershy asked me.

SC276: Is Tatsulot funny? The correct answer is "probably not in this fic."

"Well, Castle Doran can't exactly talk.

JofY: "It's a castle."

ThatUnknownPony: "...that's also a dragon."

But he's an ally of ours." I explained to Fluttershy.

When we got to Castle Doran, Fluttershy's eyes were set on a weird door.

SC276: It wasn't attached to anything, it was just standing alone like this:

"Father, do you know where this door leads to?" Fluttershy asked me.

JofY: "Yes, it's to the sex dungeons."

"I don't know for sure but Jirou-san told me that it leads to another world far away from here.

JofY: And who wants to bet that'll be the MLP world?

ThatUnknownPony: Sucker's bet at this point.

I've never entered the door at all but it certainly could be interesting."

Mononeko: Then go through the fucking door- oh wait, that would require the author having creativity...

We kept walking because nobody really enters Castle Doran, JofY: They more exit the area that isn't it.

What was inside were four men all with black hair, one was in a suit, another was in a suit with a bow tie, one was in a school uniform and another who was sitting on the chair with a black and red bat next to him in white.

"Jirou-san, Ramon-san, Riki-san, Nii-san!" I said with a smile.

SC276: I thought you didn't enter, how are you seeing the guys inside?

"Wataru, it's good to see you again, and who's that behind you?" Taiga nii-san asked me.

"This is my adoptive daughter, Fluttershy.

Mononeko: [Nii-san] "Why does your daughter have wings?"

And Fluttershy, this is Jirou, Ramon, Riki and my brother, Taiga."

"Um hello there." Fluttershy said incredibly shyly.

"Um hi." Taiga, Jirou, and Riki said.

"Hello." Ramon said with a smile.

"My brother is King of the Fangires, but he isn't like the old King. Taiga isn't evil."

SC276: If the King of the Fangires isn't evil, then why are they a problem, or is this a past-the-end-of-the-series type of deal?

ThatUnknownPony: I wish I knew, but I bet it is.

"Well I used to be, but thanks to you I changed." Taiga said hugging his brother close.

SC276: Oh, that would've been nice to know before now.

After a little while the six of us said our goodbyes Fluttershy and I both went back to our home and Fluttershy was grinning from ear to ear.

Mononeko: Marvelous scene. Added very much to the story.

ThatUnknownPony: We learned that his brother is now good. It's something...?

"I assume you enjoyed your visit with Nii-san and the others?" I asked.

JofY: [Fluttershy] "Kill me."

ThatUnknownPony: [Fluttershy] "Oh, sorry... uhm... I fell asleep and didn't notice."

"Yes it was so much fun

SC276: Care to share some of that there fun with the rest of us? We're fresh out.

and I didn't mention it before, but there seemed to be something animal-like about them." Fluttershy answered.

Mononeko: Thanks for letting us, the readers, know!

JofY: So, they're furies?

I looked at her and smiled, "I'm surprised you were able to notice that. Well there actual names are Garulu, he's a wolf, Baasha, he's a merman, and Dogga, who's basically like a frankenstein."

SC276: All this info that fans of the show already know, and non-fans can't be bothered to remember about characters that will probably never show up again.

ThatUnknownPony: I'm already too bored out of my mind to care.

About three months passed. I decided to show Fluttershy the forest behind our house.

SC276: It took ya over three years to think of giving her a tour of nature?

JofY: No, no, no. It was three and a quarter years.

SC276: That's over three years, let's not split hairs.

After all there are many different kinds of animals in the forest and I don't want to keep Fluttershy inside all day.

JofY: Every day for the last 3 and a quarter years were okay, but TODAY!?

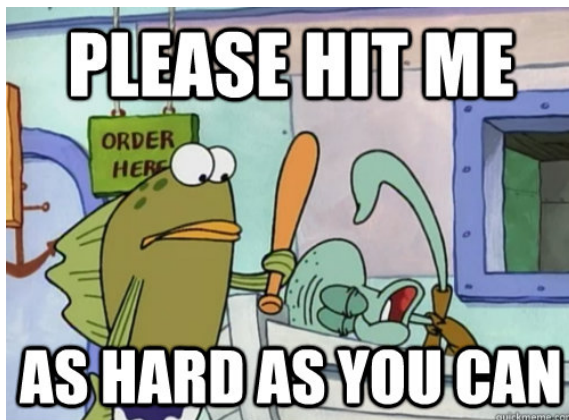

I walked Fluttershy over to the forest and she was looking all around at all of the different animals somehow she was able to understand them. When she asked me about it, I said that maybe that's a special talent she had.

SC276: [Wataru] "Like how mine is riding a motorcycle around and kicking ass."
ThatUnknownPony: [Wataru] "Sometimes both at the same time!"

"I think you may be right father. I think this could be my special talent!" Fluttershy said. Then three pink butterflies appeared on her flank.

JofY: Insta-tattooed!

Mononeko: Sorry Dragonborne, but I have to steal your joke here:

ThatUnknownPony: ...Wow, even My Little Dashie was better handling the whole Cutie Mark issue.

She wondered what they meant and I told her from the 'research' I found that that's a cutie mark, a mark when a pony gets their special talent. She was overjoyed about this. However, things weren't happy for long when a Fangire attacked us.

Mononeko: oh no the horror

ThatUnknownPony: what a shock im so scared

JofY: tries to scream like a bitch, but fails due to a lack of caring

SC276: OK seriously, what do these fuckers actually look like- oh right, it's a senien antagonist race, it looks like a stupid suit.

It went for Fluttershy first but I dived in the way preventing further injuries. I grabbed my phone to call Nago-san and Nii-san.

JofY: And what? You can't fight it on your own?

They arrived quickly shielding me so I could get Fluttershy into a hiding spot.

SC276: Were they just camping outside their door, to get there that fast?

JofY: Well, it's like Kirby and the Amazing Mirror.

"Tatsulot, stay with Fluttershy." I told him he nodded and stayed with Fluttershy. I wish I didn't have to do this. I wanted Fluttershy to have a normal life. But I guess you can't get everything you want.

SC276: I actually find it more surprising that this is the first time this has happened in over three years.

ThatUnknownPony: Still a better life than "Dog Suit" Rainbow Dash.

"Kivat!" I shouted.

"Dark Kivat!" Nii-san shouted. Nago brought out his Ixa Knuckle.

GABU!

GABURI!

READY

SC276: Henshin a go-go, baby!

The three of us then shouted, "Henshin!"

SC276: Huh. I spoke too soon.

ThatUnknownPony: Well, he had to pick up that phrase from somewhere. Now we know.

Crazy56U: ...hello...

ThatUnknownPony: ...uhm, wat...

JofY: ...Is this supposed to be the transforming sequence?

Crazy56U: ...hi?

ThatUnknownPony: ...are you serious?

SC276: Wait, did the author literally put images inside the fic?

Mononeko:

goddamn trains, I'm telling ya! They're forcing me to do it!

Crazy56U: No, no they didn't. (eyes begin to bleed) They really did not.

ThatUnknownPony: I'm diggin' the designs of the new Zords.

It's those

When the three of us transformed, Fluttershy looked at us wide-eyed through the leaves.

JofY: [Fluttershy] "Wow, they look silly."

"I can't believe it, that's Father and Uncle Taiga?!" Fluttershy yelled, as quietly as possible.

WAKE UP

Crazy56U: WAKE ME UP (WAKE ME UP INSIDE)

WAKE UP ONE

Crazy56U: I CAN'T WAKE UP (WAKE ME UP INSIDE)

IXA CALIBUR RISE UP

Crazy56U: SAVE ME

Mononeko: CALL MY NAME AND SAVE ME FROM THE DARK!

Dark Kiva and I kicked down at the Fangire Whereas Ixa slashed it so the Fangire was destroyed.

SC276: ...That was fast.

ThatUnknownPony: ...no colorful choreography? No enemy blowing up? ...oww.

I don't regret anything, just trying to get some rare life energy.

JofY: Huh? Um... Is someone's thought process being displayed?...Who's is it?

And with that the Fangire exploded.

ThatUnkownPony: ...Ok, there's the explosion.

SC276: I actually Googled these guys earlier, and they have animal-based variety. I don't know what just a "Fangire" by itself would be like.

The only thing left was this energy orb which Castle Doran ate.

"Remember to chew thoroughly!" The three of us said. Nii-san went back to Castle Doran but Nago-san stuck around to ask me some questions.

"Wataru-san, what did the Fangire mean by 'rare life energy'?" Nago-san asked me.

SC276: Well presumably it means "energy associated with life that is rare..."

ThatUnknownPony: It's fancy for "alien creature from another world".

"Um, well, Fluttershy, it's safe now you can come out." I said. Fluttershy walked up to me and hid behind my back, most likely from Nago-san.

"Fluttershy, this is Nago-san. Nago-san, this is my adoptive daughter, Fluttershy."

"I see now what he meant, by rare life energy this is a life form unknown to Earth.

JofY: Naw.

Mononeko: Really? Because I usually see talking pegasi everywhere!

I think Megumi would like to meet her."

"Okay, would you be okay with that Fluttershy?" I asked her.

"Oh, um, yes I think that would be good." Fluttershy answered.

SC276: Ready for dissection?

We set up the date in October. On the way back home Fluttershy asked me some questions about well everything that happened. About how I transformed thanks to Kivat, my finisher, and who Nago actually was.

SC276: [Fluttershy] "If this is a regular thing, why didn't it happen a bunch in the last three years?"

ThatUnknownPony: [Wataru] "It did happen, just offscreen when it wasn't relevant."

"So Nago was originally an enemy because his goal was to destroy you, but after you proved you were good, Ixa and Kiva made a team. And you both have forms even stronger than yours right now?" She summarized.

Mononeko: I can assume that this is the short summary of the plot?

ThatUnknownPony: [Fluttershy] "Sounds convoluted... and too complex. Are we on an anime of some sort?"

"Yes, Tatsulot is how I unlock my final form." I answered.

"Wow, I just need to think through this I've never seen anything like it."

SC276: Somehow.

While the physical damage was done things got incredibly complicated. It became October after a large amount of months and we got to Nago-san and Megumi-san's house.

SC276: Now curious why they had to wait until now for that.

Now at this moment I had forgotten everything about the show and what I didn't know at the time was that Megumi-san was into said show.

Mononeko: Of course...

SC276: It's a My Little Dashie fansequel. We have to get a mad brony in here somewhere.

ThatUnknownPony: At least it's not the protagonist this time.

So I knocked on the door revealing Nago-san inside and he allowed us in. When we saw Megumi she was surprised at what she was seeing next to me.

"Oh my gosh! It's a real Fluttershy! Oh my gosh!" She screamed in fangirl mode.

Mononeko: To be fair, that's probably how I'd react when a real Scootaloo showed up at my doorstep.

ThatUnknownPony: And I guess my reaction to seeing a real Sunset would be along the lines of "Nobody wake me from this dream."

SC276: I think my reaction to seeing a real Twilight would be "OK, I'm definitely skipping riffing this week."

"Father, what's she talking about?" Fluttershy asked me.

"I don't know. Megumi-san what are you talking about?" I asked her.

"There's this show from America and Canada that got a dub here in Japan. Here I'll show it to you!"

After I saw the opening all of the memories of the research I did, SC276: Oh right, you forgot about the show, but not that terribly long after telling her what cutie marks are.

I couldn't tell Fluttershy about it because well she couldn't talk and I forgot after sometime. Fluttershy was in tears right now. "Is this all the world thinks of me? As a cartoon?"

Mononeko: Well, some people think of you as a sex object...

SC276: Others as a maid. ...Well, those are mostly a subset of the ones Mono was talking about...

ThatUnknownPony: And others as Discord's wife... And yes, I'm reminding you all of that fanfic.

Fluttershy said running away.

"Fluttershy please come back!" I called out. She didn't respond and kept running.

SC276: Considering they're in what I assume is a secure location, they dun goofed up forgetting to lock the doors.

"Megumi-san, Nago-san, I need to go after my daughter!" I said with determination in my eyes. They nodded as I ran out of their house.

I searched all over the city for Fluttershy with no luck at all. I tried asking my sempai, Ryotarou if he saw anything yellow and pink lately. He said no but wished me luck.

As I got home only one place was left, the forest behind our house.

SC276: How ignorant are you of your child's needs and interests if that's not one of the first places you looked?

I ran over there as fast as I can, and I searched everywhere for her and I still couldn't find her.

"Ugh, I can't believe I let myself forget the research, I could've avoided this. I could've told her! I'm a terrible father." I said with tears in my eyes looking completely disheveled.

SC276: Stop half-acting like me.

"Y-you aren't a bad father, Father." I heard and saw Fluttershy.

SC276: I can't refute that, but I also can't confirm it either.

ThatUnknownPony: [Fluttershy] "You're a so-so father. It's something."

I quickly went over to hug her.

"Fluttershy, please forgive me, I am so sorry for forgetting. I typed in your name on Google and I found out but as you got older I completely forgot, Mononeko: Because those are details that you forget...

can you ever forgive me?" I asked.

"Of course Father you had no control over it. But can we go back to Mr. Nago and Mrs. Megumi again? I want to check that show Mrs. Megumi was talking about." Fluttershy answered with a brave face.

SC276: She had stolen it from Rainbow Dash.

"Alright, I'll call Nago-san and we'll go back."

"Father."

"Yes Fluttershy?"

"I love you."

I was teary-eyed but this time for the right reasons. "I love you too, my little Fluttershy."

SC276: Oh shut up.

Crazy56U: (proceeds to gag self with a spoon)

Mononeko: contemplates shooting himself

More years passed as Fluttershy grew into a fine young mare the same age I am when I started training to become Kiva, she's now 15 years old I decided to treat her for her birthday so we're going to the zoo so Fluttershy can see all the animal habitats at the area.

Mononeko: Does the idea of Fluttershy in a zoo seem kinda...wrong to you guys? I mean, wouldn't she be sad about the animals being locked up in cages?

SC276: Aside from the fact that a proper zoo would only use tiny cages for animals that don't need that much running space, the main concern would be her climbing into the bear enclosure to give him a massage.

ThatUnknownPony: Or in the worst case, the zoo staff confuses Fluttershy for a fugitive horse and tries to capture her.

I told Fluttershy about it and she was overjoyed. The day we were about to go I heard a knock at the door. I looked in the door and saw a pony that looked like Fluttershy, but was as tall as me, white, a wavy multi-colored mane and a horn and wings.

Mononeko: So in short, she looked nothing like Fluttershy.

SC276: Well at least we're getting to the endgame.

I had already told Fluttershy to hide behind the other side of the bed.

SC276: Standard procedure when you live with someone that's attacked by aliens on a regular basis.

I opened the door to get a good look at her. "Hello, sir, may we come in?" She asked me.

"I'm sorry but I don't know who you are. Did you call in for a violin order?" I asked her.

Mononeko: Does this make sense if you know Kamen Rider?

SC276: Wataru's wiki entry said something about violins. I only skimmed it because I have better things to do with my time than read wiki pages for a show I'll never watch because of a fanfic I wish wasn't written.

ThatUnknownPony: Well, at least in context it makes sense... too bad we lack it.

"Um no sir, may I come in?" She said hoping the answer was yes.

I stepped aside to let her in, but she had more ponies following her into my home. One lavender, one orange, one water-colored,

Mononeko: I assume you mean Ms. Cake, since anybody with eyes should notice another physical attribute of Rainbow Dash first.

ThatUnknownPony: Or maybe she lost a bet and had to get bald.

one pink and one white.

"Um excuse me Mister," Twilight started.

"Wataru, my last name is Kurenai."

SC276: I think for the sake of my sanity, I will not question how the ponies know Japanese.

ThatUnknownPony: Magic. snort snort

"Okay, Mr. Kurenai, we're kind of looking for our friend is she here?" Twilight asked me.

SC276: Those are two sentences why are you missing a period YOU WERE DOING SO WELL

"Is she yellow?" I asked.

"Yes actually I assume you've already met her." Rarity asked me.

"That isn't the beginning of it actually. I have been Fluttershy's father for the longest time."

"Heh, how long could it have possibly been she disappeared 12 days ago." Rainbow Dash said.

Mononeko: [Celestia] "Rainbow Dash? Didn't I leave you at home?"

"Oh, well here it's been 12 years." Everybody gasped at that.

"You mean to tell me that you've been taking care of Fluttershy for 12 years now?"

Mononeko: Creativity truly is dead...

SC276: How are they surprised? I thought this was supposed to be a sequel.

ThatUnknownPony: I think the author completely forgot.

I nodded. "Well I first would like to thank you but we need to take Fluttershy back with us. She came here on accident, my former student, Twilight was helping Rainbow Dash with the weather but Rainbow Dash got caught in it. However, Fluttershy was able to get Rainbow Dash out of the storm, only to get caught in it herself.

SC276: So, wait... this is an AU? (rubs eyes) OK, this is on FIMFiction, right, because it has images. Let's see the tags... Nothing about alternate universes, the description flat-out calls it a sequel oh for crying out loud some of the text is colored.

ThatUnknownPony: Oh for the love of... All the things you could've done, and you go for the same bullshit reason from the original?! COME THE FUCK ON!!!

When I found you here, I was worried Fluttershy would end up destroyed almost with the Fangire betraying the King and Fluttershy could've been considered life energy for the taking." Celestia said worried.

Mononeko: Because Celestia obviously knows what a Fangire is.

SC276: Bad Crossovers 101: One side knows how the other side works immediately and with no explanation. Also that is exactly what happened, and it's amazing it only happened once in twelve years.

"Well we were close to that, but my brother, the King, Nago-san one of my friends and I stopped it."

SC276: Do you really need to go into so many specific details to characters you don't even- come to think of it, you never asked their names, the narration just fucking jumped to it.

ThatUnknownPony: Because it assumed we already knew those facts. Guess what? WE KNOW JACK SHIT ABOUT KAMEN RIDER!

They all didn't believe it by looking at me. "We're all Kamen Riders, in my case, Kivat!" And Kivat revealed himself.

SC276: Oh right, he's a thing that exists.

"I'm Kamen Rider Kiva, my brother is Dark Kiva and Nago-san is Ixa. We've been defeating Fangires since the beginning of 2008."

Mononeko: googles and groans I see what you did there...

SC276: [Celestia] "So what year is it now?"

[Wataru] "Uhhh..."

"Well then first I would like to thank you for taking care of Fluttershy, which is going to make what I have to say now much more difficult. Wataru I must take Fluttershy away from you. Our two worlds were never meant to mix.

SC276: Which is why you felt the need to take twelve days to get around to rescuing her.

This entire thing was an accident."

Mononeko: Well author, I'm glad you admit it.

ThatUnknownPony: There's always a first for everything, indeed.

"Well not to be rude, but that isn't your decision to make. It's Fluttershy's life and she should be the one to choose if she stays or goes.

SC276: [Celestia] "Did I forget to mention that we need her if we're going to keep our world from being destroyed?"

ThatUnknownPony: [Celestia] "I think I forgot to mention: There's an angry draconequus waiting outside, and he really wants his friend back."

I won't force her to stay here since I believe in one finding their own destiny, and letting Destiny Play. Fluttershy, you can come out now." I said. Fluttershy came out from behind the bed next to me.

SC276: Why did you gather the ponies in your bedroom? Because you can't have one of those small Japanese apartments, there's no space behind the bed to hide Fluttershy in one of those.

"Fluttershy!" Pinkie screamed running up to her, in which Fluttershy responded by hiding behind me. "You don't recognize me, do you?" She said with her mane deflating a little bit.

Mononeko: I hate everything right now...

"No, I'm sorry I don't." Celestia then walked over to Fluttershy and explained everything to her. "Well, I don't want to go back to this Equestria place." Fluttershy said making everybody gasp.

"Fluttershy, we're your friends!" Applejack said to try and make Fluttershy remember. She then made a hard glare at me. "What did you do to her?"

"I didn't do anything! Honest! I found a box that said 'Give to a Good Home', and on the other side said, 'Fluttershy.'"

SC276: I would like to know what exactly was in that lightning that causes any pony struck by it to be rewound back to like five years old, be transported to Earth, and put in a cardboard box with their name on it. In the language of the nation they landed in.

"I want to stay with my father! He truly cares for me! I'd rather stay here than go back to this place that I've only viewed through a screen."

Mononeko: I'm starting to think this is wish-fulfillment...

ThatUnknownPony: Noooooo, really?

SC276: Also bad Japanese show fansubs.

"Fluttershy, come on you don't mean this do you?!" Rainbow Dash said completely upset.

"I'm sorry but this is my choice, and I choose to stay with Father!" Fluttershy said determined. "Now I'm going to have to ask you all to leave!" She said pointing her hoof to the door.

Mononeko: Fluttershy took some assertivity lessons those 12 years...

SC276: Given she's been living with an action hero...

Fluttershy, Kivat, Tatsulot

SC276: Who's here now.

and I walked upstairs and out the door to go to the forest Fluttershy loved.

SC276: And spacial relativity just went out the window and landed on the kitchen floor.

On the inside however, nothing good was happening for the ponies.

"I can't believe she chose that creep over us! I mean we're her friends! This shouldn't be happening!" Rainbow Dash said with her head down in tears.

SC276: You weren't paying attention to the conversation, were you.

"We aren't giving up." Celestia said determined. Everypony else in the room was surprised.

"But Princess, she clearly doesn't want to come with us." Twilight said with a low tone.

"Then we use what those Riders use against the Fangires, force."

ThatUnknownPony: What did you just- Excuse me?!

Mononeko: [Twilight] "A Fan-what?"

[Celestia] "Look, the author didn't bother writing a decent story, so I just know this stuff, okay?"

As we went through the forest Fluttershy and I heard footsteps behind us, to more specifically, hoof steps. We looked back and saw those six ponies were right behind us with all of them looking completely angry.

SC276: Celestia and Rainbow Dash aren't flying because fuck it.

"Wataru Kurenai, you have one last chance to give Fluttershy back to us! I don't want to have to use force but I will use force to get one of my subjects back if necessary!"

Mononeko: Hey, I remember this from MLD! This was the best part!

ThatUnknownPony: Of course! How to forget that memorable battle where they force Rainbow to go back to Equestria instead of living with her owner... I mean, her father.

SC276: Use force use force, use force. Use force? Use force!

"It wasn't my choice, Fluttershy wanted to stay here! If you truly cared for your subject you would let her stay!" I shouted.

"I'm sorry but Fluttershy must come back with us, she's part of the Council of Harmony,

Mononeko: smashes the table

ThatUnknownPony: Slams head on the wall

she has to come back to Equestria she said firing a beam at me.

SC276: Oh no! If it hits him, he'll lose all his quotation marks!

However Dark Kivat blocked it and Nago-san appeared firing a blast from the Ixa Knuckle.

"Guys, we need to henshin!" I said, they nodded.

GABU!

GABURI!

READY

"HENSHIN!"

FIST ON!

"Fluttershy run on the main path!" She nodded and ran behind me.

Mononeko: "Yes, use the main path! Don't go into the forest and try to lose them! That would be the smart approach!"

"Princess, Twilight, Applejack, Rainbow Dash go on ahead! we'll handle them." Pinkie and Rarity said.

Mononeko: Yeah, leave Pinkie and Rarity to deal with two...kamen rider thingies, and not, you know, THE FUCKING PRINCESS AND ONE OF THE MOST POWERFUL UNICORNS!

ThatUnknownPony: What the hell is even happening?! This could be awesome, ponies vs Kamen Riders... but NOT LIKE THIS!

"Wataru, Nago go on ahead, I can take on two ponies." Nii-san said, SC276: Anyone else wishing he'd use the guy's actual name?

the two of us then ran off farther into the forest after the other ponies. "I don't want to fight you, but I don't want you to take my niece away."

"Then I'm sorry sir but we must get our friend back. Even if that means fighting you." Rarity said getting into a battle stance.

"No hard feelings Mister!" Pinkie said with a smile.

Mononeko: And then Nii-san got owned.

SC276: And here we reach the point where the author somehow forgot he's writing in first-person.

WAKE UP TWO.

Nii-san brought his arms together making a red sky with a full moon he then jumped up high into the sky and kicked at the ground. The ground tremors as Nii-san kicked the ground sending Pinkie Pie and Rarity flying.

Back with Nago-san and I

SC276: I've honestly forgotten who Nago-san is, and I've stopped caring completely.

we were running after the four of them when we realized when we caught up with them only two of them were there.

"Wataru, go on ahead. Your daughter needs you, this is your form of justice." Nago said. I nodded and ran after Celestia and Twilight.

"Sorry sugarcube nothing personal but we have to get our friend back." Applejack said.

SC276: So you're just going to let the supposed mastermind of this plot go right by you? Great plan, Applejack.

ThatUnknownPony: Come on, AJ. You're better than this. Granted, maybe the fanfic is also starting to affect your brain like us.

"What will that princess do if she gets her hands on Fluttershy?" Nago-san asked.

"She's gonna erase Fluttershy's memories of this world and replace them with the memories of us back in Equestria." Rainbow Dash said dive bombing Nago-san.

"I cannot allow that!" Nago-san said activating his final form.

Mononeko: Who am I supposed to root for here?

SC276: We're supposed to root for people?

ThatUnknownPony: Or are we supposed to root for ponies? ...is this secretly a Conversion Bureau prequel?

RISING

"Ixa Explosion!"

I was running after the last two when I saw that they could fly. I activated my beast form to fly after those two. After I caught up with them Celestia began battling me.

"You must understand that this is for the best of Equestria! After she comes with us she won't remember anything of this world! The needs of the many outweigh the needs of one!" Celestia said shooting a magic beam at me.

SC276: You are doing a shit job of convincing him, Celestia.
ThatUnknownPony: Also, you suck at quoting Spock. EVEN FLUTTERSHY QUOTED THAT BETTER THAN YOU!

HENSHIN! Tatsulot yelled transforming me into Emperor Form.

SC276: OK, either this season didn't have as many motorcycles as I thought it did, or it's like the Knight Rider fic that forgot the car talks.

I grabbed Zanbat from my armor and blocked all of Celestia's attacks.
"If you can't make just one smile, how can you make an entire country smile?"

If Fluttershy wants to stay here, then she should stay here, and I will fight for her! No matter what! I kept fighting for my brother to come back to the side of good, in which I eventually did! I'm not stopping there I won't give up!"

WAKE UP FEVER!

I jumped up and kicked Celestia with both of my feet and the wings coming out of my legs kept on attacking her as my kick dragged her back.

Crazy56U: Kicking is all the fic can do from now on. Because quality writing? Nope!
SC276: doradoradoradoradoradoradora

When we got to a tree, behind Celestia was my signature symbol of Kiva.

Twilight kept running after Fluttershy.

"Fluttershy, please come back! We need you in Equestria!"

"No Twilight, I'm no longer an element of harmony, nothing's holding me back from staying here!" Fluttershy said.

SC276: My gut reaction was to question how she knew what an Element of Harmony is. How much of the show did she watch again?

"But what about all of your friends? You're not gonna leave them behind are you?!"

"Twilight I only know my so called friends through a TV Screen! This is my life now. My name is Fluttershy Kurenai!"

Mononeko: bangs his head into a wall

ThatUnknownPony: follows Mononeko's example

"Fluttershy stop this nonsense!"

Mononeko: Indeed, random voice!
SC276: THE RIDE NEVER ENDS

"Twilight, that enough." Celestia said with a smaller tone.

"What do you mean, Fluttershy belongs in Equestria!"

"Twilight, after battling against Wataru, I knew how he acted, he won't do Fluttershy wrong, and if she wants to stay in this world, then what kind of Princess would I be if I forced her to be in a world she doesn't want to be a part of?" Celestia finished.

Mononeko: A princess that would essentially doom her country.

ThatUnknownPony: And a princess that could've avoided all this fighting if she realized that in the first place.

SC276: [Twilight] "Does this mean we can all stop running? My legs are getting tired- wait a second, why didn't I teleport?"

"Princess Celestia thank you for finally understanding." Fluttershy and I said at the same time.

"Just, please as my last request here, take good care of Fluttershy." Celestia said.

"Of course." I said with determination in eyes.

Mononeko: <Insert Undertale reference here.>

Crazy56U: <Insert Game Theory-related joke here.>

Fluttershy and I were able to stay with each other. Celestia gathered her ponies back together and they went back to Equestria.

Back at Twilight's Palace, everypony there was not in a good mood. Their friend chose a human over them.

Mononeko: Filthy humans...

SC276: "Your boyfriend left you for a dog?"

It wasn't any better when they had to tell Discord.

SC276: Because that's just what this fic needs. A character defined by his personality in a fic with no personality.

"So did you get Fluttershy back?" Discord asked hopefully.

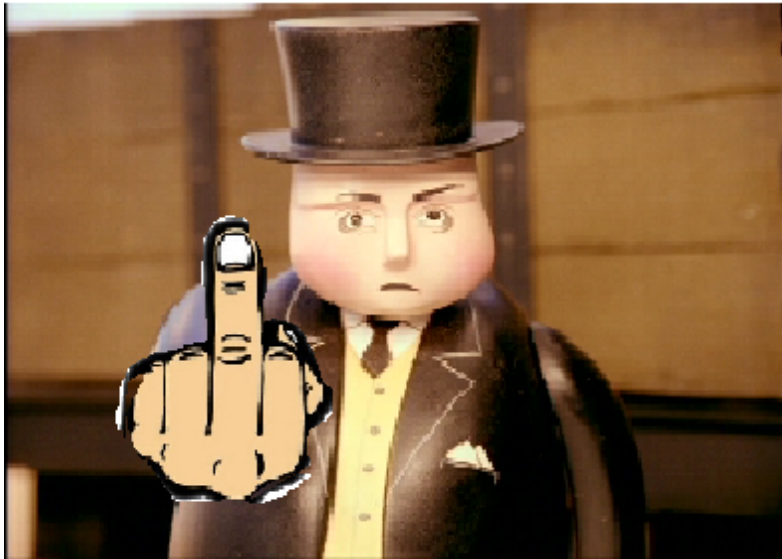

"No, Discord, we couldn't get her back, she chose to stay on Earth rather than here." Twilight said upset. Discord was disheveled. He walked back to his cottage with a dark frown.

Mononeko: Suddenly, Fluttercord.

Crazy56U: ...was there supposed to be more, or did the Author not know how to end stories?

CanptainPipsqeak: 'And then they fucked'. THE END

Mononeko: God, I hope not. This was just one big pile of stupidity after the other.

Also, for that last fic:

Crazy56U: Eh, one more for the road. (eyes begin to bleed)

SC276: Wait, that's it? That's the end of the story? Are you kidding me? Actually, given how devoid of emotion that fic was, I probably should've expected it! The typesmanship was mostly good, but fouled up by the content being I can't even describe the terrible. At least My Little Dashie had some semblance of emotion, even if that emotion was overblown angst. This just goes through the plot stations and doesn't give a shit about entertaining the reader! She meets the cast of Kamen Rider Kira and get targeted by a Fangire attack, none of which goes anywhere. Over the course of twelve years, there's only one attack, and by a monster whose subvariation, of which several exist judging by the wiki, is completely missing! Why couldn't you elaborate on their desire to acquire this new and super-rare - and likely superpowerful because pony magic - life energy so that Fluttershy's declaration to stay fucking means something?! And since I ranted on the last fic first, let's just back up and tackle the rest of these in reverse. Knight Rider crossover: this isn't even a crossover with Knight Rider, really! The main attraction of that show from what I've read is the talking car, and KITT never once speaks in this entire story - just drives and opens its trunk! It crosses over more with this Legendz thing than it does with Knight Rider! Hell, I'd bet the only reason it's listed as a crossover with Knight Rider is because the author couldn't find Legendz in the anime listings on FF.net and couldn't figure out what the Misc. Anime category is for! God, it's even worse than that stupid Winx Club water-thing from two weeks ago! You could remove the Knight Rider parts of this story and the main plot wouldn't be any different! Speaking of the main plot, I'm not sure what words properly describe its level of idiocy. Disastrous, maybe. What else do you call pitting a Gary Stu against a villain from another series, set before MLP's first episode, and then allowing the Stu to remain in Equestria to witness the series play before him without any signs his presence changed anything?! Now, RWBY crossover: why did this have to be a crossover? What was so important about having Ruby fight timberwolves, and ponies fight Beowolves? The two sides don't even meet! Even disregarding the fact you based it off a concept trailer more than anything, it attempted to deliver emotion and botched terribly. Also Rainbow Dash continues to be the target of fanfic pain. Speaking of botching, actually, and then there was trouble, because Thomas, Thomas, THOMAS, why did this author have to write for you...? The complete lack of quotation marks is one thing, but this is the most unbalanced crossover I ever read. You literally just ripped episodes from the show - the good ones, too - and changed the names around so that some of them were named after ponies, and that was literally fucking it. You put in even less effort than the writers from the show's dark ages. All these fics completely waste the glorious potential that comes from a crossover! Let them be a lesson to all those that would write crossovers! Balance the two franchises so they both have the chance to shine! Know what you're writing about! Know what you're crossing over with and what you're not! And put some fucking EFFORT into it!! I crossed over MLP with Ghost Trick of all things, I know what I'm fucking talking about!

ThatUnknownPony: As for me, I was completely lost through the majority of the Kamen Rider crossover to care, but the moment they began fighting the ponies... That was just the moment I completely lost it. As a My Little Dashie fansequal it sucks, as a crossover it fails, and as a story on itself it goes WAY too fast. Now, the Knight Rider crossover... just.... Pure Marty Stu-ness. It had little to nothing related to Knight Rider, instead being a Mykan-ization of Legendz & MLP. It was awful, I don't want to say more about it. The RWBY crossover? That's why you never do anything based SOLELY on a trailer. They're usually the worse source of material. And please, PLEASE don't get me on the Thomas the Tank Engine abomination. Mononeko's pictures were much more bearable than that mess of a story. I really hope this served as a lesson that sometimes MLP isn't meant to become crossover material. See ya all next riff!

ToonGuy: I'll keep this short. For Kamen Rider, I am not a expert in any of the iterations in the show's history, but even so, I know that there's got to be more to it than what the fanfiction offered, which was bland and stupid stuff that just bored me and left me feeling confused. The Knight Rider story, DEAR GOD, did it fail to take advantage of it's premise! You have a talking car interacting with talking ponies! DO SOMETHING WITH IT. It feels like such a waste for a silly, yet enjoyable enough show that it still sticks in people's memories today. The RWBY story that I submitted was the prime example of why DOING ANY BLOODY RESEARCH and waiting a bit helps a story no end! You could cut the entire crossover plot out and it would leave no sign that it was even there in the first place! Oh, and Thomas. Oh, my sweet Thomas. It's just cut and paste episodes with nothing added to them. Nothing! I'm a shit writer, but even I could probably manage to add something to it! The characters are cut-outs, the continuity is naff to say the least and it just feels like rather a waste of two potentially interesting fandoms crossing over. ALL OF THESE AUTHORS FAIL CROSSOVER WRITING FOREVER. Now, I'm going for a nice long drink. Until next time!
