

500 hours before the universe's creation, Boliack who is the embodiment of creation and destruction was created by his father Golias who is the embodiment of tranquillity. (Golias doesn't have a beginning nor an end because he was never created but he always existed) 1 Minute after he was created, Boliack created his audio tape recorder and he recorded his 1st audio diary while he said that he is planning to record 20 Audio diaries. 3 hours after his 1st audio diary, Golias started training Boliack how to use his telekinesis, flight, super speed, super strength and how to fight with his sword and even though he struggled 10 times at all of them, he succeeded. Many hours later, Golias created the universe, the 9 planets, the moon and the sun.
