Certain schools, such as Purdue University, require that you self-report your grades on Common App:

- In the field "Please select the course scheduling system your institution is using" choose "Quarter."

- In "Course subject," select the appropriate content area.

- In "Course name," input each class as it appears on your transcript.

- In "Course level," select as indicated on your transcript: CP1/CP2 = College Prep; H = Honors; AP = Advanced Placement.

- In "Course schedule," under each course you list, hold down the "ctrl" key to select the appropriate terms ("quarters") you are enrolled in that class.

Self Reporting Grades in STARS

Some other schools, like Clemson and the University of Delaware, use the Self-Reported Transcript & Academic Record (STARS). See here for a comprehensive list of schools that use STARS. Fill fields similar to above. Select "A-F" grading scale. In "Schedule," select "Yearly," and in "Credits," report .5 for term classes, 1 for semester classes, and 1.5 for 3-term AP classes. This matches a transcript from Holliston High School. We only report one grade per class along with the credit earned.
