

I am the first woman to represent house district 82 at the Oklahoma state legislature. And you know, I am very very proud of that not in a prideful way about me, but that a woman represents this seat. Like I talked about before we need balance. The demographics of this district are slightly higher in the female category and it's certainly well good and time for that.