Senate Functions Streamlining Amendment (2025)

Preamble

Whereas The current system for the Senate's functions are cluttered and disorganised

Whereas Various sections of the Constitution are not applied to mixed degrees

Whereas A number of unintentional acts can have disastrous consequences for the Senate

Therefore This amendment seeks to simplify some sections of the Constitution without erasing any necessary parts of it

Section 1: Amendments

§1. Part 1, Article 2, §4 of the constitution will be edited to read:

“The inaugural session of the Senate shall be presided over by the Vice President. If the VP is vacant, the Speaker Pro Tempore shall preside over the inaugural session.”

§2. Part 1, Article 2, §6.2.1 of the constitution will be edited to read:

“Speaker Pro Tempore shall be defined as the first among the current members of the Senate, in order of when they were elected from first to last.”

§2. Part 1, Article 2, §6.4 shall be added to the Constitution, reading:

“The current members of the Senate, in order of when they were elected from second to last.”

§3. Part 1, Article 2, §2.3.1 of the constitution will be edited to read:

"§2.3.1. The Vice President shall conduct an election for the new Speaker. If there is no VP, then the Speaker Pro Tempore shall conduct said election."
