

Barony meeting 3/19/2024

Minutes

Reports:

Baron & Baroness – Had a great C3R, with no calamities. Will attend Ice Dragon on 6 April at Genesee Community College. Coin making will happen this Spring. Their Excellencies apologize for not being more responsive recently, but life and work have been difficult.

Seneschal – Nothing much new. Thanks to all who made C3R a smooth and successful event.

Exchequer – As of 19 March: $7140.69 in checking account; $4073.25 in savings. Tig (Taylor Sheive) will be the next exchequer. He and Nicole are working together. She will stay on for the moment as deputy. C3R brought a $960 profit. New signatory cards are in process.

A&S – European Dance continues (2nd Wed of each month at Red Shield Hall), 4 people attended the last practice. A&S Project Day was held on 23 March – it was very successful. Ice Dragon is coming (see above).

Herald – No report.

Marshals:

Heavy – There are new floor mats at Red Shield Hall. On 14 March, fighters from the Hael attended practice. Angus is starting to look for a replacement. Region 4 muster took place on 24 March at Red Shield Hall.

Fencing – Practice most weeks on Monday nights. Eric is looking for a replacement.

Archery – on hiatus.

Thrown Weapons – generally on hiatus.

Youth – Sigvaldi is now a fully authorized Youth Marshall. There will be youth fighting at Ice Dragon. Coordinate with Sigvaldi for practice when Andriu is not available.

MoL – Nothing to report.

Chronicler – the 2024 Q1 issue is done. Katja is looking for a deputy – at minimum, a proofreader.

Chatelaine – 22 April, Boy Scout/Cub Scout Demo, 30-45 minutes in Brighton at 6:30 PM (more details will be forthcoming. Rosamund desires fighters and fencers.

Gold key – Katja is resigning after ten years service. Rosamund has agreed to fold the job back into the Chatelaine office. She and Katja will divide the very large amount of gold key into two piles. One will be kept; the other will be available at Champs – first come, first served.

Steward – Most of the stuff used for C3R was outstanding as of 19 March. Gwen Cooke has signs to repaint.

Webs – Work is proceeding slowly on Fewmet, posting new policies, and minutes from previous meetings.

Historian – We still have history. It lives at Sadira's.

Social Media – New kingdom SM rules are in effect. Need to have disclaimers on all pages. If guild pages are not owned by the Barony, they need to add Nezah as admin.

Guilds:

Scribal – New assignments are available. Scribal get-together good to go in April.

Threadworkers – Project days at Sadira's – hopefully every month.

Middle east dance – Nothing to report.

European dance – Every 2nd Wednesday (next is 10 April) at Red Shield Hall.

Cooks – Katja and Sadira are working on a monthly get-together/Guild meeting idea, alternating west side & east side. Hoping for 1st Tuesday of each month, beginning April 2nd. Looking for class ideas. Stefan, Matilda, and Bryn helped make vigil cookies for upcoming events.

Old business –

C3R – 126 attended. Profit was $960. Classes went well. Event was amazing.

Champs – Champs event is coming along on track.

Pax Bids – WE HAVE A BID!

Date: July 6

Site: Heritage Square Museum, 7147 Ontario Center Road, Ontario, NY 14519

Event Stewards: Elizabeta and Bronwyn. Duchess Branwyn will be Emergency Deputy Event Steward.

We have access to two buildings on the site (the Barn with a small kitchen and one handicap accessible bathroom; the Train Depot With two handicap bathrooms). Plenty of land, room for all martial activities.

At present, no lunch or feast are planned.

Prices: $25 non-member; $15 member. This may change.

Bid approved without objection.

New business – On Pennsic: If you are planning to camp with Thescore, PLEASE contact Otelia (galoot@estherheller.net) to discuss how the camp works.

Next meeting: 16 April @ Macedon Town Hall Community Room, 32 W. Main Street (Route 31), Macedon, NY 14502, starting at 6:45. Doors open at 6:30. Look for the SCA road signs.