

Breaking Boundaries Participation Disclaimer

Breaking Boundaries is a peer-led social community. By joining this group and RSVPing for or participating in any events, you acknowledge and agree to the following:

Voluntary Participation: Participation in all events is voluntary and at your own risk.

Release of Liability: Breaking Boundaries, its organizer(s), sponsor(s), and volunteers are not responsible for personal injury, medical emergencies, property damage, transportation issues, or accidents that may occur before, during, or after events. By attending, you release and hold harmless Breaking Boundaries and its leadership from any liability.

Peer-Led Status: Breaking Boundaries is a social group, not a professional service provider. We do not provide medical, personal care, or transportation services.

Personal Responsibility: Members are solely responsible for their own health, safety, and mobility devices. You are responsible for managing your own personal care needs during events.

Accessibility Assessment: While venues are vetted for general wheelchair accessibility, individual needs vary. Members are responsible for assessing whether an event is suitable for their specific mobility requirements.

Responsible Conduct & Alcohol: While some events may take place at venues that serve alcohol (restaurants, bars, etc.), members are expected to consume responsibly. Intoxication that compromises your safety or the safety and comfort of the group is not permitted. Illegal drug use is strictly prohibited.

Medication Safety: Members are responsible for their own prescribed medications. For the safety of the individual and the group, medications should be kept in their original labeled packaging or professional pharmacy-issued containers.

Service Animals: Accredited service animals are welcome but must be properly trained and under the handler's control at all times.

Venue Compliance: All participants must follow the rules and safety guidelines of each venue we visit.
