Ontario Athlete Assistance Program: Please note: OAWA is waiting to hear from the Ministry about the structure of the 2022-2023 Ontario Athlete Assistance Program (Carding)

- Senior athletes carded for 2021-2022 are required to participate.
- This event will be used as part of the OAWA Selection process for the 2022-2023 Ontario Athlete Assistance Program (carding). Information on availability and details regarding the 2022-2023 OAAP program is pending.
- To be considered for carding for the April 1, 2022 to March 31, 2023 Carding Eligibility program, Senior athletes must compete in these Ontario Senior Championships. The only exceptions will be if the athlete provides a signed Doctor's note indicating that they are injured and unable to participate. This note must be provided at or before the close of weigh-ins to the event Convener or OAWA VP Technical. Please see the full OAWA Carding Criteria for complete details on requirements to participate, and exemptions. Carding Criteria available on the OAWA web site.
- Athletes travelling on Wrestling Canada Lutte National Team Wrestling events may miss the event without penalty, but will not earn placing points from this event.
- Juniors may instead choose to compete in the 2023 Ontario Junior Championships.
- To earn Ontario carding points for 2022-2023, the athlete must be registered with OAWA for the 2022 membership year, or have registered in advance for 2023.
