

Fig's Artist Terms of Service

- Commission Agreement
 - The Artist agrees to provide artistic services to the Client as described in the commission request.
 - The Client agrees to provide clear and specific instructions regarding the commissioned artwork.
- Payment Terms
 - Payment details:
 - The Client agrees to pay the Artist a mutually agreed-upon fee for the commissioned work.
 - Payment schedule: [half upfront, half when finished]
 - Late payment: A late payment fee of 5%-25% will be applied to overdue payments depending on how long it has been.
- Ownership and Usage Rights
 - The Artist retains all rights to the commissioned artwork until full payment is received.
 - Upon full payment, ownership and usage rights of the commissioned artwork will be transferred to the Client for personal use only unless stated otherwise.
 - The Artist reserves the right to display the commissioned artwork in their portfolio and promotional materials unless otherwise agreed upon with the Client.
- Revisions
 - The Client is entitled to 3 revisions during the creation process.
 - Additional revisions beyond the agreed-upon number may include additional charges at the Artist's discretion.
- Confidentiality
 - Both parties agree to keep all commission details and communications confidential.
 - The Client agrees not to reproduce, distribute, or sell the commissioned artwork without the Artist's consent.
- Cancellation and Refunds
 - Either party may cancel the commission with written notice. Any deposits or payments made prior to cancellation are non-refundable.

- In the event of cancellation by the Artist due to unforeseen circumstances, the Client will receive a full refund of any payments made.
- Dispute Resolution
 - Any disputes arising from this agreement will be resolved through mediation or arbitration.
- Indemnification
 - The Client agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Artist from any claims, damages, or losses arising from the commissioned artwork.
- Governing Law
 - This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of [Jurisdiction].
- Termination
 - Either party may terminate this agreement with written notice if the other party fails to fulfill their obligations.