Summary: Part 6 of Power Couple. Rias has been doing a lot for Issei recently. So Issei decides to do something special for Rias. While she's in her office one day, she finds herself receiving a live video feed from her husband... one that shows him with Irina and Akeno. She gets to watch as he breeds the other two women right then and there on camera.

Contrary to popular belief, being a CEO was not just a walk in the park. Rias did have some work she had to do, even setting aside her secret marriage to one of her company's executives and the fact that they were basically building a harem out of the company's female employees.

… But that doesn't stop her from immediately dropping what she's doing when she receives an email from Issei. Opening it, she finds a link that she clicks without thinking about it. Thankfully, it's not a scam or a hacker who has managed to take over Issei's account. Instead, the link opens to a live video feed of Issei himself… and a sight that takes Rias' breath away.

Issei is sitting in a chair completely naked, his chiseled physique on display and his big fat cock, currently softened, resting between his spread thighs. Meanwhile, on either side of him and the chair are two women… or rather, two gorgeous, familiar, feminine asses.

The women in question are currently facing away from camera and bent over with their arms circling around to the back of their knees and their hands clasped behind them, framing their asses as hearts. It's a very erotic, very sexy pose that both are sporting… and sort of an internet craze from what Rias knows, at least in the more erotic sections of the internet.

All she can see is those heart-shaped asses, clasped hands, long legs, and the high heels the two naked women are wearing. And of course Issei, who has a hand resting on each upturned ass. And yet… Rias immediately knows who she's looking at.

"Hello Rias. I'm sure you're wondering what this is about… well, you've been doing a lot for me recently… so I thought I'd arrange something for you."

Rias' breath hitches as Issei rises to his feet, hands sliding along those shapely behinds. She bites her lower lip as he hums consideringly at them… before promptly giving both their asses a smack. The camera suddenly moves as the two women are sent stumbling forward towards the bed behind the chair.

Whoever the cameraman is (or rather, it's probably a camerawoman Rias thinks to herself enviously) they keep things steady, keeping the camera on the 'prize' so to speak and moving to the side so that they can get a good side profile of the two women and Issei.

Rias had already guessed who the girls were based solely on their asses admittedly, but she has her guess confirmed now by the camerawork. Its Irina and Akeno, the two women naked save for the high heels they're both wearing. They crawl onto the bed on all fours and arch their backs beautifully, presenting themselves to Issei for the taking.

Moving into position behind them, Issei reaches out and dips two fingers apiece into each of their cunts right there on the spot. This provokes immediately moans and flushed faces from the two women, who shudder and push their hips back into his questing digits as he drives deep and curls his fingers this way and that.

Biting her lower lip, Rias shudders as she sits there in her chair. For a moment, she considers forcing herself to remain still and not touching herself again… after all, she doesn't have permission to masturbate while being helplessly made to watch her beloved husband fuck other women in front of her~

"Feel free to touch yourself, Rias. This is a reward, after all."

Rias' hands fly onto her body the moment Issei speaks. She simply doesn't have it in her to deny herself if she has permission from her husband. Somehow, it's like he read her mind or something! Regardless, a throaty moan escapes the red head's lips as she hurriedly unbuttons her blouse before shoving one hand under her bra and the other down her pencil skirt, grinding the heel of her palm against her already wet pussy.

Meanwhile, on the live feed, the squelching noises that Irina and Akeno's pussies are making are getting particularly obscene in nature. They both keep moaning up a storm too, shuddering and quivering and thrusting their hips back into Issei's digits as he fingerbangs them both to his heart's content.

It's just so fucking hot watching her man use other women like this. Even hotter when those women are her best friend and his best friend respectively. And they're having the time of their lives too, their beautiful bountiful bodies bouncing and jiggling all over the place, showing off just how aroused they're really getting.

Until finally, Irina and Akeno let out matching squeals as they cum squirting all over Issei's hands, both of them making messes of themselves while he brings them to a mutual orgasm with his digits alone.

In the aftermath, while they're still recovering, Issei doesn't waste time. He attacks while they're at the weakest and most sensitive, in particular stepping up behind Akeno and grabbing her by the hips, driving his cock into her cunt from behind without so much as a 'by your leave'.

Hearing Akeno squeal and shriek at the abruptly penetration of her very sensitive pussy is the most beautiful thing Rias has listened to all weak. Her eyes drift shut for a moment and she smiles softly to herself as she leans back in her chair in her office. Her fingers continue to play with one of her nipples while the digits buried in her pussy match the rhythmic slapping of flesh against flesh she hears coming from the live feed.

CLAP! CLAP! CLAP!

Issei claps Akeno's cheeks like there's no tomorrow, his cock pounding into her pussy over and over again without respite. Rias moans, her eyes eventually fluttering open once more so she can see what's happening. It's a beautiful sight, to be sure. The camerawoman, who at this point she suspects of being Koneko because Asia probably wouldn't be up for such a task yet, is getting a few close ups.

First, she gets a close up of Akeno's face, contorting in pleasure as her boobs bounce and bob and sway under her body. Then, she moves the camera down to show where Issei's cock is plunging in and out of Akeno's pussy. Finally, she slides the camera up to show Issei's face before zooming back out again.

That close up on Issei's serious, determined face is all Rias needs to tip over the edge and experience her first orgasm. She moans and groans wantonly as she squirts all over the underside of her desk, even as Issei's pounding of Akeno's pussy continues on the live feed.

Eventually though, after Akeno herself cums at least twice on his cock, he slams into Akeno one last time and fills her with his seed, pumping a hot thick load directly into her womb. Then, Issei drags his dick out and immediately switches over to Irina as the camerawoman rushes to follow him.

His hands find Irina's twin tails and grab onto them like reins, dragging them back behind her head and making her spine arch as she moans for him. His cock teases Irina's entrance for a brief moment before Issei thrusts forward into her, filling her with his meat.

Rias pants noisily, the sight of him fucking Irina immediately after fucking Akeno almost too much to bear. It's just so unbelievably hot, the way he's using both women on camera like this. Rias is all the way at the office; she couldn't participate even if she wanted to… and that just makes it more arousing for her.

WHAP! WHAP! WHAP!

Issei fucks Irina with the same reckless abandon that he did Akeno, every last inch of his throbbing dick disappearing into his childhood friend's pussy time and time again. In response, the Missionary moans, her slutty and lusty body shaking and spasming its way through a couple orgasms of her own.

He uses her like an onahole, treating her like she's just another cum dumpster, and finally fills her up just like he did Akeno. Watching him creampie Irina makes Rias cum again, gushing like a fountain as she is and moaning up a storm the whole way through.

However… just when she thinks things are coming to a close, Issei proves her wrong. Just when she thinks that they're finishing up and she'll have to calm down and return to work… Issei suddenly pushes Irina onto her back and grabs Akeno up before depositing her on top of the other woman.

This results in the two women being sandwiched with each other, Akeno's massive tits squishing Irina's slightly smaller rack downwards, their bodies writhing and wriggling as they both moan.

Issei, meanwhile, slides his cock up between their once-creamed pussies, even as the camerawoman moves to make sure she gets a nice, clear shot of it.

Suddenly, Issei looks into the camera, directly into Rias' eyes, and grins wickedly.

"I bet you thought we were almost done, didn't you Rias?"

Blinking at being directly called out, Rias blushes and moans. It's a one way video feed, so she knows she can't actually reply, but she still groans out an 'Uh huh' that Issei 'responds' to a moment later.

"Well, we're not. We're just getting started. You see… I've decided that I'm going to breed these two today. I'm going to knock Akeno and Irina up. They've both already given me their consent… so all that's left is to pump as many loads as I can into these two ladies while you watch."

Rias' eyes widen at that reveal, her jaw dropping open. She would be lying if she said she hadn't fantasized about it… extensively. The thought of Akeno and Irina getting heavy with Issei's children, of them being turned into nothing but her husband's broodmares.

A whimper leaves Rias' throat even as she shudders in arousal at the idea. And as for Akeno and Irina… they certainly aren't protesting. In fact, they're moaning into one another's mouths and making out with each other even as Issei slides his cock in between their pussies for a bit longer before thrusting right back into Akeno and fucking away at her cunt.

He switches to Irina before cumming this time, giving them each a couple minutes apiece before he swaps back and forth between them. He fucks them both soundly at the same time, something that they clearly can't get enough of as they rub their sweaty, glistening bodies together.

Rias, meanwhile, helplessly and frantically frigs her clit while pistoning her fingers in and out of her cunt. Her eyes are lidded as she pants for breath. She's never been more turned on than in this moment watching Issei breed two other women who aren't her. It's honestly the hottest thing she's ever witnessed.

He doesn't hold back either. He fucks them both like he really means it, giving them his cock over and over again and making them each cum for him repeatedly.

PLAP! PLAP! PLAP!

SMACK! SMACK! SMACK!

The noises fill the video feed, the sounds coming from their mouths and their pussies like something out of this world. Rias shudders as she watches Issei cum in each of their pussies a second time. And then she watches as he keeps fucking them both, changing up positions, taking turns or fucking them simultaneously, but always giving them his big fat cock again and again.

Rias has no clue how long this goes on for. Time seems to lose all meaning as she watches Akeno and Irina get impregnated by Issei. Her husband fucks their best friends wildly and domineeringly, treating them like his personal cock sleeves as they enjoy it immensely.

Until finally… he delivers his last load. This one, after creampieing both women half a dozen times apiece, is delivered to their faces and tits, coating them both in his jizz and marking them properly as they tilt their heads back and loll out their tongues for him.

Then and only then does he turn back to the camera and give Rias a wicked grin and a wink.

“Hope you enjoyed the show, darling. See you later.”

With that, the live feed cuts off and Rias is left alone in her office staring at a blank screen. Panting heavily, she just sits there for a while recovering.

She had enjoyed the show. She’d enjoyed it very, VERY much~
