Detective Comics Volume 1 #463 featuring The Calculator and Black Spider $30

Detective Comics Volume 1 #470 First appearance of Silver St. Cloud. • "The Master Plan of Doctor Phosphorus!" – (17-page story) – Batman continues his search for Dr. Phosphorus as the radioactive villain terrorizes Gotham. NOTE: This issue is a part of the 8-issue story arc – from Detective Comics #469 to #476 – retroactively titled "Batman: Strange Apparitions," known for Steve Englehart and Marshall Rogers' now-classic portrayal of the Batman (also briefly featuring artwork by Walt Simonson). $40

Detective Comics Volume 1 #472 • "I Am the Batman!" – (17-page story) – Robin manages to rescue Alfred and Bruce Wayne from Hugo Strange's clutches. But Strange himself is captured by Rupert Thorne's men after he attempts to auction off the secret of Batman's identity, and when he refuses to divulge it, is apparently beaten to death. NOTE: This issue is a part of the 8-issue story arc – from Detective Comics #469 to #476 – retroactively titled "Batman: Strange Apparitions," known for Steve Englehart and Marshall Rogers' now-classic portrayal of the Batman (also briefly featuring artwork by Walt Simonson). $55

Detective Comics Volume 1 #500 • "To Kill A Legend" – The Phantom Stranger transports Batman and Robin to a parallel Earth where they must attempt to stop that world's Joe Chill from killing Thomas and Martha Wayne and forcing another Bruce Wayne to become the Batman. • "The 'Too Many Cooks...' Caper!" – (no synopsis written). • "Once Upon a Time..." – The Batman breaks up a heist committed by three costumed crooks. • "The Final Mystery of Edgar Allan Poe" – (no synopsis written). • "The Batman Encounters - Gray Face" – A mysterious Chinatown villain is dealing in extortion and murder. • "The Strange Death of Doctor Erdel" – (no synopsis written). •

"What Happens When a Batman Dies?" – Batman is lured into a trap by Stryker, a hitman who uses attack dogs armed with poisoned fangs. After Batman has received a poisoned bite, he lies near death in a Gotham City hospital. However, he manages to send a mental message to Deadman, who attempts to aid him in his battle for life. Batman, who has become depressed by his unending battle against crime, clinically dies and meets his parents' spirits in the afterworld, as well as a host of other people the Batman has aided. But the Waynes tell their son that he is more needed in the mortal world, and send his spirit back to his body. With the help of Deadman, Batman manages to rise from his hospital bed, track down Stryker--who is accidentally killed by his own attack dogs--and find an antidote to the poison. $22
