

Fort Bragg College of the Redwoods Disc Golf Course Sponsorship

The Mendocino Coast Golf Club is a group of men and women who participate in the sport of disc golf at recreational and competitive professional levels on the different courses here on the Mendocino coast.

Disc golf is identical to ball golf except instead of using clubs and balls, we throw plastic discs similar to Frisbees.

The sport has really grown here on the Mendocino coast, and the town of Fort Bragg has truly begun to embrace its home course at the College Of The Redwoods. The Fort Bragg Disc Golf course is a beautiful 9-hole course that is played not only by members of our club, but by many members of the community and surrounding areas, as well as by many tourists. A disc golfer always checks where the local courses are when they are traveling, so disc golf courses have become real magnets for out of town visitors.

In an effort to improve our Fort Bragg College Of The Redwoods disc golf course and involve our community in the cause, the Mendocino Coast Disc Golf Club is offering promotional opportunities to local businesses to become official course sponsors. Course sponsorship will dramatically help improve and maintain the current course and help players of all ages get interested in your business.

In order to provide local businesses with sponsorship options to suit their individual needs, we have established five levels of sponsorship for this effort. Below is described what each level of sponsorship will accomplish for the course, and what you as a sponsor will receive for each contribution.
