

Paganelli Professional Goals 2023-2024

Administrative Unofficial

Goals 2022-2023	Progress 2022-2023	Goals 2023-2024
Administrative – Unofficial course load reduction in the fall of 2023. Spring 20233 uncompensated support in transition to new administrative structure. General Support Fall 2022 in the absence of the Assistant Director of the School of Teacher Education due to sabbatical. These efforts continued into the spring of 2023. 1. Supporting the STE administrative structure as instructed by the Director of the School of Teacher Education, Dr. Susan Keesey and the Assistant Director School of Teacher Education Dr. Janet Tassell. 2. Support faculty inquiries whenever needed and serve to connect folks with resources available to help. 3. Support student inquiries whenever needed and serve to connect folks with resources available to help. 4. Mentor Committee Chair to support the development of consistent structures of support across programs for faculty. 5. Engage with Assistant Dean Dennis George in support of implementing Anthology at the graduate level for assessment.	Administrative – Unofficial course load reduction in the fall of 2023. Spring 2023 uncompensated support in transition to new administrative structure. General Support Fall 2022 in the absence of the Assistant Director of the School of Teacher Education due to sabbatical. These efforts continued into the spring of 2023. 1. Supporting the STE administrative structure as instructed by the Director of the School of Teacher Education, Dr. Susan Keesey and the Assistant Director School of Teacher Education Dr. Janet Tassell. 2. Lead the Policy and Procedure Committee with work products that include; • Faculty Mentor Handbook • Curated list of faculty links to support access and ease of experience. 3. Supported faculty inquiries whenever needed and served to connect folks with resources available to help. 4. Supported student inquiries whenever needed and served to connect folks with resources available to help.

6. Investigate the development of a School of Teacher Education Policy and Procedures supporting the vision, mission and core values outlined by the STE Director Dr. Susan Keesey.	5. Engage with Assistant Dean Dennis George in support of implementing Anthology at the graduate level for assessment during the fall of 2022. 6. Developed a School of Teacher Education Policy and Procedures committee supporting the vision, mission and core values outlined by the STE Director Dr. Susan Keesey. Continued the spring of 2023 to help colleagues as needed. Lead the Policy and Procedure Committee with work products that include; Faculty Mentor Handbook Curated list of faculty links to support access and ease of experience. Supported faculty inquiries whenever needed and served to connect folks with resources available to help. Supported student inquiries whenever needed and served to connect folks with resources available to help. School of Teacher Education Policy and Procedures committee supporting the vision, mission and core values outlined by the STE Director Dr. Susan Keesey.
--	---	--