

Never Make This Mistake On A First Date

Gregory and his date are sitting in Starbucks when his phone dies. He rummages an old, war-torn charger from his Man Bag then proceeds to balance it upside down against a damned serviette dispenser until he hears a ping. CRINGE

"Can I get you another coffee?", but alas, that's when she left, leaving him wondering if he'll see her again.

Well, As his charger would say, if it could talk: "... I'm a frayed knot".
