Guidance:

- 18-year-olds must be withdrawn from an education program in order to access Adult Education services and take the GED® Test, unless enrolled in a district-operated alternative education program. DPP signature is required in Section 2 for withdrawal.
- An 18-year-old must not be withdrawn from an education program or homeschool before the 18th birthday.
- If withdrawn for less than 90 days, or if the 18th birthday was less than 90 days ago, Section 4 is required.
- Those being served in alternative education programs per KRS 158.143 must NOT be withdrawn from the district in order to take the GED® test and will not be served by the local Adult Education program. Superintendent or authorized designee signature is required in Section 5.
