

Scene One- My Debut-

The scene opens up with a lady sitting on the steps leading to the ring.

The lady speaks up.

Lady:

Let me introduce myself to each and everyone of you. My name is Jessica Fyre and I am here to dominate the women of this federation. I know everyone thinks that they are the best here and I am here to prove them wrong. Now I know I am in for one hell of a match for my debut match but I know that at the end of it I could very well walk out of Philadelphia as the new Queen of The ring Champion. I know there are nine other women that have the same goal as me. I know at least one of them has the credentials to get the job done and that is Serenity Hunter. You see the way that I am looking at this match is that no matter what I am walking out a winner. Whether I walk out as the Queen of The Ring Champion or if I just walk out with knowledge on just how tough the competition here is going to be. Either way it will be a win in my eyes.

Jessica gets up and picks up some free weights and starts working out as she continues to talk.

Jessica Fyre:

Now I know that I have a lot to prove to each and everyone of you as none of you have ever seen what I am capable of doing. You see wrestling has been in my blood my entire life. I have a long line of wrestlers in my family but none of them have made it to where I have. It is time to put my family name in the spotlight once and for all. I don't care what I have to do but I will eliminate the other nine women in this match to win this match and prove just why I am going to be the top bitch in this federation. I am going to raise the bar so high that people are going to wonder if anyone will ever be able to overcome me. I know that I don't look like much standing before you but I promise you that I am stronger than you could ever imagine me being. I know what I want and I know what I have to do to get it. I know all I have to do is make myself the smallest and heaviest thing in the ring.

Jessica sits down.

Jessica Fyre:

I know that is easier said than done. I already have my game plan and I am going to let the other nine women eliminate themselves and then I will scoop in to finish the job. Soon WXXW will belong to me and I will be the one looking down upon all of you while you all look up to me. It is my time to shine and shine because I deserve it. I put in the work that the rest are afraid to put. I am willing and able to take part in whatever pathetic matches anyone can come up with. I get injured oh well I will still compete if physically able to. You see as long as there is an ounce of breath in my body I will fight. I will never back down from a fight and I will never wait around for a fight. If I am forced I will come to the back and drag someone out to that ring by the hair or their ear. It doesn't matter to me. This match is a battle royal so it doesn't mean I need to be stronger than the next person. It just means that I have to be smarter than the next person. Being smarter than the next person seems really easy at this point in time. Time will tell what I am capable of doing. Time will tell if any of you could even be worthy enough to tie my boots. I will see you ladies soon and I mean real soon.

Jessica keeps working out as the scene fades.
