

Complete the sentences
of the verbs given: get,
take, look or t

- His ex-girlfriend up at without any warning.
- What time do you up in ing?
- The prisoners themselves er three days on the run.
- I've got to these library back by tomorrow.
- John, could you please on reading the paragraph?
- Quick! Come and at that strange bird in the garden.
- It was great meeting you. We must together soon.
- Do you mind if I the TV down a bit? It's too loud.
- I'd like the problem to away.
- Can you help us? We're for some plain jogging pants.
- My father up smoking years ago.
- Our team are tough and they won't in.
- out! There's a car coming!
- Could you these videos back to the shop? They're overdue.
- The pop star decided to away the proceeds of his concert to charity.
- I've dialed his number but I can't through.
- I spent hours the problem over in my mind.
- The robbers managed to away with $ 500.000.
- I'll over the instructions if you like.
- Could I borrow your dictionary? I want to up the word 'committed'.
- Could you after my things for me while I go and get a drink?
- When did you decide to up parachuting?
- We're going to out 'No smoking' leaflets at the station.
- I couldn't remember it all. There was too much to in.
- It was so hot that we had to off our jackets.
- The milk off a bad smell.
- It was a terrible tragedy and we're still trying to over it.
- Prices have up again, I'm afraid.
- The police are into a number of thefts at our college.
She is very b oppose s after a mother that respect.

Write the completed sentences on the petals. Choose the correct flower for each sentence.

TEACHER TIPS

- Use both pages (1&2) as a set. Ss read and fill in the missing verbs on page 2. Then write either phrasal verbs (get through) or completed sentences on the petals (I've dialed his number but I can't get through) on page 1.
- Use only page 2 as a worksheet. Ss read and fill in the missing verbs.

KEY

1. His ex-girlfriend turned up at his house without any warning.
2. What time do you get up in the morning?
3. The prisoners turned themselves in after three days on the run.
4. I've got to give these library books back by tomorrow.
5. John, could you please go on reading the paragraph?
6. Quick! Come and look at that strange bird in the garden.
7. It was great meeting you. We must get together soon.
8. Do you mind if I turn the TV down a bit? It's too loud.
9. I'd like the problem to go away.
10. Can you help us? We're looking for some plain jogging pants.
11. My father gave up smoking years ago.
12. Our team are tough and they won't give in.
13. Look out! There's a car coming!
14. Could you take these videos back to the shop? They're overdue.
15. The pop star decided to give away the proceeds of his concert to charity.
16. I've dialed his number but I can't get through.
17. I spent hours turning the problem over in my mind.
18. The robbers managed to get away with $ 500.000.
19. I'll go over the instructions if you like.
20. Could I borrow your dictionary? I want to look up the word 'committed'.
21. Could you look after my things for me while I go and get a drink?
22. When did you decide to take up parachuting?
23. We're going to give out 'No smoking' leaflets at the station.
24. I couldn't remember it all. There was too much to take in.
25. It was so hot that we had to take off our jackets.
26. The milk gave off a bad smell.
27. It was a terrible tragedy and we're still trying to get over it.
28. Prices have gone up again, I'm afraid.
29. The police are looking into a number of thefts at our college.
30. She's very beautiful I suppose she takes after her mother in that respect.
31. Don't forget to turn off the lights when you go out.
32. They decided to go back because of the rain.
33. The band was so popular that hundreds of fans were turned away.
34. My cousin likes his job but he doesn't get on with his boss very well.
35. Go in please and close the door.
36. He wants his daughter to take over his business when he retires.