

Archives of Management and Social Sciences

MANUSCRIPT NO. :

TITLE OF THE MANUSCRIPT :

CORRESPONDING AUTHOR :

1. Meeting a minimum of three criteria outlined in the subsequent table is essential for an individual to be considered an author, indicating substantial contributions to the study.
2. All authors must either develop the manuscript's framework, provide intellectual input, and critically assess its content.
3. All authors are responsible for approving the final version of the article before publication.
4. Every author is expected to fulfil the requirements detailed in the above three points.
5. Individuals who fail to meet the specified criteria for contributions and conditions will be acknowledged in the article's final "Acknowledgements" section.
6. The provisions outlined in this document adhere to the guidelines set forth by COPE.
<https://publicationethics.org/authorship>

TYPE OF CONTRIBUTION	DESCRIPTION	CONTRIBUTORS
Conception	Formulating a Research Idea or Hypothesis for a Manuscript
Design	Developing a Methodology to Achieve Research Conclusions
Supervision	Managing and Overseeing the Project or Article Progress with Accountability
Funding's	Contributing Essential Personnel, Environmental, Financial Support, and Vital Tools for the Project
Data Collection and/or Processing	Assuming Responsibility for Execution, Data Management, and Reporting
Analysis and/or Interpretation	Assuming Responsibility for the Logical Interpretation and Presentation of the Results
Writer	Assuming Responsibility for Constructing the Entire Manuscript or Body of Work
Critical Review	Conducting a Pre-submission Review of the Manuscript, encompassing not only spelling and grammar but also evaluating its intellectual content.
Other ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS: DISCLOSURE STATEMENT: FUNDING STATEMENTS:

CORRESPONDING AUTHOR:

SIGNATURE :

DATE :

Note: The corresponding author should sign this form and submit it along with the rest of the manuscript files during the initial submission.