

Preparing your presentation:

On Thursday your group will have and should use 10 minutes to argue your point of view.

1. What does your group think about using military force in Afghanistan and Pakistan?
2. What do you believe the top U.S. priority/priorities should be in Afghanistan and why?
3. What does your group think about negotiating with the Taliban?
4. What does your group think about the efficacy of using drones to target militants? What might be the long and short-term repercussions of this policy?
5. What do you think about partnering with Pakistan against militant groups?
6. How should the public understand about the death of Osama bin Laden?
7. What historical fact from pre/post Cold War supports your position?
8. What are the primary weaknesses of your position, and how do you respond to these?
9. Overall, what is the perception that the international community should have about the US? What values do we represent based on your option?
10. Formulate at least one question for each of the other groups.
