

Kier Family Memorial Scholarship 2024

This gift is in memory of Judy, Bill and Tom Kier. Judy was a 40+ year employee of Wayne Local School. Her husband, Bill and Bill's brother Tom, were both Waynesville High School graduates. Bill retired as a coach and librarian from Xenia City Schools after 30 years of service. Tom retired as a coach and teacher from Carlisle Schools after close to 30 years of service. All three of them loved Waynesville and devoted their lives to education.

Applicants for the Kier Family Memorial Scholarship should be hard working and compassionate individuals who have a strong desire to pursue studies in education, athletic training, and fitness related fields. Consideration will be given to other applicants of other fields.

Please note that monies accepted by the selected individual are specifically restricted for the use of tuition for any two- or four-year institution.

All applications must be received no later than March 1, 2024 at 2:30pm
