

Privacy policy

The term "personal information" used in this document is defined as any information that identifies or can be used to identify, transmit or search for the person to whom such information relates. The personal information we collect will be the subject of this privacy policy, which is subject to change from time to time.

Inside the application, restrictions are used:

- users cannot interact with each other or exchange information;
- the application does not transfer to third parties personal data provided by users;
- the application does not transmit information about the user's location to other people.

The app uses only Google Play certified advertising SDKs.

The application does not request access to location data.

We do not ask for your email address, phone number or any information about you.

The security of your personal information will not be affected.
