Beat Rubric -

"Bounce High"

Kids sing (as a group) individual beat assessment - individual demonstrating tapping the beat in any way. Can be, but not limited to: on a drum with hands/mallets, patting legs, pointing to hearts on sheet, or even a single heart or icon, tapping on hand, tap on desk

1st grade:

MU: Pr4B.1b When analyzing selected music, read & perform rhythmic (or melodic) patterns using iconic or standard notation

Score using checkmarks on data tracker

Song: Bounce High (D Major) Individually sung by student, grade on 4 point scale using rubric.

2nd grade:

MU:Pr4B.2b When analyzing selected music, read and perform rhythmic and melodic patterns using iconic or standard notation.

Rhythm assessment - clapping or rhythms sticks

Valued at 16 points, one point per beat

Individualized test - have students come up to you and say and perform rhythms on page individually. They read one page while you mark on the student's test page. Circle any beats that were incorrect, take off that many points.

If students says correct but not clap correct, they still get the point.

(2024-2025) adding 4 points for keeping it fluently to the beat

4 points - independently fluent with the beat consistently

3 points - keeps steady beat most of the time

2 points - keeps steady beat with interruption to the beat multiple times

1 points - rarely fluent in keeping beat

0 points - no beat

3rd grade:
