

Welcome to Participate in the 2023 Nebraska World language Week!

Dear World Language Educators and programs in and outside of Nebraska, you are invited to participate in the 2023 Nebraska World Language Week (February 13 – 19, 2023). The theme of the 2023 Nebraska World Language Week is “Lead with Language.” Please check the following links to check how to participate:

- Distinguished World Language Scholar Awards - Nebraskan students only
 - o World Language teachers nominate students for the award
 - o Nominated students submit the required materials by December 27th
 - o Please check the flyer for details: <https://bit.ly/3pZ005Q>
- Virtual Campus visits (in target language) - language programs in & Outside of the U.S.
 - o Language programs submit proposals to NDE World Languages (chrystal.liu@nebraska.gov)
 - o Language programs create virtual campus visits in Target Language
 - o Language programs lead students in virtual campus visits during the NE World Language Week.
 - o Please check the flyer for details: <https://bit.ly/3B0LAID>
- Online interactive games/ activities (Language-focused) - Teachers and students in and outside of Nebraska
 - o World Language teachers submit proposals to NDE World Languages (chrystal.liu@nebraska.gov)
 - o World Language teachers lead students in the online interactive games/ activities during the NE World Language Week.
 - o Please check the flyer for details: <https://bit.ly/3Rmsy4L>
- Virtual authentic cultural experience (Culture-Specific) - Teachers and students in and outside of the U.S.
 - o World Language programs and teachers submit proposals to NDE World Languages (chrystal.liu@nebraska.gov)
 - o Language programs create virtual campus visits in Target Language
 - o Language programs lead students in virtual campus visits during the NE World Language Week.
 - o Please check the flyer for details: <https://bit.ly/3pVCXsH>

For more details, please contact chrystal.liu@nebraska.gov

